City Schools Open

The city schools opened Monday with a slight reduction in attendance from that of last year, that of the Lincoln school being about the same and the other class, somewhat larger. The falling off seems to have taken place in grades 8, 9, 10, and 11. This may be accounted for in part by the organization of the Rural High Schools in this part of the county.

The faculty and assignment are as follows:

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL.
Nebel Pope, principal, Latin, Mrs. J. D. Murray, English and Physical Culture.
Mrs. Fay Wells, Mathematics.
Linda Under, Science.
Edna Richard, Commerce.
Alison Cronin, History.
H. E. Hongo, Art, Music and Manual Training.

The enrollment was one hundred and nine.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL.
Mabel Vichison, principal, Mathematics.
Mrs. R. D. Wilkinson, English and Spanish.
Jennie Miner, History and Geography.
Mrs. C. M. Sherwood, Home Economics.
Edith Owen, Music.

The enrollment was one hundred and nine.

LINCOLN SCHOOL.
Margaret Leonard, principal, fourth grade, attendance thirty five.
Grace Beezley, sixth grade, attendance twenty seven.

Marybelle Hassinger, fifth grade, attendance forty-five.

Kathryne Burke, third grade, attendance thirty seven.

Mrs. H. C. Hongo, second grade, attendance forty-one.

Maurine Caldwell, first grade, attendance thirty three.

Fay Warner and Mrs. Marie Pope, sub-primary, attendance thirty four.

There are others, who expect to enter school, which will bring the attendance well above five hundred.

P. M. WHITEHEAD,
Superintendent.

Library Notes

New books at the Library.

The following late fiction has just been received at the Library:

"A Daughter of the Lord," Gene Stratton-Porter.

"Amazing Interlude," Mary Roberts Rhinehart.

"The Tree of Heaven," May Sinclair.

"Temperamental Henry," Samuel Merwin.

"The Making of George Groton," Bruce Barton.

"Cabin Fever," E. M. Bower.

"The Martial Adventures of Henry and Me," Wm. Allen White.

"The U. P. Train," Zane Grey.

"The White Morning," Gertrude Atherton.

"Making Her His Wife," Cora Harris.

These books have been placed on a "pay shelf" and a charge of five cents a week will be made for the privilege of taking them from the library. The money received in this way will be used only for the purchase of late fiction.

Advent Notes

Dr. O. A. Wilson called at the Chief office Tuesday morning and really we cannot refrain from a compliment in "making the grade" for he did it more handsily than some of our visitors who do not labor under the handicap he does. He attended the opening exercises of the Seventh Day Advent school in their church in the First Ward. The exercises were simple but impressive, opening with the patriotic hymn "America," followed by a prayer by himself after which Miss Holsten, a young lady of considerable public speaking experience gave a fine well chosen address. The school opened with an enrollment of ten and there are a number who will enroll later.

Wedding Near Inavale

Mr. Edna Dixon of Inavale and Mrs. Arvid Oxels of Grand Island, Neb., were united in marriage at Inavale, Neb., Saturday, Sept. 8, 1918.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's aunt and mother, Mrs. H. E. Steiner, who resides about one and one-half miles south of Inavale, and was performed by Rev. J. D. Hongo, pastor of the United Methodist church.

Only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present.

A splendid wedding dinner was served after the ceremony.

Mr. Oxels is employed as a cooper in Inavale. Mrs. Oxels is employed in the same way.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Steiner.

Taking a Rest

Mr. H. E. Steiner, who has been suffering with a heart ailment for some time, has been advised by his physician to take a rest. He has accordingly taken a rest for some time and is now feeling much better. He is now able to take a short walk and is enjoying his life.

Baptist Church Notes

Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday night at the usual hour.

The Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. Hansecker, two miles southwest of the city, Friday, at 2:30 p. m. Those desiring to attend will meet at Mrs. Miner's at 1:30 where conveyance will be provided for all.

The Sunday afternoon sermon by Rev. V. M. Harper, is given by request, subject "The Security of the Saints." Everyone cordially invited to attend.

For Agricultural Training

The local registration board received a call Monday morning for ten boys from the list to go for training at the Agricultural College at Manhattan, Kan., where they are to arrive Sept. 15, 1918.

The names selected are as follows:

Carl R. Saladen and Thorval Jensen of Red Cloud.

Alphram H. Hampton, Ralph V. Gay, Fred Fisher, Axel Giger and Muriel S. Engler, of Guide Rock.

Henry Fricke and William O. Nolte of Campbell.

Peter Thompson of Bladen.

McBride Resigns

After a year or more of arduous service as Food Administrator of Webster county R. E. McBride has resigned by reason of necessity of turning his entire attention to personal matters. Representative Cook, of Lincoln, checked the office and found everything in good order. He complimented McBride as one of the best Food Administrators of the state. J. L. McBride was drafted into the office to serve until a permanent appointment could be made.

Order of Draft Call

Men between the ages of 32 and 36, inclusive, and 18 and 20 years old registrants will be called first in the new draft. Precinct Marshal General Crowder announced Tuesday. Eighteen years old and those above 35 will be called later.

There is a Difference in Lenses

Just as there is between a piece of pure gold and that containing alloy. The lenses used by us are the finest that can be had. These come in the round and are ground until they exactly meet the requirements of your particular eye trouble. One cannot be too careful about the eyes. This matter of a dollar or so should not enter into the calculation. This store refuses to sell for your postage by airmail—there is the living jewel that by itself will do you good. Even so, you will find the store unwaveringly true, taking into consideration the opportunity.

It will be to the interest of your eyes to have them examined here.

Our experience and knowledge are at your service.

We want to render greater service than the mere selling of electric current.

Our experts will plan every detail of wiring, lighting and arrangement of electrical conveniences for the home, office, store or factory.

We are always glad to advise you how to get the most out of the current you use—for example, how you can enjoy 3 times as much light by replacing carbon lamps with Edison Mazdas.

Our lighting experts will confer with you or your architect and help determine the best places for running wires and the best positions for lights.

This service is without cost to you. Phone for it today.
