Every man that has a public sale on hand wants good attractive sale bills—bills that attract the attention of the passerby and very materially assist in drawing people to the sale. That's the kind we print at this office and that's the kind every man holding a sale should have.

As No. 15 pulled into the city last night one of the eccentric couplings broke and disabled the big engine to such an extent that she was unable to start the train. Another engine and crew were called from Red Cloud and after a two hours delay the train pulled out again with the crippled engine being towed along by the extra that came to take its place.—Riverton Review.

Allen Tulleys was seen on our streets Saturday his face aglow with "that smile that wont come off." He was inquiring for the census taker, stating that the population of our city had been increased and he desired to have it shown immediately upon the census report. Allen says it is a promising baby boy. The mother and son are doing nicely and the attending physician gives the encouraging report that with the proper care Mr. Tulleys will speedily recover from his "st-n-stroke."

Take your cream to J. O. Caldwell.

The following transfers were copied from the records this week by this editor and were filed Dec. 19, 1913, and had not been published: Hugh B. Hunter and wife to Howard H. Hunter, wd, ne 1/4 ne 1/4, lots 2, 3, sec 13, lot 8, 12-1-19, $12,000; H. B. Hunter and wife to 1540 B. Kiekard, wd, ne 1/4 16-2-9, $12,000; Hugh B. Hunter and wife to George E. Hunter, wd, ne 1/4 16-2-9, $12,000.

Will M. Maupin's February issue of Midwest Magazine, which is published at Lincoln, contains more pungent paragraphs about Nebraska than ever before put between covers. You will miss a rare treat if you fail to secure this popular magazine, which is a credit to Nebraska. It can be secured at all newsdealers for 15 cents a copy or can be obtained by mail for $1.50 per year.

The advance in hog prices today carried tippy grades to $8.50. Among those who sold porkers at this price was Martin Meents, a substantial German farmer and stockman of Webster county, Nebraska. His shipment was made up of 72 butchers of the Duroc-Jersey variety, averaging 239 pounds. Mr. Meents was here with the shipment and was well pleased with the sale.—Monday's St. Joe Stock Yards Daily Journal.

Examiner Seybolt and his clerks are still hard at work on the failed bank of Superior, says Monday's Hastings Republican. He says it may pay out more than fifty cents on the dollar—the first utterance from him giving any ray of encouragement. There is a settled conviction now that the bank is in a bad condition. Nothing has come to the surface to indicate the place of hiding of the cashier who so suddenly disappeared.

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coplen received an invitation to the wedding of their son, Keller N., of Garden Grove, California, to Miss Ethel Swail of that city. Keller is assistant cashier in the Bank of Garden Grove. The wedding will take place February 5th, at the home of the bride's parents. The Chief, along with Keller's many friends, extends congratulations in advance, and wish them a happy voyage over life's matrimonial seas.

Next Sunday, February 1st, marks the first day of the month which will, to all appearances, be a very busy one. Before more than five days of the new month has passed, the theatre going public will be called upon to sit up and take note of the fact that A. C. Hosmer, who for forty odd years has labored faithfully at the printing craft, has survived the storms and rough seas for another twelve months, and is once again enjoying a birthday. Then the 12th of the month marks the birth of Abraham Lincoln, the 13th the birth of C. A. Schellak, (another great man) and the 14th being St. Valentine's day. After this comes the birthday of the noted George Washington, on the 22nd. Strange, it is indeed strange, how many great men were born in this month, and with so many events to fittingly celebrate, surely the time until spring and the robin's return will not seem long.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wittwer who have been living on his farm south of this city for a number of years moved to town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Koon are the happy parents of a baby boy which was born Wednesday.

The Chief desires to secure a good, live correspondent in several of the adjoining towns, which is not already represented in these columns. If you are interested, or should you know of any one in your locality who would care to assume this duty, we would consider it a personal favor if you would "put us next."

Last Saturday afternoon being the event of her tenth birthday, Naomi Corner became hostess to ten little friends. The customary birthday cake was a glow with ten blue candles, which color predominated in the decorations. At the close of a very jolly afternoon, all wished Naomi many birthdays, with the added wish to report a good time with her.

Mrs. Fiske in "Tess, of the D'Urbervilles" was on the curtain at the Teepee Monday afternoon and evening. The picture was of a highly colored scenic feature and was one of the best that had been seen by our citizens for some time. Mr. Warren is certainly giving the public a No. 1 line of pictures which ought to be appreciated by our citizens.

Harold Turnure and Will Storey proved to be very resourceful hosts last Friday evening, when a number of friends were informally invited to attend a stag party at the home of the latter. The usual formality occasioned by the presence of the opposite sex was a missing quantity, and this fact added to the congeniality of the entertainment, prompted the young men to proffer their hearty congratulations to the hosts as well as the cook.

The public sale of Alex Davison and Jim McIntosh which was held on the McIntosh farm northwest of town, yesterday, was largely attended and the stuff offered for sale brought fancy prices. Horses sold from $175 to $200; chickens at $8.00 per dozen; cattle at an average of $57 per head; 200 pound hogs at $17 and $18 and hay at $13.50 per ton. The sale was a big success, and is sufficient proof that there is still ready money in the county, and that "it pays to advertise."
