A CONTEST IN IMAGINATION

A good imagination is the foundation of many a success. A good imagination is as essential in any success as is a good memory or reasoning. A good imagination is the special essential to the inventor or writer of stories or plays.

Many of the noted inventors or writers of stories or plays were born and raised in the country or small towns. Some of the most noted writers of stories became such through some little incident that caused them to find themselves as well as the world to find them.

We have some noted latent talent hidden in our midst and we are offering an opportunity that may awaken and arouse it to life and start the possessor on the road to fame.

We shall give 1,000 Booster Coupons to each person who will write a description of fifty words or more of the baby that we will give away on October 2nd. We shall give 5,000 to the person who writes the best description.

These descriptions must be at our store on or before Saturday, September 18th. The Baby will be brought to the store on Saturday, September 18th.

Fall Line
—OF—
SHOES
Have Arrived

A BEAUTIFUL, well-shod foot appeals just as forcefully today as in the time of Cinderella. The Prince knew what he was about when he chose the girl who wore trim, pretty footwear. He knew that she would make him a good wife. And if he had known about the Treadeasy shoes, he would have stipulated that she wear them.

There's a last in every style to fit your foot, and a style in every last to fit your individuality.
