Opens Up Law Office

The many friends of Howard S. Foe will be pleased to learn that he has decided to cast his lot with us in the old home town. His law office is comfortably located in the Farmers' Independent telephone building. Immediately after being admitted to the bar, he was associated with the late W. S. Morlan, in the law business at McCook.

Mr. Foe is a young man of sterling worth and unquestioned integrity, loyal to his convictions and untiring in all his efforts. He was reared in this city and educated in our public schools and the Chief welcomes him as a citizen who established his residence here years ago. We wish him the utmost success in his chosen profession.
