"Alfalfa John" Franklin, of Beaver City, Nebr., was here this week and bought seed from McArthur, Coulson, Huffer and Haskins. He earned the above title because he has bought $28,000 worth of alfalfa seed and sold $1700 worth to an agent of the United States Department of Agriculture.

I am sorry to state that R. L. Avery has sold his interests in Riverton and will move to Red Cloud, where he has purchased the Saunders Bros. lumber yard. He has made many friends in this town and the surrounding country and has built up a fine business, and will be missed by the people with whom he dealt and I wish him all kinds of success in his new business.—Riverton Review.

Mr. H. A. Letson, of the firm of Miner Bros. Co., left for the markets of Kansas City and Chicago the first of the week. Mr. Letson has proven himself to be a very capable buyer and an excellent judge of goods and he is in a position to take advantage of whatever the market has to offer. This is not only beneficial to the firm but also to its patrons as well. He will be away about ten days.

County Judge A. D. Ramsey united in marriage on March 5th Bernice Moler and Miss Mabel Jane Williams of Smith county, Kansas; Fred E. Roberts to Nelma Vandevort, both of Guide Rock, on March 9th and Louis O. Bures, of Nuckolls county to Miss Lulu Collins of Orleans; Nebraska, on March 10, 1914. A license to wed was also issued on March 9th to Christ C. Guy and Miss Pauline Rawlins both of Guide Rock.

The pastor of the Congregational church will give two lecture sermons on Sunday, morning subject, "The True Church," its origin, its early early practice, the one thing necessary for membership and the one thing that makes the difference between a dead and a living church today. Evening subject, "What is the World's Greatest Need and What is Christianity Answer to That Need?" or "Can Christianity Satisfy the One Great Need of the World?" Good music. Everybody welcomed.

Monday morning nine sacks of mail order catalogues were taken out on the rural routes. If those who receive these catalogues will carefully study the goods and the prices therein contained and then will just as carefully study the goods and prices of the home merchants they will find that for the present and in the long run it will pay them to patronize their home merchant. Many times the catalogue is the cause of over buying, articles are purchased which are not used, other articles spoil and if a year's account is kept it has been the experience of many that there is a considerable money saving when the home merchant furnishes the goods.

Fred Bascom was in Hastings Monday.

Ben McFarland is in Lincoln this week.

E. L. Garber spent Monday in Guide Rock.
