Victory for Democrats

The election on last Tuesday proved to be one grand victory for the democrats as they elected the entire state ticket by a majority of six to ten thousand. U. S. Senator Hitchcock was re-elected. C. E. Samuelson will be our next state senator, while the republican candidate, M. F. Richard won in the race for representative. James Hubbs, W. H. Thomas and John Kling were elected commissioners. The majority given the county candidates were as follows:

Edith L. McKelham, clerk of the district court, 517. Gertrude L. Coon, county superintendent of schools, 147. P. J. Monday, county attorney, 286. Frank Huffer, sheriff, 52. C. D. Robinson, treasurer, 142. B. E. Ferry, clerk, 8 (it will take official count to decide). A complete account of the vote will be given in tabulated form in our next week's issue.

Hillman Show Coming

Will Play at Orpheum Four Nights Commencing Wednesday, November 15

Hillman's Ideal Stock Company will play at the Orpheum four nights, commencing Wednesday, November 15th. The following is clipped from the Indianapolis, (Ind.) Reporter:

"His Honor, The Mayor," was presented at the Indianapolis Opera House on Monday night. The house was well filled and the audience well pleased.

The Hillman Stock Company is composed of members with strong personalities. The offering "His Honor, the Mayor," is a very timely play at this stage of Nebraska's political game. It first presents the saloon in a favorable light, and makes their argument look plausible from the standpoint of strong characters who champion the cause of the saloon. To make their cause look more plausible those who favor the saloon are contrasted with some so-called Christians, who, in reality belonged to the saloon element. But finally the effects of the saloon and the brothels come home to those who advocate them, and the saloon and bawdy house lose some strong advocates.

This is a play well worth anybody's money and perhaps an anti-saloon organization is putting on anything more effective than the Hillman Company in "His Honor, The Mayor." Seats on sale at Cook's Drug Store.
