Daniel M. Garber Weds

The first of the week at Lincoln occurred the marriage of one of this city's most popular gentlemen, Mr. Daniel M. Garber to Miss Ruth I. McCracken of Riverton. Mr. Garber has for the past two years been making his home at Riverton, where he was engaged in the real estate business, until about a month ago, when he moved back to his farm just north of town, where he and his bride have already begun housekeeping. The marriage came as a complete surprise to even Dan's most intimate acquaintances, as he betrayed in no way the fact that he was "slipping."

It would be a difficult task for us to enumerate all of the many advantageous characteristics of Daniel M. Garber, so we will only add the fact that he has spent thirty some odd years in this vicinity, and today numbers his friends by his acquaintances. While the bride is a comparative stranger here, yet the fact that she was picked as an ideal by so critical a judge as Mr. Garber, is recommendation enough.

To Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Garber the Chief takes great pleasure in extending the glad hand and we trust that your path through life may be strewn with naught else but roses.
