

Attractive Summer Tours Through the East

AN extensive scheme of diverse-route eastern tours has been announced—circuit tours to New York and Boston, going one way, returning another; eastern trunklines and steamer lines cooperate in these tours that may be planned to include Canada, New England and Atlantic Seaboard resorts, Sound Steames, Coast Lines the Virginias, Boston, New York and Washington. The general limits of these low fares are for sixty-day tickets.

The Burlington's eastern tourist-rate leaflet is now on the press. Describe to me the general tour you have in mind. Let me help you to make it and furnish you with descriptive literature covering the proposed.

Quite a surprise was given John Palmer when he went to bed one evening last week. He noticed something was out of place and soon discovered that six pigs had camped there for the night.—Merton (Wis.) Review.

Giddap!
Two little seas and two little mice sat on a roadway shooting dice. Along came a horse and stepped on a flea. And the flea exclaimed, "That's a horse on me!"—Richmond, Ind.

Here They Are!
George Bacon and Frank Eggs of Pine have started a restaurant at Shaffer's crossing in the Platte canyon district. The firm name is "Bacon & Eggs."—Golden (Colo.) Cor. Denver News.

To find his opposite one turns
To Lazarus Kilgore: Although he gets twice what he earns He thinks he's worth lots more. —Springfield Union.

And when you've searched the world all over
The chances, when you're done, Will be for each ten like Kilgore. You've found like Oswald—none. —Lawrence Telegram.

Names Is Names.
Miss Only Rubbish lives in Indianapolis, Ind., and Price Lower runs a blacksmith shop near Springfield, O.

Huh!
Dear Luke—A preacher was telling his listeners the other day that if the saloons were a good thing they wouldn't have to close on election day. A man got up and said, "Was George Washington an honest man?" "He certainly was," replied the preacher. "Then why do they always close the banks on his birthday?" asked the man.—Will J. Moore, Fremont, O.

Oh, Very Well.

Luke McLuke Says:
Some men expect Opportunity to go around to the back door and wipe his feet on the doormat before he knocks. If a man held a 150 pound man on his knee for two hours he would be so lame that he couldn't walk for a week. But it is different when he is holding a 150 pound girl.

If the average married man knew that his wife knew what he knows about himself he would begin hunting up a lonely spot in the south sea islands where a boat makes only one call a year.

The lad who has his sleeves rolled up to his shoulders and who has a pencil behind each ear isn't always the man who does the most work.

A man will often complain that he is lending the life of a dog. Well, if we had as many privileges as a dog and could be as informal when we were in public we wouldn't have any kick coming.

The man who sleeps with the windows and doors closed tight always gets up in the morning and wonders where he got his cold, because he knows he didn't sleep in a draft.

Some men never notice that they eat too much until they find that a table napkin isn't long enough for them to tie around their necks when they sit down to the table.

When a bachelor gets a look at a new baby he spends about thirty days trying to figure out what the Sam Hill the proud father is so proud about.

When a girl has been engaged for about four years and the fellow doesn't seem to be in any hurry she looks at most as hopeless as if she had been married for about four years.

A brute is a man who gets mad because one of the children uses his best neckties for roller skate straps.

After a man gets old enough he is willing to admit that he never got it liking that he didn't deserve.

Any man who is greedy enough to buy green goods is crooked enough to sell them to some one else if he gets a chance.

As a rule, if you leave the color scheme to a man he will select red.

Poultry For Each Family

Three hens set now with 15 eggs each will make the average family independent of the cold storage egg merchant next winter, according to college of Agriculture poultry husbandry specialists. These eggs will hatch on an average, 25 live chicks of which 12 will be pullets. With proper care, they will lay 4 dozen eggs weekly, the amount consumed by the average family.

Two piano boxes placed back to back make a poultry house large enough to winter 12 pullets. Such boxes cost $2 each. The cost of feed required to raise the pullets will be offset by the income from the sale of cockerels. Moreover, table scraps (nearly a million dollars worth of which is wasted annually in the United States) can be utilized.

Pays First Booze Fine

The fact that the state is dry and that the officials intend to enforce the laws regarding the sale and consumption of liquor was clearly demonstrated on last Thursday afternoon, when in response to a complaint filed by County Attorney Munday, Sheriff Huffer went to Guide Rock and took into custody Bert Kailey. He was brought before County Judge Ranney, Friday morning, where he pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication and was assessed a fine and costs which amounted to $22.75. Rather expensive little spree, even though the honor of being the first contributor to the cause may be claimed by Mr. Kailey.

Beans as a War Crop

Because of their great value as human food, beans are recommended as a "war crop" to replant winterkilled crops in Nebraska. According to a new bulletin issued by the Agricultural Extension Service, they are not only rich in protein but peculiarly nourishing. The climate and soil of Nebraska, especially of the western part of the State, are favorable to bean production. Full particulars as to how to grow beans are contained in Emergency Bulletin No. 4, "Bean Culture," recently issued by the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture, University Farm, Lincoln. It will be sent free upon request.

Kansas City Market

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 7—Cattle receipts of 14,000 today included 2390 head of stock cattle that passed through yesterday, but that left a liberal number, and a heavy run at Chicago weakened buyers here resulting in a slight decline on some of the steers, many of the steers steady, butcher cattle and stockers and feeders strong. Thirteen thousand hogs sold 10 lower, top $15.75, and four thousand sheep sold strong, Arizona lambs $15.

BEEF CATTLE
The best cattle here were pulp fed steers from Colorado and Western Nebraska, 18 cars of these selling at $12 to $12.25, best natives here at $11.75, to $12, short fed natives $10.50 to $11.50, light weight cattle without much flesh, $9 to $10. The supply of pulp cattle was 35 cars, about one-half as many as on recent Mondays. Few are in sight for later this week, and the supply of that kind will be very light after this week. Butcher cattle hold their strength, the search for substitutes for steers at this season always resulting in high prices for cows, heifer and bulls. Good cows sell around $10, bulls up to $10, heifers $11.35, veal calves up to $13.50.

STOCKERS and FEDERS
Six loads of stock steers sold at $10.30 the first thing this morning, a strong price, and fancy stock heifers at $10.25, few stock steers sell under $8, and stock cows commence around $7. Feeding steers sell at $9.50 to $10.50, a few fleshy steers in the last week up to $11.25. Prices are 25 to 35 higher than a week ago, with a very good demand.

HOGS
A good run at Chicago today weakened the situation, and sales here were 10 lower, top $15.75, medium weights to $15.70, best light weights $15.40, bulk of sales $15 to $15.70. Supplies here are augmented by daily arrivals of shipments of hogs from western range states, California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Colorado consignments having become regular incidents. These hogs are generally light weight but that class is meeting a good demand from bacon makers, and sales of hogs 150 lbs. and upwards average 10 to 25 higher than last week. Pigs sell at $11.50 to $13.75 in most cases.

SHEEP and LAMBS
Choice woolled lambs sold up to $17.00 last week, and lambs of that grade would bring more money today, if there were any offered. Arizona and California spring lambs once reached $16.50 last week, some Arizona not quite so good here today at $16. Texas is the big disappointment, sending only very small supplies of common sheep, and few goats. One double deck of Angora brushers, 67 lbs., average, sold at $9 last week. Twenty thousand brusher goats would be required to fill orders already held here. J. A. RICKART, Market Correspondent.

Ever Feel This Lump?
I am writing to tell you what I and my customers think of your wonderful New Remedy "EATONIC." Says one: "That lumpy, gnawing, bloated feeling, is all gone now, never felt so well in all my life." Here's another example: "For years I suffered from heartburn, sour stomach, belching of gas and distress after eating. Life was one continual round of misery and I fairly dreaded going to the table as the meal hour approached but I am all right now. I can eat and digest anything." Dr. J. W.
