Keith Neville has given the voters of Nebraska a concise, sensible statement of his position upon every question of importance now before the people of Nebraska. He is not seeking election by appeals to prejudice, nor by attempting to make political capital out of a purely nonpartisan issue. Nebraska needs a governor with business ability and executive ability, not a governor with one idea.

Nebraska institutions were never better conducted than now. Nebraska finances were never in better shape than now, the departments of state government were never in better nor more capable hands than now, and there was never less reason for a change of administration than now. The voters of Nebraska will express their satisfaction with the conduct of state affairs when they go to the polls next November.

Those who saw the wonderful control of an aeroplane as exhibited at the Nebraska State Fair, by Beachey in 1914 and Thompson in 1915, will be pleased to learn that something better awaits them the first week in September when a lady aviatrix, Ruth Law will loop the loop with all the abandon of those first mentioned and in addition will loop the loop at night with lights and fireworks attached to her airplane to mark her path through the air.

Does Prohibition Prohibit?

Testimony of Two Reputable Witnesses of Des Moines, Iowa

The First Witness:

Extract from an editorial which appeared in The Des Moines Evening Tribune of June 6, 1916:

"The Evening Tribune has asked a half dozen men recently who ought to know, and they agree that liquor can now be bought openly at more places than when we had saloons."

The Second Witness:

Extract from a news article, prominently displayed on the first page of The Des Moines Capital of February 19, 1916:

"Des Moines banished the saloons a year ago last Wednesday."

"But Des Moines today is consuming liquor at the rate of a million dollars' worth a year—mostly whiskey."

"Des Moines is receiving two carloads of liquor a day."

*"This is at the rate of 750 carloads a year or fifteen trainloads of fifty cars each." * * **

Here we have the testimony of two responsible Iowa newspapers that Statewide PROHIBITION does not prohibit.

In Nebraska, under our Local Option, High License Law, the people of any community are granted an opportunity to say whether or not license shall be issued governing the sale of alcoholic beverages.

In future articles we will present evidence proving that Nebraska, under that law, has made great progress from a moral as well as from an economic standpoint.

Everybody Admires GOOD CLOTHES

HOW glad you are to show your New Suit to your friends. How pleased you are when they say "Isn't it a beautiful pattern." "It fits like a tailor made." You hear this said of clothes you buy in our store. They will enable you to present a good appearance wherever you may go.

They're just a little better than the average—they're made for the benefit of all those who recognize and appreciate fine clothing—there's a certain style and "rightness" about them that make them popular with particular men, who are willing to pay a fair price.

And the price is right—backed up by our guarantee that the quality is right—although the cost of woollens, dyes, silk thread and trimmings have advanced we have not advanced our selling price.

We also carry a cheaper grade of goods—but they are big values for the money.
