Bulletin of The Week's Doings

Get your fore at Miner Bros', store, I. W. Edson was in Bine Hill Thes.

~~~~~~~

Ed. Burr of Guide Rock was in town

Monday. For your new shoes go to M ner Bros Co

Guy Zeigler was in Golde Rock Tuesday morning.

Fred Gond was down from Blue Hill Sunday.

Homer Squires was down from In . vale Tuesday.

Louis Vavricka of Blue Hill was in engers to Superior this morning. town Saturday.

Robert Reiher is home from Lincoln for the holidays.

Attorney Walters of Blue Hill was in town Monday.

Editor Elson of the Argus was in Blue Hill Tuesday.

New shoes for the ladies just received at Miner Bros. Co.

Frank Studebaker left Friday night for his home at Elberta, Utab. FOR RENT-A good 5-room house

Hutchison & Saladen. The snow which fell Sunday will certainly help the wheat Roy Copley and Paul Pituey of Inavale were in town Monday Robt. Garrison of Guide Rock was in town Monday on business. John Hamilton and son of Guide

Rock were in town Friday. John Tomlinson was a passenger to Guide Rock Tuesday morning Choice alfalfa and prairie hay for sale. Inquire of Ned Grimes. Prof. Betz and his orchestra will go a dance. Miss Flora Shute, who is teaching it had accomplished much damage school at Wellfleet, Nebr , is home for the holidays. Christmas with his parents.

first of the week for Missouri to spend the holidays with his parents.

Mrs. Orville Ferguson and daughter of Oberlin, Kan-as, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

The largest and best line of Christmas candles in the town is now being shown and sold at Miner Brow. Co.

The Mouse Descie Paylon, East Teel. Much Honister and Margaret Brul are the patric schools at McCook, ich me untire for the halidays, to visit with her parents, D. M. Able and wife, Miss Marie Jernburg who is teaching school at Sutherland, Nebroska, acrive I home the last of the week to

Phil Sherwood, Russel Amack, Fred 15 Phares and Chas, Sherer returned home from Line lo the fast of the documents week to spend the holidays with their Jesse Barlow left Tues fav morning 7....... for Springfield. Mo., but we are unable 11 to say at this writing, what enused 8,.... him to go to that place, but we are 17 turn is me alone.

C. J. Platt entertained twenty eight. Discourse of the contractions of his gentlemen friends on Friday 3 evening, Decades: 18. Carl, and 18. until about 11 delock wass Mrs. Platt, 19.............. Mrs. Paul Storey, served Linch.

417 THE TELEPHONE GIRL

The telephone girl als will in her chair and tisteres to voices from every Carcasses Should Be Burned where. Hours on the greely, one bears all the news, she knows exist in hopes and who have she knows are the knows of the she was a country of the knows every rist who is clear teaving exposed the more she have a some than the same with on the same than the parameter of the knows all our classing the hole; who knows all our hogs that have died of cholers. Even your hairs and eating," troubles, she however our strife, she the a cargoss may be hedafed from "That is more costs will then done knows every man who be much to his office hogs, it may be that seepage my love," be replied: I have bed all wife, she knows over time we are out from the careins will resch a neighbor. The money I personnel; not a chaple with the toys, the hears the encours each employ-; and hears the encours section of the Make. Again, deg. Ity might be the pure in dear-section of the Make. Again, deg. Ity price. Everything gone! Milest may encount to the protein and the growth of the protein and the protein and the growth of the protein and the price. Everything gone! Milest the there are successful and the growth of the protein and the fact of the price. Everything gone! Milest the fact of the protein and the price in the price of the price in the price of fast there's a secret 'menth rate's samey distout and perhaps spread the disease thing one hast now; only full off that curl of that quie, denure looking for many miles. The department of mans of fifth, I templore you; who turn all our fracids into bitterest fees; dying of choices or of any other consists of the day of the day; it may lead to the detection of trouble and land as in jul; she could law. let go a story which gaming in force would cause half our wives to sue for divorce; she could get all the churches mixed up in a fight, and forn all our mixed up in a fight, and turn all our days into sorrowing nights. In fact | The Agricultural Department of the ber attention, and on examination she could keep the whole town in a Red Cloud High School will test free found secreted in various parts of the stew if she'd tell a tenth part of the of charge any farmer's seed corn. A cont not only the willish, pockethook, things that she knew. Now doesn't it writ en report will be farmished with purse and silver of which her fa-

1. B. Co vin was up from Guide Rock | Appendix Grant Houghin was up from Guide Silver

Buck tollay. Howard Fee is home from Lincoln or the holl-lays. Walter Marshall is home from St. oe for the holidays.

Several children around town are or the slok list this week.

Vincent Johnston is bome from Missouri for the hotidays,

Col. Peters of Guide Rock was in town Wedneslay afternoon. Char Geliatly left this morning for Lincoln to spend the holidays.

Mes Thornton left last night for Lincoln to spend her vacation.

Weesner & Kocutz shipped two cars of hogs Sunday to Kansas City. Mrs, Robt. Avery and son were pass-

Col C. W. Kaley returned home Friday from Omaha and Lincoln.

Don Saunders of Kansas City was in town Tuesday visiting friends. Prof. Ote Frazier of Edgar is in town this week enjoying his vacation. STRAYED-A sandy colored sow, weight 250 Reward, Mrs. Cora Pitney, Inavale.

Miss Katheyn Burke left last night for Walnut, Iowa, to spend her vacation with her parents.

for the holidays and will open again Monday, January 4th Miss Louise Schumacher departed

Wednesday night for Orleans to spend her vacation with her parents. Dr. R V. Nicholson left last night to spend the holidays with home folks at Wisner, Nebraska. We are anxious ly awaiting his return in order to know if he returns alone.

Wednesday morning the fire department was called to Art Robinson's residence in the east part of town. The fire was caused from a defective to Riverton Christmas day to play for flue, but was extinguished before the arrival of the department, and before

Mrs. Ann Harris, aged 68 years, 1 month and 2 days, wife of John Harris, Attorney B W. Stewart left Wee'- died at their home southwest of this nesday night for Lincoln to spend city Wednesday night after suffering from a paralytic stroke. She leaves a Mr. and Mrs Ralph Caufield left the husband and several sons and daughters to mourn her death. She was of Garfield precinct. The Chief along with the entire community extends watch." condolence to the becaved husband

Harvey Richerson, the popular has garper. However, Commer Annak and her at Marcer's shop, sell Sanday Shered Helge were not notified until night for MPsouri to special the holls Tuesday afternoon, but on going t Miss Muttle Abel, who is teaching in would find nothing of an inerinduating

. Standing of Contestants

The following is the stunding of the Contestants in The Chief's and Cook's Drug Store Free Trip to the Panama spend the holidays with her parents. Exposition Contest:

> No according to account to the Consequences assert and receive Branch arrangement of the

Notice to Farmers

make your head which when you think each test made. Application for free ther had been deprived, but a yellow what you owe to the telephone girl .- seed corn tests should be fi'ed at once canvas bag such as used by farmers. with R. D. Mourz, Superintendent, communication about 30 miners.

By H. H. BRANCON.

Ğqqqqqqqqqqqq The bishop of Cashel, having occasion to visit Dublin accompanied by his wife and daughter, determined to perform the journey by easy stages, in his own carriage.

At the foot of a hill, however, he decided to make the ascent afoot, and so his family and servants were far in advance when he decided to hasten. At a wild point in the road a fellow leaped from behind some stones, flourished a club, demanded "Money!"

The bishop gave the robber all the nilver be had loose in his pocket, hoping that it would satisfy him; but he was mistaken, "And is it with the likes of this I'm after letting you off?-a few The pub ic schools closed yesterday paltry tin-pennies! Arrah, don't stand shivering and shaking there, but pull out your purse immediately, or I'll bate you as blue as a whetstone." His lordship most reluctantly yielded his well-filled purse, saying in tremulous accents: "My good fellow, there it is; don't ill-use me; I've forgiven you all; pray let me depart."

"Fair and softly, if you plase; as sure as I'm not a good fellow, I haven't done with you yet. I must sarch for your note-case, for I'll engage you have a few bits of paper payable at the bank; so hand it over or you'll sup sorrow tonight."

It was given up. The bishop made an instinctive movement as though anxious to escape from further pil-

"Wait a while, or maybe I shall get angry with you; hand over your watch and seals, and then you may

"Surely you have taken enough; leave my watch, and I'll forgive all you have done."

"Who ax'd your forgiveness, you old varmint? Don't force me to do anyborn in England and was an old pioneer thing I'll be sorry for-but without any more bother, just give me the

And he jarked the bludgeon from his right hand to his left, spat in the horny palm of the former, and regrasped the formidable worpen; this action was not unbesided by he tim- he drew forth the golden timeplece, and with a heavy sigh handed

It needed no persuasion to induce the lib lion to term his lack upon the having no weight to carry, he set off at what occupations term "a hard reached the middle of the provintions road when he perceived his pernoontor running hiter him.

"Stop, you mimble-footed thief of the world!" roated the robber-"stop, I tell you. I've a parties word with you yet."

The exhausted and defensaless clergyman, undling it impossible to continue his flight, suddenly came to a standstill. The fellow approached, and his face, instead of its former ferecity, was lit up with a whimsical 1300th reguishness of expression as he said: 119810 "And is it likely that I'd let you off bires with a better coat on your back than 93860 my own? and will I be after losing the · 90450 chance of that elegant hat and wig? Off with them this mement, and then

85660 you'll be quit o' nea. The footpad carrily divested the 8:645 bishep of his single presented cont, laid soi25 violent hands upon the clerical hat and full buttoned wig, put them on his 73000 own person, and then insisted on see 72125 ing his late apparel used in their

Tills; stead, and with a lond laugh, ran on, Thankfel or baving escaped with unbroken bonns, his londship was rest long in overtaining his carriers.

"My dear Wallaca" exclusion his 55735 affable wife, after incoming on the ac-523 5 count of the car to which her has band had been exposed, "for heaven" sake, this of their fillby jacket min throw it out of the wisdow. You can telephone girl. If the telephone girl animal pathology at the Nebraska knows what horrid contagion we would belt all the knows, the would University Farm argusthat every bog might all catch if you percist in wear-

"Take it off, dear pape," observed away; it may lead to the detection of the wretch who robbed you."

The obnexious garment was removed. The young lady was about to place it under the seat when she By W. C. SHERLOOK.

"Look across the street, Phil. Tom madon seems to be scared to death and big fellow with the black hat. wonder what's up."

"Don't bother me, Jim, I'm busy," returned Harrington, impatiently.

"Tom's been casting furtive glaaces at the big fellow as if he was trying to dodge him," continued Morris, excitedly. "Now he's stopped in fron: of that jewelry store and the big fellow has rauged up alongside of him."

"Brandon's as pale as a ghost," observed Harrington, now thoroughly interested. "He's started off again and the big fellow is after him. Hello, he's coming over here!" This was true. Brandon, eagerly glancing around for some way of escape from his pursuer, had seen Harrington and was hurrying across the street. A few moments later, he entered and sank, breathless and exhausted, into the chair Morris pushed towards him. "What's the matter, Tom?" inquired Harrington, solicitously. "You are trembling like a leaf. Who's that big fellow who was following you?"

"Haven't the slightest idea, Phil." replied Brandon, shuddering at the reference to his pursuer. "That fellow's been following me for the past two months. No matter where I go, he's always behind me. A week ago he moved into the house next door to mine and it's been ten times worse since then."

"Why don't you ask him what he means?" demanded Morris.

"I can't, Jim," returned Brandon, mournfully. "I wish I could, but that fellow's got a pair of the most piercing eyes in his head that you ever saw. They bore me through like a gimlet and send a cold chill down my backbone."

"You're in bad shape, Tom. Why don't you run down to the country and brace up a bit?" "I'd do it in a minute, Phil," replied Brandon, eagerly, "but I'm so tied up that unless I sell my house, I can't "What will you take for the house,

Brandon?" inquired Morris, thoughtfully. "Maybe I can sell it for you." "I'd take five thousand, Jim, although I know it's worth more, just to get away from that fellow with those infernal black eyes." "All right, Tom," returned Morris. "I'll take the matter in hand. I have an idea that may help me to sell the Jim Morris was keen-eyed and observant. When he vistahed Bracden's elforta to ell in the himself of his termentor, went into Thereington's efficient and Morris (of lowed the man with the penetration eyes. The latter, unaware that he was being followed in turn, walked rapbily along until he reached a lurge office building which he entered. Taking the elevator, Morris and the blackeyed man were rushed up to the sayenth floor, where the latter entered the office of Abraham Smart, a well- (7) known real estate broker. Jim was ushered into Mr. Smart's presence and after making some inquiries about some property the broker had, withdrew, reeling satisfied that he had gained an insight into the tormenting of his friend. The next merning Morris was sitting in his office, busy over his mall, when the man with the plercing black eyes entered. "You have a house on --- avenue advertised for sule," remarked the visitor, carciersly. "What is the

"Eight thousand," replied Murris, curtly. -"Two merb," resorted the caller, als-ruptly. "I'll give you five." The price is eight thousand, take it or leave it." Without further words the next with the disch same thread and left draws Late Street and

BELLIN, LINE BOY DE LINE

from his tracker from word are ersen te Julius, Philippe de la purdye thousand for the process "What sart of a garden and ing on me?" demanded the men the plereing eyes. "You mee your eyes to work you chemes and I use my head," rold-Morris. "Speak quick. I haven't go il day to walt on you."

"I'll pay the twelve thous ndee" "And if you bother Brand a sea-('Il break your hand for you," int-

969 - 69 CHEMINE 69 - 69 We add our greetings to those of your many friends and wish you a Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Hear.

> And remember Wednesday, December 30, is Red Letter Day. We give $1.00 worth of Green Trading Stamps Free to everybody visiting our store.

G. Turnure & Son

BETTER GIVE US THAT ORDER FOR

WHILE IT IS EASY TO GET

Good Coal Is Sure To Be Scarce When Cold Weather Comes.

ON THIS WE HAVE BUILT OUR PRESENT BUSINESS W HEN we began our business career in in Red Cloud we took as our motto the one word Quality and we believe all our patrons will agree with us that it has truly been our slogan all this time. Our reputation for High-grade Groceries is well known. We are fully prepared to supply all your wants in our line

P. A. Wullbrandt THE HOME GROCERY

Administrator's Sale of General Dry Goods and Grocery Business at Inavale, Nebraska

0 4000 6969 ~ 4000 ~ ~ 6969 ~ 1000

By reason of the drath of Frank X. Koelmal, proprietor, in closine up his estate the solution total wife only and sell at Public

At Inavale in Wabster County, Nebraska

On December 78, 1913, at 11 o'clock a. m., the entire stock of dry gosts, growerles, etc., and fixtures, constituting the assets of the entate. The sale will be in built. The store is now open to Inspection and rounting an invoice will be made and arbject to inspection of bilities December 19. This was good location for a store in a small country town. The specifies been kept up with staples since The duatic of the privatelor, the trade taken care of, the store por closed and has carried a storic or from $5,000 to $8,000. The location is in the heart of a good farming country, a good trade is established and here is an executent opportunity to secure a going business and clean stock in good condition. It is not a bankrupt stock, and no trading propositions will be accepted or considered. Any cash bid which will be approved by the probate court, may be accepted before the day of sale.

U. Koelmel, Administrator, Inavale, Nebraska

L. H. Blackledge, Attorney, Red Cloud, Nebraska