

AS TOLD TO US

J. H. Ellinger was in St. Joe, Monday.
 Joe Jackson spent Tuesday in Hastings.
 E. P. Weesner was in Cowles, Wednesday.
 Forrest Mountford spent Tuesday in Hastings.
 Ed Burr was up from Guide Rock, Tuesday.
 George Overing spent Tuesday in Blue Hill.
 E. M. Ege went to York, Monday, to visit relatives.
 Mrs. E. J. Overing went to Lincoln Tuesday morning.
 The county fair is in full swing at Bladen this week.
 Mrs. A. E. Bernard returned to her home at York, Friday.
 Eyes tested, glasses fitted.—J. C. Mitchell, the Jeweler.
 Claude Pierce was down from Inavale, Tuesday evening.
 Edward Steffus returned to Hastings, Tuesday morning.
 For the best line of fancy stationery call at Cook's drug store.
 Miss Mabel Lundy returned to her home at Lincoln, Friday.
 Rev. Beebe, E. R. Slawson and W. I. Paterson were in Alma Wednesday.
 James McBride and Guy Scott, were down from Cowles Tuesday afternoon.
 John Blackwell of Clayton, Kansas, was visiting friends in the city Tuesday.
 Francis Wells of Lincoln was the guest of Miss Fay Teel the last of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Goodman of Clayton, Kansas spent Friday with friends in the city.
 I am now ready to move houses, barns and other buildings.—John Barkley.
 Curt Hasselbacker returned home Monday evening from Fremont and Kearney.
 Miss Belle McIntyre went to Curtis, Sunday evening, to attend teacher's institute.
 Mrs. Chas. Jackson and family left Tuesday for their home at Casper, Wyoming.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hamilton and children spent Sunday with relatives at Guide Rock.
 Sheriff Huffer can now be seen driving a new Oldsmobile which he recently purchased.
 Wallace Saladen went to Bladen the first of the week where he joined a wild west show.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tennant are the parents of a baby girl which was born Thursday night.
 Miss Laura Hedge spent the last of the week with her brother, Orin, and family at Superior.
 Fred Corbett went to Kansas City, Wednesday morning, to look after some business affairs.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Moede of Imperial are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Carpenter.
 FOR SALE—Cucumbers for pickling. Get your order in early. Phone 15 on 27 or see Nelson Hayes.

Mayor Damrell is on the sick list this week.
 Mrs. Will Bohrer spent Wednesday in Hastings.
 Paul Lindley was down from River-ton, Tuesday.
 Miss Constance Roubal went to Bladen, Wednesday.
 Mrs. Jess Collister and baby returned to Omaha Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Turnure are home from their trip to Michigan.
 W. E. Watson of Bellaire, Kansas, was in the city Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey went to Excelsior Springs, Wednesday.
 Be sure and come to the Operetta at the Orpheum August 27th at 8 p. m.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charley Starr attended the county fair at Bladen Wednesday.
 Miss Violet Zeiss went to Elwood Sunday evening to attend teachers' institute.
 Miss Irene Buckles returned home last night from a visit with her sister at Sidney.
 Mrs. C. M. Phillips went to Hastings Wednesday, to accompany her mother to this city.
 Mrs. Hettie Martin came down from Riverton Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Pegg.
 Mrs. Theda Moranville arrived in the city the last of the week to visit relatives and friends.
 Jas. Ryan came down from Grand Island the last of the week to spend a few days with his wife.
 Miss Edna Gilbert went to Inavale Sunday evening to visit her brother, Leo Gilbert, and family.
 Mrs. J. T. King of Wymore is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Mizer, and brother, Kenneth Wilson.
 Jack Waller and T. J. Chaplin were down from Cowles Thursday evening attending the oil meeting.
 Bert Grice went to Denver, Sunday evening, to look after the threshing of the small grain on his farm.
 Roy Hutchison of Norton, Kansas spent Thursday with his brother, George Hutchison, and wife.
 Sheridan Phares of Omaha arrived in the city Tuesday evening to visit his mother, Mrs. Barbara Phares.
 Proceeds of Operetta to be used in buying supplies for the Women's Red Cross Auxiliary. Everybody come.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas and daughters, Laura and Rose, returned home from Cowles Monday evening.
 The Operetta, Little Housekeepers given by the pupils of Miss Josie Igou to be repeated, by request, August 27.
 Mrs. Chas. Bauers returned to her home at Lincoln, Monday, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Russel Amack.
 I have some private money to loan on city property, also can furnish you low rates on farm loans.—B. W. Stewart.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alf Saladen and daughters returned home Saturday from Wyoming where they spent several weeks enjoying an outing.
 The Misses Grace and Gladys Keagle returned home Tuesday from Miami, Arizona and Colorado Springs where they spent their vacation.
 On Monday, Mrs. W. L. Weesner was operated on for complicated appendicitis and is getting along as well as could be expected at this writing.

Some lighting facts you want to know about right now!

Your dollar today buys less bread, less meat, less clothes than ever before, but your electric dollar buys MORE. And you can make it buy still more by using

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

For MAZDA Lamps give three times as much light as carbon lamps without increasing the amount of current used.

Complete line carried in stock at all times—at right prices

For wiring and anythings in the electrical line, see

E. STEVENS

Plumbing—Heating—Electrical Work

Morton Smith went to Guide Rock, Monday.
 Paul Polnicki went to Hastings, Monday.
 Roy Hassinger spent Monday in Hastings.
 The Red Cloud public schools will open September 10th.
 Oliver Powell was in Concordia, Kansas, the last of the week.
 Mrs. Rissie Cox spent the weekend with relatives at Cowles.
 Attorney B. W. Stewart went to Lincoln, Sunday, to visit his parents.
 J. E. Yost returned home from Kansas City and St. Joe the last of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harris and her mother, Mrs. Turner, went to Hastings Monday.
 A large number of our citizens attended the anniversary celebration at Lebanon the last of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Overman were called to Burlington, Iowa, the last of the week by the death of Mrs. Le Maire.
 Mrs. Clara Johnston and son, Kenneth, went to Hastings, Monday, where the latter took the civil service examination.
 On Wednesday afternoon, Elan Fearn passed away at his home at Haigler after a short illness. He is a brother of Ed and Fred Fearn and also a cousin of E. L. Haskins. The remains will be brought to this city tonight for burial.

Mrs. L. P. Albright and daughter, Miss Lone, went to Omaha Friday to visit their son and brother, Sherwood Albright.

Mrs. Jacob Weber returned to her home at Archer, Monday, after spending the weekend with her son, Earl, and family.

Ed Burr and John Hamilton and several others were up from Guide Rock Thursday evening attending the oil meeting.

Rev. Beebe and several others from this city attended a social given for the war relief fund at Inavale, Tuesday evening.

Vernon Zeiss arrived in the city Thursday evening from Brush, Colorado, to take the physical examination and also visit his father.

Charley Harris spent Wednesday with his wife at Hastings and reports that she is getting along nicely after undergoing an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Cummings, of Tennessee, who were enroute to Yellowstone park, spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smelser.

Attorney H. S. Foe and Marion Mercer returned home from Lebanon, Saturday evening, where they played with the band at the anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leggett and daughter, Grace, went to Smith Center Friday to spend several weeks with their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. E. Butler.

The following shipped stock Sunday: Delaney Bros, one car of mixed stock and Wm. Weesner one car of cattle to Kansas City; J. H. Ellinger two cars of cattle to St. Joe.

S. B. Kizer celebrated his seventieth birthday Tuesday and the gentleman claimed to be as spry as a young man of twenty on that day. May he live and prosper for many years is our only wish.

Do not fail to see the world famed stage star William Gillette in his immortal characterization of Sherlock Holmes in seven acts with an all star cast at the Orpheum Thursday, August 30th. Special music Admission 5 and 20c.

Miss Laura and Orin and Carl Hedge went to Cheyenne Sunday evening to visit their brother, Aaron, who is a member of the Wyoming National Guards. Since joining the company Aaron has been advanced to the office of Corporal.

Referring to the telegraphic order from Red Cross Headquarters for six hundred knitted articles, as Webster County's apportionment, every knitter will be needed. No one should knit scarfs who can learn to knit sweaters, wristlets or socks.

C. F. CATHER, Chairman

The Operetta, "Little Housekeepers" will be repeated by the pupils of Miss Josie Igou, Monday, August 27th, 8 p. m., at the Orpheum Theater. Proceeds to be used for purchasing supplies for the Woman's Red Cross Auxiliary. Don't miss this musical treat. Admission 10 and 25c. Tickets on sale at Cook's Drug Store.

The Girls' Group of the Women's Red Cross Auxiliary are going to need the following articles for their work: Old table linen, old muslin, old turkish toweling and old counterpanes—all freshly laundered. Anyone wishing to donate any of these things please send to Mrs. Ellis at the Ellis Shoe Store. The Girls will greatly appreciate all donations sent in at once.

More modern improvements are to be installed in this city within a very short time. Two drinking fountains will be placed on the public square, one will be on the State Bank corner and the other on the corner opposite Mason's Smoke House. This will be welcomed by the thirsty pedestrians during the hot summer weather. Workmen are now excavating for the laying of the water pipes and sewer connections.

Notice

All persons who have subscribed to the Big Chief Oil & Gas Co. and who have not yet paid their subscriptions are requested to call at once at the office of the treasurer, S. R. Florance, at the Webster County Bank, Red Cloud Nebraska and pay same.

BIG CHIEF OIL & GAS CO.

Women of Webster County

There is an ever growing need in the hospitals of Europe for all kinds of bandages and dressing, and there is a great shortage of new material it is imperative that every house keeper should save all worn table cloths and napkins.

If these are sent to Mrs. W. A. Sherwood by parcel post or otherwise they will be prepared for use by the Ladies War Relief Society of this city and forwarded free of charge with other supplies to the Red Cross Hospital Supply Service.

Mrs. C. J. Platt, Secretary

Light and Water Consumers

The books are now at the Webster County Bank and you are requested to call there at once and settle.

G. C. Teel, City Clerk.

We have received our

New Fall HATS AND CAPS

Come in—
 Try one on—
 See how you
 Like them

Most Attractive
 Shapes and Colors

NEW FALL SUITS ALSO

COWDEN-KALEY CLOTHING COMPANY
 "ALWAYS RELIABLE"

Announcement

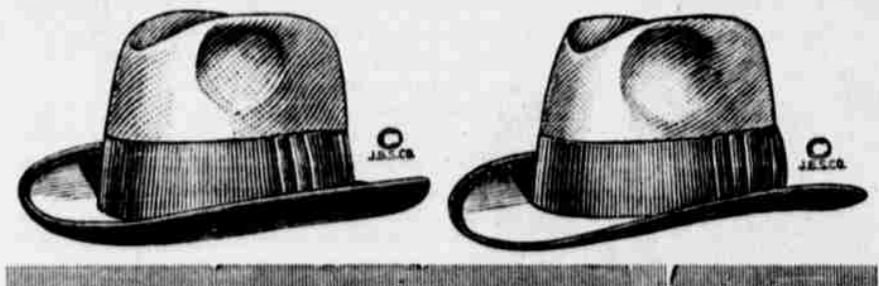

We are pleased to announce to the public that we will have The Resler Line of Fall Coats, Suits, Dresses and Skirts this season

Remember the line will be at our store two days every three weeks

A full line of Ladies House Dresses and Aprons, also Childrens Dresses
 Call and See Them

M. A. Albright

Red Cloud, Nebraska

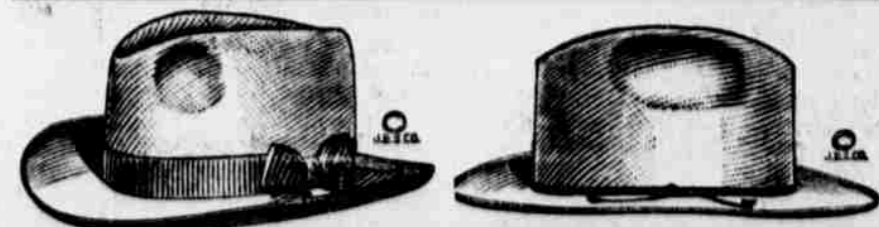

JUST ARRIVED—

New Fall Hats
 New Fall Caps

COME IN AND LOOK

Our Fall Suits are all Here

Hamilton-Cather Clothing Co.

We are distributing

Radford Plan and Information Books
 COME IN AND GET YOURS
Platt & Frees
 Red Cloud, Nebraska

