Broken Lines Make Broken Prices

Its between Hay and Grass time with our Ready-to-Wear Department.

Between seasons finds our stocks in several departments more or less depleted, some sizes and some lines in certain goods are missing, other lines are too largely represented.

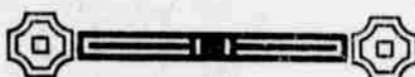

Now we must open up spring lines soon so we have put rock bottom removal prices on all seasonable merchandise.

That what to us may be classed as an odd-and-end may be exactly what you are looking for.
