Mrs. Chas. Swartz

Mrs. Chas. Swartz, who had been in poor health for some time, and of whom it was known that the end might come at any moment, on Friday morning, fell asleep and God took her without suffering. She was a member of the Methodist church most of her long and useful life, which was characterized by her quiet and unassuming disposition, her great love and pleasure in her family and home and her beautiful christian character.
Nancy Jane Overman was born August 18, 1850, in Hancock county, Illinois. She was the daughter of Charles and Martha Overman, both of whom have preceded her to the heavenly home. She was one of a family of nine children, being the fourth child of the family. She grew to young womanhood in Illinois, and for years was a teacher in the public schools of that state.
In April 1877 she was married to Charles Swartz who survives her. Mr. and Mrs. Swartz lived in Illinois until 1902, when they came to Webster county, Nebraska, where they have since resided. There was born to them four children, three of whom are still living, one having died in infancy. One daughter Yola, a son, Tom, both reside here, the other son, Waldo, being a resident of Burlington, Iowa. Mrs. Swartz is also survived by one brother, E. U. Overman, of this city, and three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Waggoner of West Point, Illinois, Mrs. Robert Damerell of this city, and Mrs. Leon LeMaire, of Burlington, Iowa.
Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. L. Myers. Interment was made in the city cemetery.

Huffer-McDowell

On New Year's morning at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. Chas. A. Huffer and Miss Florence McDowell were united in marriage by Rev. C. L. Myers.
The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah McDowell, old and highly respected residents of the first ward. She is a young lady who enjoys a wide circle of friends, and while of a retiring nature, possesses many amiable qualities that will in every way aid her in being truly a helpmate to the man she has given her hand.
The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huffer, and is known as a young man of good habits, industrious, and of pleasing personality.
For several years past he has made his home on the Roats farm south of town, where he and his bride will reside.
Mr. and Mrs. Huffer left the same morning for Axtel, to spend a few days at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ernest Davis, after which they will be at home to their many friends on the farm east of this city.
