THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

A. B. McARTHUR - PUBLISHER
THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

The Omaha Nebraskan ably edited by Richard L. Metcalfe has appeared in a new eight page dress which is a model in every particular. It is published on an excellent grade of paper, which brings out half-tone cuts with the finest detail. Omaha is to be congratulated, and so is "Met" for having the finest weekly, (with but one exception—the Chief) to be found in the state.

In one of our exchanges we note an item concerning two "gentlemen" who were before the federal court on a charge that is serious from either a legal or a moral standpoint. We wonder what that editor's definition of "gentlemen" can be?—Argus.

The above paragraph, probably written in a spirit of jealousy, due to the fact that the item referred to was omitted in the Argus, is amusing to say the least, but since Editor Edison has declared himself to be wondering, (a condition we never even thought him capable of,) we hasten to explain. It was our intention to have the word, gentlemen, appear in quotations, or with a question mark after it, and the fact that it did not, was merely an oversight. While not overly bright, yet we believe we have a fair idea of the definition of the word, gentlemen, and we do not believe that one who continually tries to conduct his neighbor's business, as well as his own, possesses any qualifications which would entitle him to be classed under this head.
