Spends Thanksgiving Here

Among the many who enjoyed "turkey day" with the home folks was Editor A. B. McArthur. "Mac" is looking fine and says that he never felt better in his life than he has since he joined the boys at the training camp. He tells us that Uncle Sam treats the boys down there royally and that soldier life appeals to him. During his brief stay he was kept busy meeting old friends and answering questions concerning life at the camp. He wishes to state that time limit placed upon him did not permit him to call on all of his friends and takes this means of extending best wishes to them. He returned to Camp Funston Sunday night.

Schumacher-Rickerson

At four o'clock Sunday afternoon occurred the marriage of Miss Louise Schumacher to Mr. H. J. Rickerson, of Red Cloud, Nebraska.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Hahn, of the Immaculate Conception church at the rectory in the presence of a few relatives, Miss Gertrude Schumacher and Will Schumacher acting as bridesmaid and groomsmen.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. M. Schumacher having grown to womanhood here. She is well known as one of Red Cloud's foremost teachers, having been primary teacher in the schools of that city for the past four years.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rickerson, of Chillicothe, Mo. He is a young man of sterling qualities and has a wide circle of friends in Red Cloud where he has resided for several years.

After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the Schumacher home where the sisters of the bride had prepared a four course wedding dinner.

The young couple left on the evening train for Red Cloud and Chillicothe, Mo., where they will spend a short time visiting relatives and friends, after which they will be at home to their host of friends at Red Cloud, Nebraska. The Chronicle extends congratulations. — Orleans Chronicle.

Fall Causes Painful Injury

E. W. Stevens, who conducts a plumbing and electrical business in connection with the Trine Hardware store is confined to his home as a result of a fall from a sixteen foot ladder. Wert was at work on the top of the ladder when he lost his balance and in order to save himself from what might have resulted in instant death, he jumped from the ladder, lighting on a cement floor. Some of the small bones in his heel were fractured and the muscles torn and strained.
