Rural School Notes

District 26
Monday morning September 20th, all pupils were present ready for a full week's work. We had another pupil enroll in our school on Thursday, which was Paul Havel.
The pupils are making rapid progress in all branches. The new Driggs' Live Language lessons which have been procured for the school are doing wonderful work in all classes.
We are also having some very interesting lessons in Hygiene from the set of new O'Shea & Kellogg books on Hygiene.
We have been pleased to accept two more visitors this past week which were Misses Abbie Kudrna and Bessie Strobl.
We urge all patrons especially the parents of pupils to come and see the work we are doing.
One pupil, little Willie Havel, age 5, has had the misfortune of a broken and mashed toe, while playing about the sewing machine and has not been able to attend but one day in the past week.
MISS ANNA BROMMER, Teacher

District 70
School opened September 6th, with the following pupils enrolled:
Beginners—Avis Stoner.
2nd grade—Elsie McCoy, Harold McCoy.
3rd grade—Neal Etherton, Eunice Hanson, Lawrence Hanson.
4th grade—Clinton Etherton, Ruth Stoner, Lois Fey.
5th grade—Aubrey Fearn.
6th grade—Lou Anna Clark, Clifford Sibert, Maurice Fey, Kenneth Stoner.
7th grade—Wanda Fearn, Lloyd Sibert, Harold Stoner.
The Palmer writing books and the Driggs' Live Language books have been put in the school. Other new books have been ordered.
The school has a Victrola which is one of the late improvements for a school.
The pupils took an interesting field trip Thursday afternoon.
MISS HAZEL OVERLESE, Teacher
