I. B. Stunser, one of Nebraska's pinneer citizens, dropped in at the Chief office recently looking after subscription matters and entertained with several most interesting recitals of early day experiences. Mr. Stanser is preparing to go into the country where he will spend the winter.

Mr. L. Clark stopped in Red Cloud Tuesday enroute from Wheatland, Wyo., to Lincoln, where he expects to answer call to the war service. He is a brother to Mrs. S. C. Ellis and spent his short visit here with his sister and her family. Mr. Clark is a typical American and enthusiastic about getting into the war activities.

Speaking of the Lone Tree district war savings society of which mention is made elsewhere, it is a matter of pleasure to note the amount of intelligence and talent in evidence at their entertainments and in their social life. This is the place where there is an active branch of the Baptist church, Rev. V. M. Harper of this city devoting a share of his time to their interests.
