Eva Tanquay, the famous Vaudeville Queen and Star entertainer in

THE WILD GIRL

"The Wild Girl" written especially for Miss Tanquay, gives her exceptional opportunities. Miss Tanquay brings to her interpretation of the title role all that youthful zest and abandon which stamps her work on the stage, and her picture of the little heiress reared by roving gypsies, is an appealing one. Miss Tanquay's entrance into the film world is a notable occurrence. She is without doubt the most popular public entertainer on the boards.

A startling costume revue precedes the showing of the "Wild Girl." In it Miss Tanquay appears in the series of odd and daring costume creations which are indissolubly associated with her vaudeville triumphs. The extravagant beauty and richness of this particular feature is more than entertaining, especially to the ladies.

The program will also include a rattling good comedy.

NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT IN RED CLOUD

There has never been anything in Red Cloud with the INSTANT action of simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL flushes the ENTIRE bowel tract so completely it relieves ANY CASE sour stomach, gas or constipation and prevents appendicitis. The INSTANT, pleasant action of Adler-ika surprises both doctors and patients.—Chas. L. Cotting.

Fresh Hastings bread daily at Platt's Grocery.

Dr. Creighton and J. C. Mitchell are reported on the sick list.

Onions for sale. Inquire Chas. Raser, Ind. Phone 12 on 2. 30ft

Mrs. J. H. Bailey is confined to her home with an attack of grippe.

Miss Kathryn Burke returned from Walnut, Iowa, Sunday night.

The Farmers Union are expecting another carload of nice potatoes within a few days.

We ask you to pay up because we think we honestly deserve it. Come in and talk it over.

Mrs. C. H. Miner is home from Lincoln where she has been spending a week with her daughter.

Mrs. John Potter is critically ill at this writing and her children have been summoned to her bedside.

Mrs. Lulu Fuller of Tulsa, Okla., is here on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. G. Potter.

Robt. Potter of Okmulgee, Okla., arrived here last night, called by the illness of his mother, Mrs. J. G. Potter.

Roy Garber brought his father, John Garber home from Fullerton, Neb., Sunday, where he has spent the summer.

Mrs. Geo. Lindsey of San Diego, Calif., arrived here the first of the week for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. I. Frisbie of Lester, is moving to Red Cloud, this week and will, for the present, make her home with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Garber.

Miss Blanche Bauer who has been teaching at Fairbury, Neb., is home, the schools at that place having been closed on account of public health.

Will Roats of Scotts Bluff, who has been visiting his father, Gus Roats, and other relatives here, returned to his home Wednesday.

H. J. Brown who went to Wauneta not long since, was in the city the first of the week. He returned to his employment Wednesday evening.

Geo. J. Warren, manager of the Orpheum theatre was among the Riverton visitors this week. He showed us sample of Riverton oil and it sure looks good.

Geo. McMurray, a prosperous farmer on the Kansas line spent the forepart of the week in Red Cloud, meeting friends and looking after business matters.

Someone was malicious enough to inflict damage upon machinery at the "Big Chief" oil well. Messrs. Patterson and Dysod are both here now and work is resumed shortly.

Dr. Robt. Mitchell and H. Grice made an overland trip to Ft. Riley and Camp Funston the last of the week. The doctor took examination for service in an army medical corp.

J. H. Bailey who underwent an operation at the Wesley Hospital in Kansas City the latter part of last week, is recovering nicely and will soon be able to return home.

Mrs. Julia Warren received, last week, a fine camp photo showing portraits of 200 soldiers in a group. The picture is four feet in length and Mrs. Warren's son Carl very easily recognizable.

Sam Lindsey went up to Riverton Tuesday and brought back a bottle of oil from the new strike. Sam says Riverton is oil wild. Where it came from and how much there is of it are the leading town topics.

Repairs and improvements are to be made on the road between Red Cloud and Inavale. Geo. Ordring had the surveying and the work is to be pushed ahead rapidly. This is commendable for the highway is a much traveled one and a few serious accidents might east the county much more than the repair bill.

Albert V. Ducker drove over into Kansas Sunday to look after farm and crop interests. Few people realize how busy a man is with local details of war work, or how largely the war rests upon the accuracy and efficiency of these men right here at home. Messrs. Perry, Ducker and Huffer are carrying on a tremendous volume of this work—giving their time and effort freely. Don't forget this.

J. E. Elliott has resigned his position as elevator manager for the Farmers Union Cooperative Co. and has gone to Kansas City to look over a wider field, preparatory to a change of location. Dan Garber has a large circle of friends who will be glad to learn that he has accepted the position and is on the job ready to meet all patrons and give them the square kind of a deal.

Uncle Sam asks you to pay your subscription to the Chief because he wants his newspapers supported.

Live Stock Tour

Plans and arrangements have been made to have a second tour in Webster county. This time we are to visit the farmers and live stock in the northern part of the county. On this trip we will inspect almost every breed of live stock, farm buildings and silos. The date of this tour is Tuesday, Oct. 15, 1918.

Leave the court house at Red Cloud at 9:30 sharp. All those going from the southern part of the county should try and meet at that time. Those coming later should follow and will find us 14 miles north and 1/2 mile east of Red Cloud at the Thos. McMahon farm.

Parties from the northern part of the county should meet at this place at 10 o'clock.

Dinner at Blue Hill.

The route and stops are as follows:

Thos. McMahon—Shorthorn cattle and hopeless silo.

Chas. Robinson—Chester White hogs

Eric Busch—Red Polled Cattle, Poland China Hogs and pit silo.

Louis Borcherting—Holstein Cattle, Duroc Jersey Hogs and pit silo.

Marshall Lewis—Hereford Cattle and tile silo.

James McClure—Poland China hogs, John Carr—Duth Belted Cattle and Hampshire Hogs.

Mattok Brothers—Polles Hereford Cattle and Poland China hogs

W. E. France—Shorthorn Cattle.

W. E. Thorne—Angus Cattle, Gurnsey Cattle, Ayrshire Cattle, Berkshire Hogs and farm buildings.

Frank Krall—Angus Cattle and Poland China Hogs.

Artie Laverick—Farm buildings.

Frank Bean—Hereford Cattle.

Every progressive farmer in Webster County should go on this trip, also business men who are interested in better farming and Live Stock in Webster county.

This is a busy time and farmers have more work than they can do but at the same time a day off, spent in visiting farmers and live stock men will mean much toward better farming and live stock.

Remember the date and be ready to start with the crowd.

County Agricultural Agent,
Henry R. Fausch

Elect Officers

The Red Cloud homestead of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen met Tuesday evening and selected officers for the coming year. They also voted to buy a Liberty Bond, the semi-annual report of the correspondent showing the treasury to be in condition to permit such action. At the close of the meeting the company went to the Powell & Pope cafe where ice cream and wafers were served. The local homestead was organized in 1914. It now has forty-four members in good standing. The following officers were chosen:

C. R. Carpenter, Foreman.

W. D. Edson, Past Foreman.

L. R. Rust, Master of Ceremonies.

Mrs. Ella Hunt, Correspondent.

Mrs. Lois Edson, Chaplain.

A Budding Romance

The shades of night were falling fast—were, in fact, securely fastened—when homeward the weary penman wends his way.

Passing a residence of which a cozy porch forms an attractive portion the thought came that a strolling stranger would never realize there was a porch in proximity—so shady the shadows, so silent the stillness.

You have doubtless noticed many times how one can often sense a sound before it actually arouses the auditory nerve to action—without hearing a sound you know there is one.

We won't attempt any description. Some things are indescribable. This is one of them. Take a kiss, for example. One can say "I heard a kiss." But to describe it, is impossible. And one is not always sure they even heard it. One hears so many things nowadays that are not true.

But we assure you it was all right and proper. A sweetly feminine giggle came through the darkness and a familiar voice followed with "Hello, Brownie!" So we know it was all right. Otherwise silence would have been strict for fear a story might get in the paper.

There will be no preaching service in the Congregational church next Sunday. Sabbath School as usual.

On account of the prevailing influenza the memorial service for Vernon Taylor which was to have been held in the Congregational church next Sunday evening, is postponed until further notice.

Bladen Brieflets

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Streit received the alarming news last week that their son, Ernest, stationed at Camp Dodge, Iowa, was seriously ill and not expected to recover. They left immediately for the camp and were present for some time before the sickness took a turn for the worst, but death ensued in a few days, despite all that was done for him. The body was shipped back home and services held at the Danish church south of town. The deepest sympathy is extended to the parents in their bereavement in the loss of their soldier son.

C. R. Rakestraw, S. P. Duncan, Jno. Orland and J. A. Denton, returned Sunday from the western part of the state where they spent the week hunting "big game" in the sand hills. The car was filled however with prairie chickens, wild rabbits, showing that a little sport was indulged in.

Misses Blanche Roth and Ruth West of Napoleon are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roth, and family southwest of town.

Word has been received recently that Theodore Davis had been seriously wounded in action. It has been known for the past two weeks that he had been wounded in the hand, but it was thought that he had recovered and had since been on the firing line again.

Baptist Church Notes

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Mr. Harper preached at the Lone Tree school house last Sunday at 11 a. m. and preached the funeral sermon at the Red Cloud Christian church at 2:30 p. m., returned to the school house and addressed the Young People's meeting. He also preached in the evening. A well filled day we should say for an old veteran. Exemplifying the spirit of our blessed Master who came not to be ministered unto but to minister and gave his life a ransom for many.

Mr. Harper received a message stating that one of his daughters was in the hospital in quite a critical condition.
