Revival Meetings Cause Many Sinners To Repent

The attendance is increasing and the interest is growing with each service at the big revival now being held at the Orpheum. Rev. Wm. Martin, the evangelist, in charge of the meetings, has proven to be all that was anticipated. He is a minister full of wit and original thought and is not abusive, rather only truthful. He possesses a kind way of reminding people of their short comings and earnestly exhorting them to follow the better life. Sinners have been hit hard, already, about seventy having taken the Evangelist by the hand pledging to live the new life.

Prof. Echols is rendering fine music and his large chorus choir is attracting considerable attention. His solos are effective and contribute much to the meetings.

Mrs. Martin has already won for herself a place in the heart of every woman and child with whom she has come in contact since coming to this city and has accomplished much good.

A careful estimate of the expenses showed a need of $150 which amount has been raised and it is announced hence forth offerings will be taken only on Sundays.

The pastors of the various churches of the city are doing all in their power toward making the revival a fruitful affair and judging by the present outlook their highest expectations are to be realized.

The Children's Choir will again lead the meeting Saturday night. On Sunday, Rev. Martin's subject in the morning will be "Soul Expansion" and in the evening "Plan of Salvation or How to be Saved." At three p. m., a meeting for men only will be held in the Orpheum at which time the subject "Paint Rubbed Off" will be discussed. At the same hour at the Congregational church Mrs. Martin will conduct a meeting for women only.

Paul Polnicky Has A Birthday Party

Last Thursday evening Paul Polnicky entertained the members of the O. D. D. Club at a seven o'clock dinner at his home on Cedar street, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. It is reported that the guests all displayed remarkable ability along the line of making the best possible use of the well planned and nicely prepared dinner, which was served in four courses. After dinner the Club presented Mr. Polnicky with a beautiful humidor, the presentation speech being made by the president of the Club, in which he told of the high esteem in which Mr. Polnicky was held by each member. Mr. Polnicky made a very timely and interesting response which ended with the suggestion that at some future date, he mentioned five years, that all of the members meet again at some kind of a banquet. This seemed very favorable to each member and all agreed, altho the date has as yet not been set.

After paying their respects to Mrs. Polnicky for the part she took in making the dinner such a toothsome affair, the guests departed for their homes, each feeling they had spent an enjoyable evening which would long be remembered.
