Red Cross Notes

The monthly meeting of the Women's Red Cross Auxiliary was held at the court house Dec. 3.

Miss Edith McKeighan, chairman of the finance committee reports that $120 was raised in monthly subscriptions and $156 was raised in donations.

The motion was passed that the monthly collection be made about the twentieth of each month.

A vote of thanks was extended to all who donated during the month and especially to the Clio Club and also to Mrs. Burgess and her assistants for the money received from the Royal Neighbors.

A committee was appointed who drew up the following resolutions:

"Whereas the ladies of the Red Cross Auxiliary in their deliberation as to the most acceptable method of procuring the necessary funds for carrying on the work, decided to solicit each family in and near Red Cloud for monthly or collective donations, that a permanent fund might be established for the purchasing of supplies.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we extend to each contributor our sincere thanks for their willingness and generous response to our appeal, as it will enable us, wholly or in part, to apply the time that must otherwise have been spent in planning entertainments to the work so sorely needed and for which there is so much demand"
