For the Cream of the Day—Big Ben

TWO a m.—inky dark—that's when Big Ben starts the milkman's day.

Out of bed like a boy on the Fourth—nudges Big Ben to a hush—takes up the tune as he whistles to work.

You've heard the patter of nimble feet—the clink of bottles in the wire tray—the rattle of boxes, of cans and ice—the giddap—the wheels—the merry tune—all mindful of the world at sleep. You've wondered.

Try Big Ben yourself a little earlier. See how he'll bring you the cream of the day—rich morning hours that start you right and stretch out till night with minutes aplenty for every task. And you'll take up his tune and smile through the day.
