Things to Worry About
Lots of people just love to worry, but often find themselves at a loss for anything to worry about. For the benefit of all such, we offer the following aids to wrinkles and gray hairs:
Your enemy's bolts.
Other people's money.
The depth of the sea.
Next year's vacation.
The wheat crop in Iceland.
The dollar bill you lost ten years ago.
The location of the next world's fair.
The scarcity of coal along the equator.
The exact speed of your neighbor's car.
The domestic affairs of your neighbors.
The welfare of the inhabitants of Mars.
The number of sparrows in the United States.
The crop yields of the United States in 1994.
The whereabouts of the warts you once had.
The Kaiser's toothache, or King Edward's gout.
The whereabouts and welfare of your first sweetheart.
The health of a fourth cousin whom you have never seen.
Indications this year are that 1932 will be the hottest year in history.
