What might have been a serious accident happened to Wm. Zappe when a colt he was driving, last Friday night became unmanageable at the river bridge, and fell over the banister into the river. The cart was demolished and Wm. was quite badly bruised falling about 15 feet. The banisters on the bridge are getting rotten and a number of places there are none at all. They should be repaired at once before some serious accident does happen.

"The Sunset Trail" To Be Shown Here

On the night of December 14th, at the opera house in Red Cloud, Richard C. Merwin will present a big home talent production of "The Sunset Trail," a western comedy drama in four acts, under the auspices of the Red Cloud Concert Band. We have been fortunate in securing Mr. Merwin, as he is a very talented producer, having produced Shakesperian plays, musical comedies and dramas, and comes highly recommended. We are sure that the play they are giving will please all. The Betz orchestra will furnish the music. Price of admission 25 and 35 cents.
