THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Red Cloud, Nebraska

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

Entered in the Postoffice at Red Cloud, Neb., as Second Class Matter

F. L. BROWNE, Editor and Manager

THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

As a solution of the Democratic problem the Chief suggests that ALL public offices be taken out of politics. The plan works well on the judicial ticket—why not extend it farther?

Ex-Kaiser Bill has a new job seeking a safe hiding place. Already his punishment begins. But recently a man dictating the movement and fate of nations he becomes an outcast, a hunted, haunted fugitive, shivering at shadows, fearful of frightful fate.

It was wise action on the part of Mayor Damerell and Fire Chief Butler to prohibit ringing of the fire bell for any purpose other than that for which it is intended. The fire bell is an alarm signal and its use as a token of rejoicing is inappropriate and highly dangerous. Imagine what might have happened had fire broken out somewhere in the city last Thursday afternoon.

Some time when our law makers up at Lincoln are at loss for legislative material we suggest discussion of a change in the form of ballot. Those circles at the head of the ticket are getting a little out of date, and should be eliminated. The straight ticket idea came mighty near creating serious confusion at the recent election. The circles are really a useless appendage and have already been discarded in many states.

In common with other newspapers all over the country the Chief was caught on the premature report of Germany's signature to the armistice. However, it's true now and we can afford to forget the erroneous message which, even though it did place the press in a false position and did cause needless suffering in families having relatives in the war zone, was inspired by a patriotic anxiety to get glad news circulated at the earliest possible moment.

Now that the smoke has gone we may all take a clear view of the political battlefield, congratulate the winners and settle down to regular business. Some of our republican contemporaries continue to assert that the democratic party is an error. As food for a little serious thought we respectfully refer them to one Noah Webster—a conceded authority—who says, 1st—Democracy is a form of government in which the people choose executive and judicial officers and legislate through representatives; 2d—Republicanism, a system of government by elected representatives. Um! Probably we better shake hands and let it go at that.

Some say the change of administration was due to Wilson's petition to democracy, some say it was because of popular craving for a change, some say this and some say that, was the reason and a little bird whispered to us that it was because of the severe restrictions imposed on the country press by conservation rules, which in many cases imposed dead loss upon publishers and at the same time deprived them of opportunity to retrieve the losses. But listen, we believe it was the tick of the clock. That "tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune" was at hand for the republicans, just as it has swung for the democrats in the intermediate elections between the Cleveland and Wilson administrations. By that same token we shall win in 1920 and the Chief ventures to whisper very gently—for it is early yet—the magic name "Pershing" on an "American" ticket.

Cherry the largest county in Nebraska, contains more square miles than either Connecticut, Delaware or Rhode Island, and is more than seventy-one times larger than the District of Columbia. If the earth population is 1,200,000,000 as estimated, every man, woman and child could stand in Cherry county and have a space two feet square.

The War Machine

When Mr. Wilson's war machine was building on the ways

Republicans regarded it with words of stern dispraise.

"The joints are wobbly," Penrose said. "The wheels are square," said Root.

The trolly's loose," said Murray Crane. "She'll never run," said Smoot.

"They ought to junk the thing," said Hays, "and build a brand new car."

"I can't approve of it," said Lodge. "It's rotten!" cried T. R.

When Mr. Wilson's war machine went rushing down the road

The G. O. P. lads gathered round to see the thing explode.

But when it kept along its course, amid the people's cheers,

They gathered monkey wrenches up and tossed them in the gears.

"It's slowing up a bit," said Hughes. "It can't go very far."

"I think," said Lodge "it's going to be—"

"A flivver!" cried T. R.

When Mr. Wilson's war machine got working over there,

And presently the kaiser raised a moan of wild despair,

The G. O. P. came swarming up like bees from out a hive.

"I really think," said Mr. Lodge, "they ought to let us drive"

"Because of us," said Root and Smoot "it runs without a jar;

We taught him how to make it go."

"I built it!" cried T. R.

Died Today

Word comes, as the Chief goes to press, of the death of Mr. Tomlinson in the northeast section of the city.

Celebrating Peace

The Chief goes to press while Red Cloud citizens and hundreds of visitors fill the streets and make merry. A big dinner served free to all owners; band music, patriotic choruses, a great parade typical of militia, Red Cross nurses and workers, school patriotism etc. were among the attractions.

Slight showers intervened, but not sufficient to check patriotic enthusiasm.

Home Guards Give Banquet

Under auspices of the Home Guard, Doctors Mitchell, Greighton and Siebertman were tendered a banquet at the Powell & Pope restaurant last Thursday evening. Forty-one plates were laid. County Attorney Frank Manley and School Supt. P. M. Whitehead gave the addresses, the doctors responding with appropriate remarks. Dr. Stockman left the next morning for service at Ft. Riley. The other two expect to go later.

Death of Mrs. Jas. McGuire

Another pioneer citizen answered the final summons last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. McGuire had been ill for some time, and death was not unexpected.

She was born at Bandy, Ill., April 6th, 1845, her maiden name being Nancy Emeline Smith. In 1864 she married John A. Siebert and came to Webster county in 1882. Mr. Siebert died in 1898 and in 1905 she married James McGuire, who with her four daughters, three sons and four step-children, mourn the loss. Funeral services were held from the home on Sunday afternoon, Rev. John D. Hammel officiating.

Baptist Church Notes

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. The Lords supper will be observed after the morning session. Let us remember the words of the Lord: "This do as oft as ye drink it in Remembrance of Me. For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye do show forth my death till I come."

In a simple and solemn observance we recognize the sacrificial spirit of Christ, our Savior. During the terrible struggle we have just passed through many have learned the spirit of sacrifice as never before. Then let us strive to spread the truth that there is more happiness in service than to dominate.

PAY PLEDGES FOR UNITED WAR WORK.

Contributors to the Big United War Work Campaign during the week of November 11-18, when Nebraska will make a 15 per cent over-subscription to its $5,000,000 quota, will be permitted to pay their pledges in three installments during a period of three months if they desire.

The Nebraska State Committee in charge of this campaign believes that some of those who give to the fund would rather make their contributions in three parts and they will permit them to do so, and thus help with a larger pledge the Seven Allied organizations carrying some of the comforts of home to the boys in military service. Installments may be paid as follows:

- 50% of Pledge, December 2.
- 25% of Pledge, January 15.
- 25% of Pledge, March 1.

WOMEN RALLYING TO HELP THE BOYS.

"Rally 'round the boys with the flag." This is the urgent plea of Mrs. Grace F. Gholson, state director for the Women's Committee, United War Work Campaign for Nebraska.

Mrs. Gholson is urging every woman in the state to come to the front this week and lend her assistance with the great work of the seven big organizations which are helping the Government win the war.

SICK BOYS "TUCKED IN" LIKE MOTHER DID IT.

"I haven't been tucked in for ages, not since my mother used to do it when I was a little kid." These were the words of a Nebraska sailor who was stationed at the Great Lakes during the recent influenza epidemic when a worker of one of the seven organizations in the United War Work Campaign went between the cots and "tucked him in."

"Now that's good—it's just as if mother was here to have you do that." The sick boy was well in a few days. When asked about the work being done by the United War Workers he replied, "It's like your mother going along."
