Shelf worn goods is the common experience of the merchant that does not advertise. The merchant shrewd enough to let the public know what he has to sell cannot keep his goods on the shelves long enough for them to get worn or out of date.

A young city traveling man ate breakfast at a country hotel. He was very shaggy, and when he wanted cream for his coffee he said, "please chase the cow down this way." "Here Jane," said the landlady, "take the cow down to where the calf is bawling"—EX.
The various millinery stores in the city held their openings last Saturday and their stores were well filled with patrons during the day. Mrs. Barrett had a good supply of seasonal goods on display and these were very tastefully arranged. At Miss Averill's store many excellent models of the seasons best were well displayed and no one could fail to find a suitable headgear there. Mrs. Burden in addition to having a very fine display of hats also had the Betz orchestra play during the day. This added considerably to the pleasure of the opening.
A three-dollar paper and two other papers, all for $2, is the offer of the Lincoln Daily News. That paper and the weekly Independent Farmer and monthly Poultry Topics, all three mailed from now until April 1, 1915, for the $2, just as a trial offer. They all stop when time is up. The News is a pioneer in independence and has no entangling alliances, either personal, private, corporate or party. It is frank, open and above board, does not print liquor or nasty medical advertisements, and does not knowingly admit fraudulent advertisements of any kind to its columns. It is a live wire proposition for Nebraskans, full of cartoons and illustrations, and with these two other papers sort of helps to bring down the high cost of living as far as newspapers are concerned. Send $2 today to the Lincoln Daily News and all three papers will start at once.

Dairying Conserves Fertility
By marketing the products of the farm in the form of butter or cream, only 5 percent of the fertility contained in the farm crops is sold in the product. By marketing corn, wheat, hay, etc., practically all the fertility required to grow the crop is sold from the farm. By feeding raw materials to the dairy cows, the dairy department of the State College of Agriculture says that the farmer is not only manufacturing high priced products, but retaining upon the farm all the fertilizing material taken from the soil by the growing crop.

The TEPEE
Program For Coming Week

The Series Pictures
The Adventures Of Kathlyn
Will commence at the Tepee
Monday and Tuesday
MARCH 23 and 24
A wonderful series of photoplays, distinct but interlinked in interest—dealing with the secrets of Orientalism in the mystical land of Alaba, involving a beautiful American who is reluctantly forced to take a throne and rule a race of fanatics. Her experiences with cruel and crafty men are trying; but her daring diversions with wild and blood-thirsty inhabitants of jungles make this the most wonderful line of animal pictures ever filmed. The rich surroundings of royalty invest its pageantry with environment rarely attractive.
Kathlyn has leopards for pets and lion for playmates, and her adventures in wild lands pile up a series of experiences most realistic and exciting. A story of mystery keeps other interests quickened while ingenuity and elaboration of situation makes "THE ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN" as unusual as they are attractive.
No. 1 of the Series entitled
AN UNWELCOME THRONE
is in three reels. It is a romantic and thrilling story in which an American girl is compelled to take a throne in India. Actual scenes from the Orient are introduced and rich and appropriate costumes are shown.
The fourth reel of the program will be the EDUCATION OF AUNT GEORGIA—a Vitagraph Comedy.
Regular prices—10 and 5.

Wednesday and Thursday
MARCH 25-26
WHEN STRONG WILLS CLASH.—A fine two-reel feature drama from the Paris studio of Pattie. It tells a human story that grips from beginning to end. A praiseworthy production with a delightful ending.
HEARTS AND FLOWERS.—A beautiful Selig picture with a well sustained interest from beginning to end.
THE GOLF GAME and the Bonnet.—A Bunnygraph with John Bunny and Flora Finch.—By disregarding orders John gets into trouble and a peace offering becomes necessary.

Friday and Saturday
MARCH 27 and 28
THE CIRCLES END.—Drama.
PATHE WEEKLY.
SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS.—Drama.
THE JANITOR'S REVENGE.—Comedy.
THE MYSTERY OF THE MILK.—Drama.
A fine four-reel program with each number up to the mark in interest.
REGULAR PRICES—10 and 5c.
First show 7:30, Second 9:00. Matinee Saturday at 3 p. m.
COMING—BATTLE OF SHILO in four reels. Regular prices, Monday April 13th—one day only, afternoon and evening.

Sunday School Holds Big Convention
Those who missed the convention the 9th and 10th of March missed a very interesting and spiritual meeting. J. S. Dick, W. H. Kimberly and Miss Brown, three state workers, were there the two days and not an idle moment passed. They brought us the most interesting and up-to-date methods in Sunday School work. One of the best was Miss Brown's lecture on her trip around the world. Her trip through the Orient was doubly so on account of the flags, banners and many curios she brought home to illustrate her journey. The need of missionaries in Japan, Korea and China is great at this time as they are evolving out of their superstitions and idolatry. L. P. Albright, our old time Sunday School song leader, lead thru the two days with Mrs. L. E. Hunt as Chorister. The next convention will be held at Bladen next March.
The officers for the ensuing year are: President—Chas. Hodges, Guide Rock; Vice Pres.—H. H. Hite, Bladen; Sec'y—Treas.—Mrs. Clarence Guy, Guide Rock; Elementary Div.—Miss Mable Fuller, Cowles; Secondary Div.—Mrs. Ada M. Fay, Blue Hill; Adult Div.—C. H. Rust, Red Cloud; Home Visitation—Mrs. Chas. Waldo, Inavale; Teachers Training—H. E. Lininger, Cowles; Pastors—W. H. Wright, Red Cloud; Missions—W. H. Jackson, Bladen; Temperance—Rev. Lobough, Rosemont.
There were 106 visiting delegates and 29 Sunday Schools represented. The average attendance of the six sessions was 223%; and the total attendance was 1342. There was about double the schools and attendance of last year. It was considered the most spiritual and uplifting session ever held in the county.—A delegate.

Women Are County Superintendents in the West
After having attended the meeting of the National Educational association of County Superintendents and School Principals, held at Richmond, Va., Misses Gertrude L. Coon and L. Nema-ha Clarke, both county superintendents in Nebraska, says The Evening Gentus, Uniontown, Pa., have arrived here and are the guests of Miss Clarke's aunt, Mrs. Daniel Chisholm, at her Morgantown street residence.
Miss Coon, who resides at Red Cloud, Nebraska, is superintendent of Webster county, and Miss Clarke occupies a similar position in Nemaha county. She resides at Auburn, Nebraska. Both young ladies are members of the National Educational association.
During the past month they have visited a number of points in the East, where they have studied the various school systems. Particular attention is being paid to the new Pennsylvania school code, now in force in this state, the Nebraska legislature having a change in the school laws under contemplation.
The women are surprised to find so few county superintendents in the East of their own sex. In Nebraska about fifty per cent of the county superintendents of schools are females. In the districts the women represent about eighty per cent of the school teachers are women.
Both young ladies are talented and accomplished, and are a true type of the progressive middle West. While in the East they have visited Southern Florida, Washington, D. C., Richmond, Va., St. Augustine, Chattanooga, and various other points. They expect to remain here until the first of the coming week.
Morris Groat of Inavale was in town Tuesday.
Eli Cox of Bladen was in town the first of the week.
Frank Norton of Superior is visiting his sister Mrs. Morton Smith this week.
Chris Ohmstede and Ed. Fairfield were up from Guide Rock Sunday afternoon.
District Judge Harry S. Dungan and Court Reporter Baird of Hastings arrived in the city the first of the week.
Mr. Martin who has been living west of town has moved to town and W. A. Kent and family have moved into his residence.
