A REAL MAN

It is pretty hard to assert your independence and defy the world when you have an empty stomach and an empty pocket book. If your bluff is called, then what?

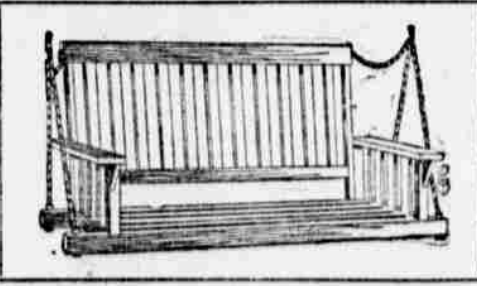

The prudent man who has saved a little, who has a reserve at the bank to tide him over a month or two, isn't so afraid of sickness, nor such a coward about being out of a job. A bank account is a stimulant to real manhood. The larger the account the firmer the footing. It breeds self-confidence, is proof of efficiency and is an ever-present resource in time of need. It's not what a man earns in a year that gives him a surplus at the bank, it's what he saves.

Rev. G. W. Hummel Passed Away Monday

Rev. G. W. Hummel, one of our pioneer citizens, answered the call of his Maker on Monday morning at ten o'clock, after an illness of about one week, death being due to kidney trouble.

The deceased was born in Erie county New York, June 27, 1849. In 1856 he, with his parents moved to Louisa county, Iowa, where he was reared to young manhood and received a part of his education in the common schools of that county. In June 1872 he immigrated with his brother, Fred, to Nebraska, taking up for a homestead the farm of 160 acres, in Line township, where he resided for a number of years.

On December 23, 1867 he was united in marriage to Miss Lottie White, and to union were born seven children, four of whom, with their mother passed to the great beyond, the latter dying in August 1892.

In 1898 he was married to Miss Henrietta Funk of Muscatine, Iowa, who with three daughters, Mrs. Eva Hamilton of Glenwood, Iowa, Mrs. Nellie Martin and Mrs. Carrie Young both of Doniphan, three brothers, R. T. Hummel of Muscatine, Iowa, L. P. Hummel of Sidney, Iowa and F. T. Hummel of Hot Springs, S. D., several sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Pierce of this city are left to mourn his demise.

During spare time, in his younger days, he studied for the ministry, always being an active church worker. September 9, 1883, he was ordained a deacon by Deacon Wiley, of Lincoln. After several years of study he was ordained an elder, September 25, 1887, by Bishop Hurst. He preached at the M. E. church at Red Cloud, Cowles, Inavale and other towns of the county and surrounding territory.

In 1887 he was elected supervisor, serving three years, elected chairman of the board of supervisors and served two years. In 1889 he was the republican candidate for county treasurer but was defeated and at the time of his departure from this life he was serving as county assessor.

As well as being active in religious circles Mr. Hummel also devoted much of his time to the advancement of agriculture, being deeply interested in the welfare and advancement of the Farmers Institute, State Fair and County Fair. When the Farmers Institute was organized he was elected President and has been honored with that office ever since.

In 1912 he was elected State Senator and during his tenure of office worked for and was successful in securing a law that made it possible for this county to have a new court house and on the walls of the same is a tablet to his memory.

It is said of Rev. Hummel that he has, by the words of the marriage ceremony, united the hands and hearts of more young couples than any two ministers in the county and guided more departing souls into the next world than all the other ministers put together.

The passing of Rev. Hummel has not only stricken with grief the members of the family and intimate friends, but his demise has also cast a shadow of sorrow over the whole community, as almost every man, woman and child in this locality had grown to love this good christian man.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church at 10:30 Wednesday morning. Rev. F. M. Druliner, assisted by Revs. Moore of Biaden, I. W. Edson of Oxford, J. L. Beebe and H. A. Hagman conducted the services. Music was furnished by the Conference male quartette and the local quartette, composed of Messrs Cotting, Walker, Thomas and Sherer. The I. O. O. F. attended in a body and were in charge of the services at the grave, interment being made in the city cemetery.

The beautiful floral offerings and the large attendance at the services evidenced the high esteem in which Rev. Hummel was held by all in this vicinity.

Frank Starr was in Norton and Almena, Kansas, the last of the week.

Miss Cecile Thornton Weds Mr. James R. Quesenberry

Miss Cecile R. Thornton and James Richard Quesenberry of Jeannerette, La., were married at 11 a. m. Tuesday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. L. Hobbs, 1802 Harwood street. Rev. J. M. Bates of Red Cloud, a rector of the Episcopal church, performed the ceremony, using the double ring service, before a company of relatives and friends. The wedding took place in a bower of asparagus ferns, swansonia and palms. The only attendants were the little daughters of Mrs. Hobbs, Florence Lee and Elizabeth, who were flower girl and ring bearer. The flowers in the dining room were pink and white and a bank of pink sweet peas on the buffet was the center of the arrangement of smilax and sweet peas in that room. Mrs. Rex Bailey of Crete served the ices which were white with pink heart centers, while Mrs. Clyde Otis Darnier served cake and mints. Miss LaVerna Galbraith and Miss Edna Weekley of Valley, Neb., assisted in the dining room. The guests were received by Mrs. Ralph Tyler. The out-of-town guests were Lyndon Thornton of Fairbury; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bailey of Crete, and Miss Edna Weekley of Valley.

Mrs. Quesenberry was graduated at the state normal at Peru and received another degree at Ames, Iowa. She taught domestic science in the high school at Red Cloud for four years. Mr. Quesenberry was graduated at the New Mexico school of agriculture and took post graduate work at Ames, Ia., and is an expert on nutrition, being in the service of the government at Jeannerette, La. After a trip which will include visits at Troy, Kas., and Excelsior Springs, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Quesenberry will go to Jeannerette where they will live.—Wednesday's State Journal.

The Chief along with the many friends of the bride in this city wish the newlyweds much joy and happiness.

Married Friday Evening

Promptly at six o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. I. O. Walker, Rev. J. L. Beebe pronounced the solemn words which united for life Miss Mirth Walker and Mr. Charles Sherer, the ceremony being witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Bernice Sherer, sister of the groom, played the wedding march and Miss Mabel Smith of Eckley, Colorado, and Mr. Orville Richey of Cowles were witnesses to the ceremony, after which a bountiful wedding dinner was served. Both the table and the home were beautifully decorated in white and yellow.

The bride is a graduate of the Red Cloud High School, later attending the State University at Lincoln. She was a competent instructor and a charming and accomplished young lady, who has won the admiration of a large circle of friends.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Trace Sherer, a graduate of the Red Cloud High School and attended the State University. He is a young man of high character and pleasant disposition, and who by his gentlemanly manner has secured the friendship of all whom he came in contact.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends, after September 10th, at Blair, where the groom will be engaged as instructor in the high school.

The Chief unites with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

The Abel Construction Co., have brought their machinery to this city and will soon begin paving.

On Tuesday evening the ladies of Blue Hill gave the soldier boys of Co. K. a big dinner at the opera house. The Red Cloud band furnished the music for the occasion after which Co. K. gave a drill and Rev. Beebe delivered a patriotic address. A large crowd was present and a very enjoyable time was had by all.
