

DR. JOHN A. GRAY

Is the former pastor of the largest Workingmen's Church in New York City. To better understand the "Down and Out" he left his church in the dead of winter and lived the life of the homeless man of the Bowery for three months. Come and hear him tell the story. It is thrilling, humorous and pathetic.

JUDGE FRANK P. SADLER

Judge Sadler has presided in the Harrison and Desplains Street Stations' criminal branches of the Municipal Court of Chicago, the two branches dealing with the most vicious criminal classes of the great city of Chicago. His lectures deal with vital questions of the hour. They are results of experiences in the great school of life.

THE RIHELDAFFER-GAILEY COMPANY

This is unquestionably one of the finest musical organizations in America. Mrs. Riheldaffer is recognized by both the press and public as one of the nation's greatest sopranos. Miss Gailey is a violinist of brilliant and conspicuous ability. Mr. Lewis, pianist, is a popular artist of New York, who has toured with Alice Neilson and other Grand Opera stars.

GILBERT SHORTER CONCERT COMPANY

This company is unique in its versatility. It is composed of four big class artists, each having two or more accomplishments. They present a program including instrumental and vocal quartettes, solo, piccolo and corpe solos, new readings of exceptional merit, musical monologues, etc.

LIBERATI'S BAND AND GRAND OPERA COMPANY

IN PRESENTING Liberati's Band and Grand Opera Company we are giving to our patrons an opportunity to hear the best the country afford in Band and Vocal Music. This is the world famous band which was first organized in the early eighties and since that time toured the United States from coast to coast, time and time again. Our experienced and popular opera singers will travel with Liberati's Band, rendering portions of popular operas with Band accompaniment.

HOOSIER MALE QUARTETTE

The characteristic feature of the program that the Hoosier Male Quartette renders is their ensemble singing, which shows careful training and sympathetic blending of voices. Each member is a soloist of more than ordinary ability. Their repertoire is varied and extensive, including classical, oratorio, sacred, popular and humorous selections.

COYLA MAY SPRING AND SISTER

The Spring Sisters offer one of the very best two-people combinations to be found in the Lyceum and Chautauqua field. Their entertainment displays great variety, including dramatic, comedy, character and musical readings, cello solos, pianologs, vocal solos, duets, soprano solos with cello obligato, etc. We offer this company with the greatest confidence.

MADAM MOUNTFORD

Madam Mountford was born and reared in the City of Jerusalem. She interprets the Bible from the viewpoint of one who knows the life and habits of these people as no foreigner can. Her lectures are illustrated throughout with paraphernalia from press and preachers in every religion.

MARIETTA LA DILL

Miss Marietta La Dill comes from Toronto, Canada. She has been a successful reader upon the Lyceum and Chautauqua platform for the past twelve years. She is one of the foremost artists of the North American Continent today. Perhaps her strongest forte is her child impersonations.

MISS FOLA LA FOLLETTE

Miss La Follette is the daughter of Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin. Her lecture, "The Democracy of Woman Suffrage," advocates a cause that is close to her heart and one upon which she has put much time and attention. She is recognized as one of the foremost Woman Suffrage speakers of the nation.

CROATIA TAMBURICAN ORCHESTRA

This Orchestra comes from the Province of Croatia, Austria-Hungary. They use the Tamburicas, native instrument of these people. They offer a most pleasing novelty and at the same time a splendid musical program. The range of music played is limitless, including the classical, the simplest compositions and the most intricate of native music. You cannot afford to miss hearing them.

FATHER JOHN DALY

Rev. John Daly whose gifts of oratory have delighted thousands throughout the United States for years is devoting himself to the care and education of homeless and neglected children. On the platform he is a pronounced success. The brilliant play of wit and stories in his lectures illuminates the tears brought forth by the pathos of scenes described from life.

DR. CLARENCE W. WASSAM

Dr. Wassam is a young man with a message. He is not a professional lecturer, but a teacher, and he puts the same interest and enthusiasm into his lectures that he does into his teaching. The large number of return dates which Dr. Wassam is called upon to fill is the best proof of his success as a popular lecturer.

DR. MATTISON W. CHASE

Dr. Chase's lectures are popularly characterized as "Eloquent interminglings of philosophy, wit, sentiment, and common sense." The striking characteristics of his utterances are their sincerity and earnestness which beget absorbing interest and enduring conviction. You feel that he says things because they will out. His voice is clear, smooth and mellow and of unusual carrying power.

Dr. D. F. Fox is one of the most widely known popular lecturers in America. There is a subtle charm in his oratory. His lectures abound in dramatic situations, his descriptions are graphic, his delineation of character wonderful and his understanding of great men and great events amazing. To hear him is to know something of the splendor and power of perfect speech.
