Methodist Church News

(Church and Parsonage opposite Court House, west, F. M. Drulliner, Minister)

GREETINGS:—Through the courtesy of the editors of the local papers, we have been granted the opportunity of speaking through the columns of the press a short memorandum of such items of interest as may occur to us and making announcements of church services and other matters. We fully appreciate this courtesy and take this means of thanking the editors who have received us and responded so cordially.

A change of pastors on a charge necessarily affects the charge more or less; time is needed for adjustment; the new pastor must have time to get his bearings. We have come among you to do the work of the ministry as God gives us to see it. We earnestly ask for the loyalty and co-operation of all who seek to bring the Kingdom of our Lord in upon the earth. Please bear in mind that we are strangers to everybody and everything, while you are familiar to the surroundings; you can help us, so that we may perhaps be able to help you.

"Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter, Feels the barbed which grace can restore; Touched by a loving heart, wakened by kindness, Chords that were broken will vibrate once more."

All the services of our church next Sunday at the usual hours: Sermon themes:—"The Parable of the Sower" and for evening, "Encouragement for Life's Battles." The pastor will hold services at Ash Creek appointment in the afternoon at 2:30.

We wish to meet all the members of the official board at the church next Monday evening at 7:30; meeting important; come.

The total benevolences as reported by the pastor to the annual for the year just closed is $385.

The pastor's car of household goods came through in good shape and we are getting settled in splendid shape in our nice home with which we are very much pleased. Hardly anything was broken or marred, the only serious matter was that our barrel of sermons was upset, but we expected to turn it over anyway. The parsonage late-string will be out next week.
