Baptist Church Notes
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
There will be no prayer meeting this week on account of the revival services at the Christian church.
The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a Food Sale at P. A. Wullbrandt's store Saturday, Jan. 18th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.
Mrs. Josephine Henderson and Misses Maude and Bonnie Esig, of Happyville, Colo., non-resident members of this church were with us at both morning and evening services Sunday and warmed our hearts by their pleasant smile and sweet singing. They show their Baptist training by their labors for the spread of the Master's Kingdom. May the Lord bless them in their new home.

Obituary
Catherine Grossman died at her home five miles north of Inavale, Jan 11th, 1919. She had been in poor health for several years, but during the past six weeks had been very weak. For the past ten years she has been a widow her husband having died in March, 1908.
Mrs. Grossman, whose maiden name was Bliz, was born in Baden, Germany, May 2, 1849 and came to the United States with her parents when she was five years of age. Her first home on American soil was in Penn. In a few years the family decided to come west and they located in Illinois. In her Illinois home she met the one who became her companion for life.
Dec. 25, 1866 at Lena, Ill., she was married to Emanuel Grossman and to this union five children were born. Mrs. J. P. Hale of Colorado Springs, Colo., Edwin Grossman of Denning, Neb., Albert, Ralph and Miss Corn Grossman of Inavale.
This good lady joined the Methodist church in Lena, Ill., and after she came to Webster County, she was among the active workers in congregations here. Since Oct. 1891, she has been a resident of this county and for several years a member of the Red Cloud M. E. church.
Our friend lived to the age of sixty-nine years. She leaves her children, five sisters, one brother, fourteen grand children and two great-grand children to mourn her death.
Funeral services were conducted at the home on Tuesday, by Rev. J. W. Borden of Inavale. The body was laid to rest in Pleasant Prairie cemetery.

Farm Bureau Notes
SHORTHORN CALF CLUB
The Webster County Farm Bureau will add a Shorthorn Calf Club and possibly a Hereford Calf Club to their list of projects this year.
At a meeting of the Shorthorn Breeders, called by the county agent Saturday, January 11th, which was held in the State Bank and attended by Chas. Stewart, James Doyle, Thos. Swartz, John W. Hamilton and John Ohmsted, rules and regulations were adopted. The same will appear in the notes next week. Mr. J. W. Auld, cashier of the State Bank, will see to it that the bank furnishes the money to buy the calves.
Membership will be open to boys and girls from 14 to 20 years old, who will take the heifer drawn by lot in April and feed same till the Farmers' Institute, when it will be sold at auction. The amount of note, and sale expenses will be deducted from the sale price and the remainder will be profit for the members.
The heifers will be bought from a good pure bred herd and range in age from 9 to 12 months. We want 40 to 50 members in Webster County. Handsome prizes will be offered.
BIG CATTLE SALE
The County Agent attended the Hereford sales at Cambridge last week. Around 225 head were auctioned off for the sum of $309,000. Mousel Bros. sale of 50 head sold at an average of $318 was a world record. The top bull of the sale sold for $21,000 to Mrs. Braddock of Chadron, Neb., and the top cow for $7,200 to Fritz Biedle of Loupe City.
The Cambridge Commercial Club was foresighted enough years ago to put up a fine sale pavilion which is heated and has electric lights for the live stock breeders tributary to Cambridge. Consequently the live stock men do not have to sell their stock at Grand Island, Omaha, Hastings, Superior and Holdrege, like the stock men of Webster County do. Webster County has over 50 breeders of Pure Bred Live Stock and we have a good improved Live Stock Breeders Association started. It is about time that some of the towns in the country are doing their part for better live stock and furnish suitable sale pavilion.
FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION
The Webster County National Farm Loan Association held its annual meeting in the County Agent's office January 7th. All officers were re-elected for the coming year. The association is looking for a favorable year in the farm loan business. The association has set dates when the appraiser from the Land Bank should come to this association. These dates are the first week of February, first week of June and the first week of October. Farmers wanting government loans before June 1st, should have their applications in by the first week in February.
HENRY R. FAUSCH,
County Agricultural Agent.

The Misses Maude and Bonnie Esig and their sister, Mrs. J. D. Henderson of Happyville, Colo., are visiting relatives and friends in Red Cloud. These young ladies were former residents of our city, and need no introduction other than mention of the fact that they are here. They assisted in the choir music at the Baptist church Sunday and the temptation to publish a string of commendatory adjectives is well-nigh irresistible.
N. A. Platt has retired from the grocery business which he has conducted for several years past, in this city, and will presently engage in some different work. Mr. Platt has made many friends during his residence in Red Cloud who will regret the change and at the same time wish him the height of success in the new line he selects. The stock was purchased by F. G. Turnure & Son and will be merged in their well-known grocery and merchandise emporium.

Celebrate Franklin Day
More than 150 years ago Benjamin Franklin wrote: "Keep your shop and it will keep you."
On January 17 the United States will observe Franklin's 213th birthday anniversary and make it National War Savings Day. The pioneer exponent of thrift in this country might as well have written: "Keep your War Savings Stamps and they will keep you." For thru the War Savings Stamp habit American people who had not already been impressed with the value of thrift are learning it, and in honor of the great American sage the Treasury Department has placed the likeness of Franklin on the face of the 1919 series of War Savings Stamps.
People of the Tenth Federal Reserve District are being urged by the War Loan and Savings Organization of the district to observe January 17th in Franklin's memory. The old style calendar was in use when Franklin was born and his autobiography gives the date of his birth as January 6th, which is in the present calendar, January 17th.
Franklin coined the phrase: "A rolling stone gathers no moss." Also "What maintains one vice would bring up two children;" and "A man may, if he knows no how to save as he gets, keep his money, but his life to the grindstone, and die with not a ghost at last."
It was Franklin who caused Poor Richard to say in regard to government taxes: "We are taxed twice as much by our idleness, three times as much by our pride, and four times as much by our folly."
