

GRAVES OF BRITISH ON WESTERN FRONT

This British official photograph taken on the western front shows graves that may be found all along the western front of British soldiers killed in action. Each cross has the name and address of the soldier, with the words "Killed in action," and the address.

WHAT ZEPPELIN DID IN BUCHAREST

"BIG BERTHA" SHELL DIDN'T EXPLODE

A huge shell fired by one of the German "Big Berthas," which landed unexploded in a trench on the Somme front. Had the shell exploded the two soldiers would be a mangled mass and the ground would look as if shaken by an earthquake.

MRS. ROBERT N. HARPER

Mrs. Robert N. Harper, wife of the chairman of the inaugural committee, will be at the head of the many social activities of the inauguration. At the inaugural ball accompanying former inaugurations the wife of the chairman received with the first lady of the land, but President Wilson has abolished the ball. The occasion this year will be more political than social.

Newspapers Commend Reply of the Allies to President's Note—Germany Must Make Next Move.

Western Newspaper Union News Service Washington.—A circular alleged to have been sent by the National Surety company of New York, to all its agents suggesting that they could secure the positions of secretary-treasurer of farm loan associations to be organized to obtain loans from federal farm loan banks and then "surely control all the lending business," has been made public by the federal farm loan board with a reply thereto by George W. Norris of the board, to W. B. Joyce, president of the company. In his reply Mr. Norris characterized the circular as a "sordid appeal to the cupidity" of the recipients amounting to an "attempt to prostitute the act to purposes of personal gain" and expresses the hope that Mr. Joyce will drown it.

Next Peace Move Up to Germany.

Washington.—President Wilson believes the first move toward peace—however short—has been successfully completed. He believes this move will soon be followed by another which will constitute a longer step than the first. This belief, which constitutes basis for the positive theory that the peace door still is open, was strengthened in official circles when government men were shown United Press dispatches from London containing this phrase: "The allies might have blocked this movement (peace discussions) altogether—but instead they gave it a considerable shove by incrementally inviting Germany to bargain on peace." These government men realized that the phrase quoted, to reach America, had gone through Britain's official censor.

Newspapers Speak Commendingly of the Answer. Paris.—French papers are unanimous in their approval of the reply of the allies to President Wilson's note, the only difference being in the terms of expression. Alfred Capus, editor of the Figaro, says: "The principal value of the note is the clear and solemn declaration of the allies as to their objects in pursuing the war. Either they will be fully attained or Germany will be a continued menace to Europe and on the first opportunity will again turn it into a field of carnage. Our enemies are now in possession of our true aims. They can compare them with their own and deduce therefrom the degree of our resistance and our implacable resolve to vanquish them."

Emperor Wilhelm Is Bitter.

Amsterdam.—The following declaration by the emperor to the German people has been officially published in Berlin: "Our enemies have dropped the mask. After refusing with scorn and hypocritical words of love for peace and humanity our honest peace offer they have now, in their reply to the United States, gone beyond that and admitted their lust for conquest, the business of which is further enhanced by their calumnious assertions. Their aim is the crushing of Germany, the dismemberment of the powers allied with us and the enslavement of the freedom of Europe and the seas under the same yoke that Greece, with gnashing teeth, is now enduring."

Six Hundred Sailors Perish.

Berlin.—The loss of 600 lives by the destruction of an Italian battleship is reported by the Anzeiger, of Basel, Switzerland, according to the Overseas News agency. "The Anzeiger, of Basel, reports from Rome the destruction of the Italian battleship Reina Margherita," says the news agency. "It is confirmed that she was sunk off Avlona, Albania, by a mine or a torpedo boat. Six hundred out of 830 sailors perished."

Would Donate Capital Site

Hastings, Neb.—The chamber of commerce of Hastings has advised State Senator W. E. Hager, from Adams county, to offer twenty acres of well located land at Hastings for the site of a new capitol building. This is Hastings' bid for the location of the Nebraska capitol, assuming that the question of relocation will come up in the present session of the legislature.

German Losses During War

London.—The total German casualties since the beginning of the war were placed at 4,010,160, in an official summary issued by the British government which reads: "A summary of the German casualties reported in official German casualty lists published during December gives a total of 88,391, which added to those previously reported brings the total German casualties to 4,010,160. The naval and colonial casualties are excluded."

She Was Shopping.

She had been sitting in the furniture shop for nearly two hours, inspecting the stock of linoleums. Roll after roll the perspiring assistant brought out, but still she seemed dissatisfied. From her dress he judged her to be a person of wealth, and thought it likely she would have a good order to give. When at last he had shown her the last roll he paused in despair. "I'm very sorry, madam," he said apologetically, "but if you could wait I could get some more pieces from the factory. Perhaps you would call again." The prospective customer gathered her belongings together and rose from the chair. "Yes, do," she said, with a gracious smile, "and ask them to send you one or two with very small designs, suitable for putting in the bottom of a canary's cage."—Chicago Journal.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.
