 GEO. W. HUTCHISON.

Mr. George Hutchison has filed for the nomination for Clerk of the District Court on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Hutchison is well qualified for this position having already conducted the affairs of that office in a most satisfactory manner some years ago.

Planting time will soon be here and the University Farm is again warning the farmers that it pays to test the seed corn. It seems that there is plenty of good seed in the country but on account of the over abundance of moisture last year there is also an abundance of corn that will not grow. It is a simple matter to make a test and then the planter knows whether his corn will grow or not.
