

HOME NEWS

Bulletin of The Week's events

PATRONIZE CHIEF ADVERTISERS.
S. R. Flanagan was in Trenton Tuesday.
Sheriff Hedge was in Blue Hill Monday.
Dr. Camp spent Saturday in Hastings.
A. F. Hartwell was down from Inavale Tuesday.
Roy Robbins was up from Guide Rock Monday.
John Martin came home from Minden Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Tanison returned home Tuesday evening from Alliance.
Wm. Weesner chartered a shipment of stock to Kansas City Sunday.
Misses Rose and Irene McGuire returned home from Omaha and Lincoln on Thursday.
Miss Helen Gregor returned to Blue Hill Saturday after a week's visit here with friends.
Chester Cox and wife left Friday for Dellraie, Kansas, where they will farm the coming year.
Lost—a ring with a ruby set engraved on inside. Finder please leave the same at this office.
Rev. Cole and wife and children of Guide Rock were visiting friends in the city this week.
School began Monday in Districts No. 49, Walter Portenier, teacher; No. 36, Jennie Campbell, teacher; No. 28, Joe Springer, teacher.
Fred Wallin and brother, Oscar, of Lincoln, left for Colorado points Friday morning on business.
Walter Means and family left Saturday for Harvard, at which place they will make their future home.
Mrs. N. A. Illingsworth and children of Macon, Missouri, is visiting her parents, Jas. A. Burden and wife.
Roy Sattley and wife spent a couple of days at Esbon, Kansas, last week attending the chautauque and visiting friends.
Harry Buckles, Joe Mudd, Chas. Bloom and Len Englehardt went to Bird City, Kansas, Saturday morning via automobile.
Prof. Betz returned home Saturday evening from Norton, Kansas, where he had been visiting friends and attending the fair.
Mr. and Mrs. Alf Saladen returned home Monday evening from Rosalie, Nebraska where they had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Flood.
FOR SALE:—1000 bu. of early sprayed summer apples, 30c per bushel picked and windfalls 20c.—D. E. Norris, 7½ miles southwest of Red Cloud.
How to get into new families is the big problem of publishers. The State Journal of Lincoln has solved this by making a big reduction trial offer of only one dollar for the Daily and Sunday to January 1, 1916, and also including the Weekly Independent Farmer. This offer should get new readers by the hundreds and the publishers feel that all that is needed is for the people to become acquainted with The Journal, Lincoln's only morning paper, and The Independent Farmer, which is Nebraska's coming farm paper. A dollar for this combination is cheap. Order it at once and papers will be started at once. The great war events make The Lincoln Journal particularly desirable.

School will begin Monday.
Don't forget to vote for the school bonds next Wednesday.
Miss Lydia Gilman has secured a school in Franklin county.
Mrs. Orin Hedge and son are visiting her folks at Juniata this week.
Roseoe P. Weesner is in Omaha this week buying merchandise for his store.
Col. R. C. Peters and Ira Wagener of Guide Rock were in the city Saturday.
Frank Cochran and Robert Newton of Inavale were in the city the last of the week.
John Grimes of Hastings is assisting in the H. E. Grice Drug Co. store this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henderson visited their son, Earl, at W. mar. Kansas, last Friday.
Some of those pretty Wooltex Coats, Suits and Skirts have just arrived.—Miner Bros. Co.
Roy Page of Friend was in the city Thursday evening attending the wrestling match.
Gerald Jones of Hastings visited relatives in this city several days the first of the week.
F. J. Grice of the H. E. Grice Drug Co. is in Omaha this week buying goods for the store.
Mrs. J. L. Christian and daughter, Miss Minnie, are visiting relatives and friends in Missouri this week.
Miss Mary Christian departed Wednesday morning for Holdrege where she will teach school this year.
A jury term of district will convene in this city on September 13th. There are sixty-five cases on the docket.
Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Asher are the proud parents of a baby girl which arrived at their home Friday evening.
P. H. Boner is visiting in Phillipsburg, Kansas, this week. His daughters, Inez and Myrtle accompanied him.
Bert Garber of Fort Crook, Nebraska, arrived in the city Thursday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Garber.
Mrs. Chas. Rowles and children arrived home last week from Holstein where they had been for the past two months.
Mrs. John Potter arrived home Sunday from Salt Lake City, where she had been visiting her sister for the past month.
School districts Nos. 52 and 58 have received $50 state aid in the Shumway Act for the work done last year as associated with the Red Cloud school.
J. M. Burgess returned home the last of the week from Norton, Kansas, where he had been attending the fair. He announces that his pacing horse secured first money at the races.
Miss Flossie McKimney left Wednesday morning for Edison, Nebraska, where she will teach this term of school. Her mother, Mrs. W. H. McKimney, and brother, Earl, accompanied her and will spend a few days visiting with relatives at that place.
Fancy Hand Picked Apples 10 bushels for $3.00. Big 120,000 pound pressure cider press on exhibition daily. Ice cold cider on tap all the time. Free cider to purchasers of apples. Cider and apples sold and given away every day except Sunday.—Geo. Law, 2 miles north and 3 miles east of Red Cloud.
B. F. Thomas and wife of Baraboo, Wisconsin, spent a few days the latter part of the week in this city as guests at the home of Chas. Herrick and family. The Thomas and Herrick families were neighbors in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were enroute to their home from San Francisco where they had been attending the Exposition.

Dan Garber was down from Riverton Saturday.
E. J. Overing Jr., went to Lincoln Wednesday.
Advance showing of Wooltex Coats and Suits at Miner Bros. Co.
Fred Phares returned home the first of the week from southern Kansas.
Miss Freeman of Kansas City has accepted a position in the Henry Cook Drug Store.
Ino. B. Stanser is able to be down town again after being on the sick list for the past month.
Mrs. Blydie Gregory left Monday for her home at Lincoln after visiting her sister, Mrs. Curtis Geer, the past week.
Col. John Foster and Mrs. Moranville are having cement walks placed in front of their residences this week.
Miss Lela Woods returned home from Bloomington the last of the week where she had been attending institute.
A large number, with well filled baskets, attended the Degree of Honor picnic held at the Joe Topham farm on Wednesday.
Next Monday there will be an expert Truss fitter at Cotting's Drug Store. Consultation free. If you need one come and talk with him.
Don't get a Fountain Pen until you have seen the Conklin or Sheaffer the two best pens for school use. Sold by Chas. L. Cotting, the druggist.
Mrs. James Cather left Wednesday morning for New Mexico. Jim will go in a short time and they intend to make their future home there.
Miss Myra Cook is in Omaha where she has begun a three year's training course, preparatory to fitting herself to become a professional trained nurse.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wagener left the first of the week for their home at Westpoint, Illinois, after spending the summer at the E. U. Overman and Dr. Robt. Damerell homes.
On Wednesday, while going to the Sunday school picnic in a hayrack with several other children the rack was tipped over throwing them out and little Charles Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baker, had the misfortune to have his leg broken at the knee.
The W. C. T. U., will open its year's work for 1915-16 with its usual picnic and temperance rally at David Heffebower's Wednesday, Sept. 8th. A general invitation is extended to everybody to come with a well filled basket and lots of good cheer. Music, short speeches, fun and a good dinner will make an enjoyable day, if it does not rain—if it does rain we will have it, some where in town. Do not fail to get ready for it and be there.

Krout Cabbage

One dollar per hundred pounds.—Birkner Bros.

Apples For Sale

Good eating and cooking apples, 25c per bushel.—W. E. White, 1 mile north and 2½ miles west of town.

School Districts Notice

I have a new supply of the books used in our county schools and school supplies of all kinds. Save time and money by giving me your orders.
CHAS. L. COTTING, The Druggist.

Machinery Exhibits

Big exhibits of farm implements, threshing machines and tractors will be a feature of the Nebraska State Fair, Sept. 6-11. All the leading 1916 automobile models will be on exhibit.

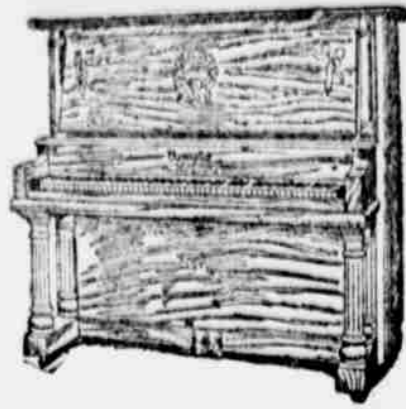

INAVALE

Mrs. C. Hunter left Tuesday for a visit in Missouri.
Mable Koontz of Red Cloud visited over Sunday at the Art Myers home.
Nora Mitchell is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Reed, for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Topham of Red Cloud spent Sunday at the Leonard home.
Eli Strong is spending a few days with his brother, Charley Strong, at Culbertson.
Mable Carpenter entertained several of her young friends at a party Saturday evening.
Mrs. I. Walker and daughter of Red Cloud spent a few days last week at the Garner home.
Miss Maude Moranville gave a party Saturday evening in honor of the Garner young people.
C. A. Waldo and family went to Bloomington Saturday night to attend the funeral of Mr. Waldo's aunt.
Asa Vandeburg of Oklahoma is here visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Fulton and other relatives.
Don Cloud and family are moving to St. Francis, Kansas. Mrs. Cloud was an earnest worker in the M. E. church and Sunday school and will be greatly missed.
Clifford and Gladys Garner left Wednesday morning for California where they will attend school. The Garner family will leave later to make California their home for the next two years.

A COMBINATION AFFAIR

By JOHN EDGERTON.

At 12 o'clock John Jennings laid down his pen, got down from his high stool, and went quietly toward the office of Mr. Camplon, the new manager. He knocked timidly at the door.
"Come in!" shouted Camplon. "Oh, it's you, Jennings?"
"Yes, sir," stammered Jennings, looking at Camplon with courage born of desperation. "Mr. Camplon, I want to ask if the firm couldn't let me have a little more than a hundred after this month. I've been here 20 years, sir, and it's eight years since I had my last increase."
"You see, sir," said Jennings, "my wife has been ordered away for two or three months and—and it's pretty hard to keep things going on $25 a week."
"Sit down, Jennings," said Camplon. He found what he meant to say unaccountably difficult, and for that reason he began to bluster. "Jennings, I have been thinking about you for some time," he said. "We can't raise you. In fact, it was my intention to ask you to resign at the end of the month."
Jennings, struck dumb by the blow, only looked appealingly at Camplon.
"You'll have to go at the end of the month," said Camplon. "We'll give you a month's salary ahead. And no doubt you'll fall into another position very soon—one more suited to you. That'll be all, Jennings."
Utterly crushed, Jennings crept back to his stool. His mind whirled, chaos seemed to have opened beneath his feet. To lose his position, after 20 years' service, at forty-three! What could he do? It was the most terrible thing that had ever happened to him.
He said nothing to his wife. Mary and he never discussed office affairs.
The days flew by. Jennings had barely a week at the office where he had spent the better part of his working years. And as he sat on his stool thoughts came into his mind that he had never known before.
The safe in Camplon's office was an old one. On Saturday nights it contained never less than five or six thousand dollars, which came in during the afternoon, after banking hours.
It would be the simplest matter to slip the key of Camplon's office from its hook in the night watchman's little office, open the safe with the old combination, and retire with his booty. The idea became an obsession and he resolved to put it into execution on the last Saturday of the month.
Everything favored his plan. Camplon had gone away into the country. At six o'clock Jennings went out among the other bookkeepers and clerks, but, as soon as the last had departed, he turned and made his way back, secreting himself in a corner of the stenographers' room, where half-blind old Sykes would never see him.
Midnight arrived before he crept out toward the watchman's office. The key to Camplon's room hung by the door. Old Sykes would sit, dreaming of the past, behind a half-partition of wood, for hours at a time. In his stockings feet Jennings crept up, abstracted the key and fled.
He put on his boots again and crept cautiously toward Camplon's office. He thought he heard a slight noise within, and hesitated, but it was not repeated, and, cautiously turning the key in the door, Jennings entered.
A man in a black mask was kneeling in front of the safe, counting a pile of bills.
At the sight Jennings' scheme of theft was all forgotten. He remembered only his long service with the firm, his watch-dog trust and obedience. And this burglar was about to victimize them.
With a shout Jennings leaped at the fellow, who, taken off his guard, staggered back under the other man's impetus. Then, seeing that Jennings was unarmed, he sprang at him; in turn, wielding a formidable iron jimmy, which he must have prised open the window that gave on the interior yard.
Jennings evaded the blow and caught the fellow's arm. They wrestled to and fro, Jennings calling for help loudly. His strength was outclassed by that of the other, for 20 years of office work does not make for muscularity. He knew that once he lost his hold on the burglar's arm the jimmy would descend.
The burglar fought in silence, but in desperation, too. Jennings heard the quick tramp of old Sykes' feet outside. He put forth all his strength to throw the other to the floor. But he lost his grasp and the jimmy, raised, descended with fearful force upon his skull.
The last thing Jennings remembered was seeing Sykes at the door, a pistol in his hand. The last thing he heard was the discharge of the weapon.
When he opened his eyes, to find himself in his bed at home, and his wife beside him, Jennings' first thought was of the affair.
"They got him?" he demanded feebly.
A tall man rose from the other side of the bed. Jennings, to his amazement, discovered that it was Rothway, the president.
"Yes, we got the scoundrel, thanks to you, Jennings," he said. "We're going to put you in his place."
"In prison?" gasped Jennings with sinking heart.
"No, no, my boy," said Rothway, beaming. "In his office, of course. Didn't you know the man you caught was Camplon?"
(Copyright, by W. G. Chapman.)

A LIVE BABY GIVEN AWAY FREE!
Saturday Afternoon, October 2nd

We are firm believers in the theory of large families. To back this up we are going to give a live baby to some family in this community. In order not to be accused of partiality, this must be decided by ballot.
Each Booster Coupon counts for as many votes as the amount that appears on the face of the coupon.
Write the name of the family to which you wish this baby to go on the back of the regular Booster Coupon. Write the name of your favorite Booster on the face of the coupon. The family which receives the largest number of votes will receive the Baby.
To each person over six years of age who comes to the store and registers during The Live Baby Contest will be given 100 Free Booster Coupons, which may be voted on the Live Baby Contest and also for your favorite Booster on the grand prize.
Any person making a purchase of $1.00 or more at the time of registering will be given 5,000 extra coupons besides those with the purchase. The exact standings of the different families will be posted each Monday.
While this Baby is not an orphan, it's parents are giving it up and we have full permission to dispose of it in this way to any good family in our community.
The Baby, In Charge of a Nurse, will be brought to our store Saturday Afternoon, September 18th. Come to the store and see it. The ballot box will not be closed until two weeks later, Saturday Night, October 2nd. The name of the winning family will be announced at the store the following Monday.

The Gouden-Kaley Clothing Co.
The Booster Store

What is Your Ability Worth to You Without
The Time to Apply it?
Better Insure Your Time in a Safe Company
100,000,000 Assets
Spells the Strength of
The Travelers of Hartford
Geo. M. VanCamp, Agent
(Over Storey's Clothing Store)
THE OFFICE WHERE YOUR CLAIMS ARE WELCOME
PHONES: Ind. 241 and 173 Bell 128

A Profitable Sunday Service
WILL BE HELD AT
The United Church, September 5
"The Taste System of Regeneration"
(Morning Subject)
"Can You Scare The Devil Out of People?"
(Evening Subject)
E. J. Overing Jr., Will Speak at the South Side
Mission Sunday Afternoon
Special Music and A Cordial Welcome To All
Punk Theology Eliminated—Religion Brought Up-to-Date
The United Church
J. L. Beebe, Pastor 1st Door South of Court House

Our tea and coffee possess three points of excellence:
The AROMA is delightful and appetizing.
The TASTE is delicious and inviting.
The EFFECT is invigorating.
There is no "dope", which leaves the headache, in our tea and coffee.
Our excellent tea and coffee costs more per pound but less PER CUP.

YOU WILL ENJOY OUR TEA AND COFFEE

Walter W. Marshall THE GROCER

Treadeasy OUR NEW Fall Line
OF SHOES
Have Arrived

A BEAUTIFUL, well-shod foot appeals just as forcefully today as in the time of Cinderella. The Prince knew what he was about when he chose the girl who wore trim, pretty footwear. He knew that she would make him a good wife. And if he had known about the Treadeasy shoes, he would have stipulated that she wear them.

There's a last in every style to fit your foot, and a style in every last to fit your individuality.
COME IN AND SEE US

The Ellis Shoe Store