

JOHN A. MAGUIRE Lincoln, Nebr. CONGRESS-FIRST DISTRICT.

Born In Illinois, 1872. Graduate Iowa College of Agriculture, and University of Nebraska, 1898-9. Deputy treasurer Lancaster county two years. Delegate St. Louis 1904. Secretary Democratic State Committee 1905. Elected to 61st, 62nd and 63rd Congresses.

CHARLES O. LOBECK Omaha, Nebr.

Born In Illinois, 1852. Educated In schools at Andover, Geneseo, Berea and Chicago. Commercial traveler 1875 to 1892. Republican state senator (Omaha) 1892. Became silver republican 1896. Omahe City Councilman, 1897 to 1903. City Comptroller, 1903-12. Democratic presidential elector 1900. Elected to 62nd and 63rd Congresses. and 63rd Congresses.

DAN V. STEPHENS Fremont, Nebr. CONGRESS-THIRD DISTRICT.

Born in Indiana, 1868. Educated at Valparaiso College. Settled in Nebraska, 1887. Two terms County School Superintendent. Author two books on education, Delegate St. Louis 1904, Denver 1908, Elected to 62nd and 63rd Congresses.

WALTER H. RHODES Hebron, Nebr.

Born in Beatrice, Neb., 1872. Learned harness trade. Graduated University of Nebraska, 1896 and 1902. County Super-intendent Thayer county two terms; City Superintendent Minden schools; two terms Mayor of Hebron, and two terms Treasurer, Thayer county.

ASHTON C. SHALLENBERGER Alma, Nebr. CONGRESS-FIFTH DISTRICT.

Born in Illinois. Educated University of Illinois. Settled in Nebraska 1830. Twenty years in banking business up to 1909. Member 57th Congress from this district. Governor of Nebraska, 1909-11. Now engaged in farming and cattle raising. Popular Chautauqua lecturer.

FRANK J. TAYLOR St. Paul, Nebr. CONGRESS—SIXTH DISTRICT.

Born in Illinois, 1866. Settled in Ne-braska, 1879. Graduate University of Michigan, 1891. Practicing attorney since 1891. County attorney, Howard county, six terms. President Citizens' State Bank, St. Paul, and large landowner. Deeply interested in agricultural prog-ress, and successful in business and pro-fessional matters. fessional matters.

JOHN H. MOREHEAD Falls City, Nebr. GOVERNOR.

Governor Morehead was born on a farm in lowa. Settled in Nebraska 32 years ago. Taught achool, worked on a farm, established a country store. County treasurer Richardson county two terms. Four terms mayor of Falls City. State Senator 1911; president pro tem and later acting lieutenant governor. Elected governor 1912 and now renominated by overwhelming vote.

CHARLES W. POOL Hyannis, Nebr.

Resident of Nebraska 49 years; 35 delitor. President Nebraska Press Asso-elation, 1913-14. Member and Speaker of Nebraska House of Representatives, 1909. At present Deputy Commissioner of

WILLIS E. REED

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Born in lowa 48 years ago. Taught school there 7 terms. Settled in Nebras-ka, 1886. Admitted to bar, 1888, and later

Has wide and extensive experience in law practice, and is a public speaker of

DON'T ROCK THE BOAT!

mony.

It is a time when all patriotic American citizens—regardless of politics— will give aid and comfort to President

This is a time for unity and har-marked ability.

GILBERT M. HITCHCOCK Omaha, Nebr. UNITED STATES SENATOR.

WM. H. SMITH Seward, Nebr.

Born in Illinois, 1873. Publisher of the independent-Democrat at Seward the past 17 years. Five years secretary of the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers. Secretary of the Nebraska State Senate in 1909 and 1911. State Senator, Twelfth district, in 1913. Author of exprese tax law and uniform bridge plans bills.

DEMOCRATIC (ANDIDATES

WOODROW WILSON

W. B. EASTHAM Broken Bow, Nebr.
COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC LANDS AND BUILDINGS.

Born in Virginia. Settled in Broken Bow ahead of the railroad in 1884. Engaged in real estate business continuous-ly, except for six years as deputy revenue collector. First democrat ever elected to legislature from Custer county. At pres-ent member city council and school ance to his enemies—at this most trying of trying times-are unpatriotic and unsafe members of society.

"Don't rock the boat!"

Fulfilling the duties of president of the United States, even in times of profound peace, is a most difficult

It is much more difficult when the United States is carrying on a war. But most difficult of all is the president's duty when the United States is at peace with all the world-and practically all the rest of the world are Those who is any way lend assist- at war with each other.

WILL M. MAUPIN RAILWAY COMMISSIONER.

Born in Missouri, 1863. Learned printers' trade. Came to Nebraska in 1886. Engaged in newspaper business ever since. Held editorial positions on Omaha World-Herald and Bryan's Commoner. Now edits and publishes Midwest Magazine. Deputy labor commissioner, 1909-1911.

The wonderful wisdom and sagacity displayed by President Wilson in guiding the United States safely through the Mexican situation are being more than duplicated now in his skilful handling of the European war prob-

"Don't rock the boat!"

The president of the United States wields more power than any Euro-pean sovereign. The czar, the kaiser, and the several kings are relatively mere figureheads when their respective powers are compared with those exercised by President Wilson.

But the most highly efficient work of the president can be performed only when he has the hearty sympaand co-operation of ALL THE it can safely be said that all candi-opple, regardless of political dates of all parties this year are nes or labels. Wilson tration. names or labels.

Born in Pennsylvania, 1857. Left the Born in Pennsylvania, 1857. Left the farm at sixteen for country store. Then salesman in Harrisburg dry goods store until 1879. Settled in Nebraska in 1879. Engaged in dry goods business, Winger & Miller; later Miller & Paine. State senator 1909—only democrat ever elected senator from Lancaster.

President Wilson needs this sympathy and co-operation in the present crisis-and on our part we all need his most painstaking and efficient

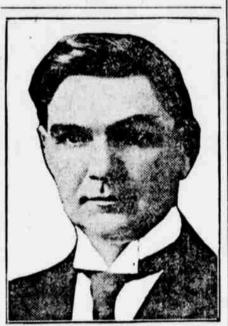

"Don't rock the boat!"

In Nebraska there is just one way to uphold and sustain and aid and comfort President Wilson and that great commoner, his secretary of state: Elect six democratic con-gressmen and the entire democratic state ticket, from governor to railway commissioner. This is not a time to haggle over the expenditure of a few dimes more or less in the conduct of state business, nor to enter into profitless comparisons of this candidate with that.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN Lincoln, Nebr. SECRETARY OF STATE, U. S. A.

GEORGE E. HALL Franklin, Nebr. STATE TREASURER.

Born in Illinois, 1870. Lived in Nebraska since 1873. Educated in common schools and University of Nebraska, 1887-1901. Postmaster 1893-97. Cashier Verdon State Bank, 1831-1909. Now President Franklin Exchange Bank. Expert accountant, good business man and well qualified for State Treasurer.

JAMES PEARSON

Moorefield, Nebr.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

Born in Illinois, 1873. Settled in Nebraska, 1885, Cass county. Engaged as grain buyer past 11 years at Germantows and Moorefield. Actively interested in

P. M. WHITEHEAD Gothenburg, Nebr.
SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Born in Wisconsin, 1874. Never held elective office. Began teaching at the age of fifteen. Was trained at the Eureka College, Illinois; State Normal School, Peru, Nebr., and University of Nebraska. City superintendent of schools at Gothenburg for ten years.

CANDIDATES OF DEMOCRATIC AND PEOPLE'S INDEPEN-DENT PARTIES.

Governor.....John H. Morehead

Buildings W. B. Eastham
Railway Commissioner Will M. Maupin
Board of Regents of the Univer-

CONGRESSMAN

First District......John A. Maguire Second District....Charles O. Lebeck Third District.....Dan V. Stephens Fourth District Walter H. Rhodes

1894-9; then promoted to general agent (Omaha), which position he still occu-Fifth District Ashton C. Shallenberger Sixth District Frank J. Taylor > ficial ballot bearing the label "Republican," more than a hundred thousand republican electors would vote the ticket without a scratch from top to bottom on November 3rd, and not a man of them would afterward find > cause for regret. In these trying times, with men crying, "Peace, peace; when there is no peace," we should all forget partisanship and the little, petty personal jealousies and strifes and conten-tions; and we should all, as Amercans, unite in the support of President Wilson and his unparalleled adminis-

"Don't rock the boat!"

JOHN E. MILLER REGENT OF UNIVERSITY

pies. any of them, if elected, could and would render the state excellent > service. But right now, when the United States faces the possibility of becoming involved in the most stupendous war of all history, the election of any man not wearing the democratic hall mark is sure to be construed as a re-buke to President Wilson.

G. W. NOBLE

REGENT OF UNIVERSITY.

Born M Ohio, July 4, 1862. Graduate Oberlin College, 1885. Settled in Cass county, Nebraska, 1885, and taught until 1889; then elected county superintendent two terms. District manager (Lincoln) New England Mutual Life Insurance Co.,

"Don't rock the boat!"

Each democratic candidate for congress and each democratic candidate for state office is a man who stands well at home among his neighbors.