Rural School Notes

District 26

School opened January 3rd, after a week's vacation, with the enrollment of another new pupil. We have also obtained a good many new books. We have a complete set of Driggs' Live Language Lessons for all the grades. Also a complete set of Kellogg's Health Series and a new book of Good Health, books for the 5th and 6th grades.

Those pupils having a perfect enrollment record for the whole term this far are Ned Pillee, Hildagard Brommer.

A play entitled "Mr. Bob" will be presented at the school house Friday evening, January 25th, by some of the young people of the community. The school will give a short program preceding the play. An admission of 15 cents will be charged for adults and 10 cents for children under 13 years. A basket supper will be held after the play. All girls are required to bring baskets.

ANNA BROMMER, Teacher.

Garfield High School

District 85 has just finished the fourth month of the school term. Just before the Christmas vacation a box social and program were given, and in spite of the bad weather we had a large crowd, all of whom said they enjoyed the program very much. There were forty-five lovely baskets, which brought $27.15. We wish to thank the ladies who brought baskets. A pencil sharpener was purchased for the school and the rest of the money will be spent for playground apparatus.

tus, consisting of a basket ball, a volley ball and a merry go round. By having the Manual Training class put up the fixtures for the above apparatus, we will still have a balance to spend for other things which will be decided later on.

We have appreciated the presence of forty-two visitors during the past four months of school.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy during the fourth month: Stanser Amack, Orvin Harris, Pearl White, Lyle Harris, Gussie DeWitt, Helen Wiggins, Vern Cummings, Villa Campbell, Edna Cummings, Edgar Amack, Hallie Summers, Ethel Fisher, Charles McElhane, Russell Summers, Alethea Campbell.

The following pupils can boast of being neither absent nor tardy during the past four months of school: Stanser Amack, Lyle Harris, Pearl White, Helen Wiggins, Vern Cummings, Villa Campbell, Edna Cummings, Edgar Amack, Hallie Summers, Ethel Fisher and Russell Summers.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

[BY RUSSELL MYERS]

The Seniors and Juniors are looking anxiously forward to one of the biggest social events that will take place during the school year, the Senior-Junior Banquet. This will be given on the 2nd of February the Seniors entertaining the Juniors.

All students feel much relieved by the fact that the 850 examinations given Thursday and Friday of last week are over. Nearly all are of the belief that this is an excellent opportunity for turning over a new leaf in school work. The faculty sincerely hope this will be carried out.

The High School Athletics are on the up grade. The Newhouse building has been rented for the Basket Ball team and a great deal of interest is being shown thus far. It is believed that the first three games Alma, Franklin Academy and Nelson College are to be played away from home, but will return games later in the season.

On Monday of this week the High School students were royally entertained by Dr. J. A. Leavitt, who is a great and good benefactor of the general public. He belongs to the reknown "Society for the Friendless," whose work is befriending jailbirds, or in milder words, men and women who have been detained behind the iron bars and stone walls, justly or unjustly, by Uncle Sam.

He used for his subject, his motto, "Others," and from it delivered a very amusing, interesting and uplifting address. He told of his experiences with and for such people, which made all sit up and take notice. He took the students back to the earlier causes, for imprisonment other than poverty or drink, back to the cradle in the home. He stated that he believed that should a baby cry in the night until its parent came and turned on the light or fed it, that this was the beginning of small victories of the child over the parent, which quickly enlarged and then came, eventually, petty victories over the government and so on until they landed behind the bars.

The work of this "Society for the Friendless" is not only "cure" but the greater part "prevention".

During the course of his address he mentioned many ways of prevention and at the end of forty minutes of good sound advice, with a good wish for all, he had completed his talk.

Everyone enjoyed him and felt they were better for having heard a man such as Dr. Leavitt.

Some Omaha High Spots

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 17.—Some of Omaha's high spots, as shown by business in 1915, are:

Omaha is the second primary live stock market of the world.

Omaha is the fourth primary grain market of the world.

Omaha is the greatest creamery butter producing city in the world.

Omaha is the greatest lead ore reducing city in the world.

Omaha is the second primary corn market of the world.

Omaha is the greatest feeder sheep market in the world.

Omaha showed a general development of fifteen percent last year.

These high spots of Omaha are tributes to the great Nebraska producing ability. Surely Nebraska is coming into her own.

"I have always believed," he said, "that a druggist's first duty is to the health of his customers. I tell my people frankly that a safe, gentle, inexpensive laxative such as Rexall Oxidized, kept in the home, will pay the biggest dividends of any investment ever made. I recommend it as the best family laxative, because it is put up in tasty candy tablet form that appeals to men, women and children alike, and is as delightful and pleasing to take as it is healthful."

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative. Trial size, 10 cents.

The Democratic Editorial Banquet

The banquet given by the Democratic Editorial Association, at the Lindell hotel, Lincoln, January 11th, was attended by about 400 guests and was a most pronounced success in every way. Credit for this is due in great measure to President John M. Tanner, who acted as toastmaster, E. A. Wairath, secretary, as well as other members of the committee on arrangements. John W. Cutright, editor of the Lincoln Daily Star is the champion booster, however, having disposed of 101 tickets.

This banquet served as a sort of preliminary state convention for bringing out candidates for state office. Announcements were made of the candidacy of Charles W. Pool for re-nomination as secretary of state; Wm. H. Smith for auditor; Geo. E. Hall for treasurer; Willis E. Reed for attorney general; W. S. Ridgell, Jack Grace, and Victor Wilson for railway commissioner; Harry Adams for treasurer; and a number of other aspirants made speeches but did not make formal announcement of their intention to file.

President Wilson's name was always loudly applauded, but there was division of opinion on his preparedness program. Former United States Senator Wm. V. Allen and Arthur Mullen stood in support of preparedness, while Governor Morehead, I. J. Dunn and C. W. Bryan spoke in opposition to it. Applause was about equally divided. Mr. Bryan alone touched on the prohibition question and declared himself in favor of it. Mayor Jim Dahlman made an earnest speech in favor of placing the "man above the dollar," and declared that Omaha democrats would support the present state officers for re-election and W. J. Bryan for delegate-at-large to the National convention.

Mondell Homesteads Free

They are going very fast. If you want a choice location don't delay. Forty-one filings was a recent day's work at the Buffalo, Wyoming, Land Office. A rolling grass covered prairie that will yield crops of wheat, oats, millet, potatoes and every garden plant in surprising quantities. No better stock country in the United States. Go to Northeastern Wyoming, to Newcastle, Upton, Moorcroft, or Gillette, all in the Sundance Land District or via Clearmont or Sheridan to Buffalo for Johnson County lands.

The cost of securing a 320-acre Mondell tract is but $20 filing fee, although you may find it desirable to employ at an extra fee a reliable locator to help you make a good selection. Call on our agent for information when you reach either of these localities, or write me.
