We shall not be surprised if the attendance at that meeting happens to be exceedingly thin, but we can guarantee that a majority of the delegates will exhibit an irresistible hankering after the political flesh-

THE BEE is indebted to Mr. N. Byers, publisher of the Rocky Mountain News, for a copy of a neatly bound and elegantly printed pamphlet entitled, "Routes of Travel in Colorado." It is an indispensable hand-book for the tourist, capitalist or immigrant, and contains the most reliable statistical information, besides furnishing interesting and instructive sketches of Colorado towns, villages, cities, mountains, valleys and mines.

This hand-book is mailed to al applicants at the nominal sum of twenty cents, which places it within the reach of everybody.

THE Washington Chronicle, Senator Harlan's paper, is somewhat severe on Tilton when it declares : "It is not to be wondered at that Mrs. Tilton should leave her husband, as indicated by last night's atches. That notorious woman, Mrs. Woodhull, has telegraphed to Theodore, from San Francisco, that If her testimony is needed she will take the overland route, and fly to withdrawing from the Protestant Episcopal Church in order to join the Reformed Episcopal Church.
