"ALWAYS RELIABLE"

Methodist Church News
(Church and Parsonage opposite Court House, west, F. M. Drulliner, Minister)

"Let brotherly love continue."

Dr. Martin gave us a fine Hospital sermon last Sunday morning.

"Let him that is without sin cast the first stone at her."

We are trying to get the church record straightened up; will all who are on probation please be at the morning service next Sunday? We would like to receive them into full membership, or arrange to do so.

All the old carbon light bulbs that were in the church auditorium have been replaced with new lights; we now have one of the best lighted rooms in the town.

The Ladies' Aid Society will be entertained at the parlors on Friday afternoon of this week by Messdames Bailey, Gahner, Overman, Barrett, Drulliner and Miss Lillie Porter; lunch will be served; everybody is cordially invited to attend.

All the services of our church next Sunday at the usual hours beginning with Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock; sermon themes, "The Parable of the Net"; for evening, "A Vision of God", Epworth League at 6:30.

Every time you hear the truth and resist it, you become stronger in ability to resist the truth. God and Heaven and Calvary and the Great White Throne and Jesus and the Holy Spirit, stand defeated before the standard of the human will.

A Statement in Regard to The Boy Scout Movement

1. The Boy Scouts will hold their regular weekly meeting for study and amusement on Tuesday evening of each week from 7:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. at the Boy Scout club room.

2. No boy will be allowed to become or remain a member of the Scout Club without the written consent and cooperation of the parents.

3. All cards used for gambling also swearing and the use of tobacco will be positively prohibited.

4. The aim of this movement shall be the moral and social development of the boy and no boy under twelve years of age shall be admitted to membership.

5. The amusements will be only such as are approved by the Y. M. C. A. and the church. And the aim of these amusements shall be to supply the social need of the boy without vicious influence or association.

6. The parents are invited to attend any and all meetings of the Scouts and they can be assured that no sectarian or detrimental teaching will be tolerated.
