WANTED—50 to 80 lbs., thrifty stock hogs. Will pay premium over market price.—C. H. Miner Serum Co.

The Nebraska railway commission has bolted the republican national platform. The republican national platform advocates throwing three republican railway commissioners of Nebraska out of their jobs. But of course the commissioners bolted because of their patriotism and their love for the dear pee-pul!

The eight o'clock closing law is an amendment to the Slocum law. If you are elected and prohibition is defeated, will you rigidly enforce the eight o'clock closing law, Judge Sutton? And if you can enforce a law which you do not endorse, is it not more than likely that Keith Neville, who is as honest as you, and quite as able, will do the same thing?

Not only has Nebraska's democratic administration increased the efficiency of state management, but it has decreased the tax levy. Were the levy the same this year as last, the taxpayers would be paying a million more in taxes. As it is, they are not only paying less taxes, but they find the per capita expense of conducting the state's affairs greatly reduced.

Edgar Cowden of Red Cloud, says Monday's World Herald, is confident that people of the country and of Nebraska are not going to return evil for good—the evil of defeat for the good record which democrats have achieved during the past nearly four years. "I am a great believer in the gratitude of the majority of people for the extraordinarily good government democracy has given." "The people are not going to voice disapproval of prosperity by rebuking the means which brought it. They are not going to approve war by rejecting for public service the men who have brought about the reign of peace."

Big Circus Coming

Gollmar Brothers' America's Greatest Shows are billed to exhibit in Red Cloud on Sept. 21st. This big and well known circus is not unknown to our city and community, they having been here many times before and there are no shows more welcome to our city than those of the Gollmar Brothers. They travel in their own beautiful double length cars and give their usual morning street parade, exhibiting herds of elephants, camels, giant hippopotamus and rare and expensive wild animals, gilded cages, floats, etc. The circus performance is brimful of daring feats, performing animals and wild west entertainment. The old adage of (see one you have seen them all) does not apply to the Gollmar Brothers' Greatest of American Shows, for every year they bring an endless number of new thrillers, funny clowns, bands of music and freaks and features from every corner of the earth.

The Gollmar Bros' Circus is styled the Big Honest Show and they never carry objectionable or immoral features and positively allow no short change, grafters or confidence men with or around their shows. Dealing with all in a clean, honest and upright manner, making a host of friends wherever they go.

Mark your calendar for this date. They will give two performances under their mammoth waterproof tents at Red Cloud on Thursday, Sept. 21st.

Miss Willa Cather, after making a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cather, departed Saturday for her home at Boston, Massachusetts.

The program of the Intermediate League drew a full house, sustaining their reputation as entertainers. It was given in the interest of the W. H. M. S., illustrating the work of the homes of this society and the work of a deaconess in rescuing emigrant girls from the hands of those who would lead them into a life of shame. The interest was sustained thru the whole hour. The League orchestra furnished the music.

Everybody Admires GOOD CLOTHES

HOW glad you are to show your New Suit to your friends. How pleased you are when they say "Isn't it a beautiful pattern?" "It fits like a tailor made." You hear this said of clothes you buy in our store. They will enable you to present a good appearance wherever you may go.

They're just a little better than the average—they're made for the benefit of all those who recognize and appreciate fine clothing—there's a certain style and "rightness" about them that make them popular with particular men who are willing to pay a fair price.

And the price is right—backed up by our guarantee that the quality is right—although the cost of woolsens, dyes, silk thread and trimmings have advanced we have not advanced our selling price.

We also carry a cheaper grade of goods—but they are big values for the money.
