DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATOR

With a single tool—the combination wrench and screw driver shown in the illustration below, and a part of the De Laval equipment—you can take apart a NEW De Laval and set it up again in a few minutes.

Could anything be easier or simpler?

There are no complicated parts—no chain drives, no cog wheel puzzles, no ball bearings to get flattened or broken. Every adjustment can be made quickly by the man on the farm with no special understanding about machinery.

Such simple construction makes the NEW De Laval the easiest separator to clean.

We will sell you a NEW De Laval on terms that can't help selling you. Come in and examine the machine; let us show you what it will do.

The only tool required with a NEW De Laval.

THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

There is a curious question involved in the fact that while wages are the last and slowest item in a rising-price period they are first and fastest when the decline comes

You made a contract with the soldier boys. They said they'd go across and fight if you would back them up. Backing them up means paying the bills and bringing the boys home.

Speaking of government loss on the wheat price guarantee is hardly a fair way to put it. As a matter of fact the amount the government will probably have to pay is nothing more or less than a war expense.

We acknowledge receipt of a nifty certificate for newspaper work in connection with local Food Administration affairs. It's a slip of paper of which we feel proud and bears the signature of Henry Gilham last official head of the Webster county office.

About 150 hunters went out southwest of Grand Island the other day to round up wolves in a five mile square territory. The canis lupus tribe being conspicuous by absence the hunters are reported to have amused themselves by shooting prairie chickens, and thereby have attracted attention from state game authorities. Moral: When out hunting wolves don't bag any chickens.

Sunday was marked by nation-wide memorial exercises in honor of Theodore Roosevelt. A few words from Senator Lodge's eulogy in Washington aptly express general sentiment of the occasion. "Of all nations of the earth Germany alone does not mourn the ex-president's death because she knows how much he did in rallying America to battle for freedom. He was a great patriot, a great American. A tower has fallen. A star has set."

Albert Thomas, former minister of war industries, and recently returned to Paris from a conference at Berne where he told the Germans they must pay for their crimes, says his observation of them is that en-mass they are in a state of absolute despair, and he adds in wise caution perhaps the administration of justice may well be tempered with mercy. Perhaps he is right. To attempt the enforcement of impossibilities might be worse than letting them go scott free.

The laws of the state of Nebraska favor newspaper publishers with a crumb of comfort in defining compensation for legal advertising. Wherefore, then, are the legislators wasting time quibbling over payment on contracts assumed in good faith between the state and said publishers? Wherefore the need of a meeting subjecting said publishers to loss of time and money? The goods have been delivered; the bills are lawful and payable. Paying them would be a simple and effective solution.

Consistency is a jewel until it becomes stubbornness, then it's a mule. Senator Hitchcock who is popularly supposed to be representing the people, and who was recently officially notified that the great state of Nebraska desired to approve the suffrage amendment has achieved the doubtful honor of becoming the lone unit blocking immediate passage of said amendment. His support would have spelled success. However, the suffrage question is destined to travel the same path as prohibition and Mr. Hitchcock's finish is not hard to guess.

One of the first official acts of the reorganized Commercial Club was to send to Lincoln its endorsement of the good roads legislation in process of enactment. Good roads are basic factors of prosperity. City and country are interdependent. The farmer must have a market place, the city must have its source of supply and easy transportation is of vital interest to both. It's up to every progressive farmer in this section of Webster county, who desires the best possible results from his labor, to join the Commercial Club, get his shoulder to the wheel, and boost!

Anent the question of military training for the young men of America, it is, to all intents and purposes, an axiom that getting ready, for the next war is an assurance of war. Per contra, preparation for peace would be proper procedure.

It must be embarrassing to those republican senators who have been opposing the League of Nations plan, to have ex-president Taft offering criticisms which are based solely on the idea that the peace conference is too conservative as regards the aforesaid League of Nations.

We read that ten dollars a quart is list price on whiskey. Isn't that rather severe on the consumer? Our recollection is that many of that class often had a hard time getting possession of ten cents for liquidating purposes. But ten dollars! Oh, boy! However, it is evident we have prohibition that prohibits.

The Federal Food Administration in closing its official career in Nebraska take time to thank the newspaper publishers, "to whose unceasing and patriotic endeavors its success was largely due." The compliment is very gratifying and is incentive to go on with good work wherever it may be needed. It is also one more item in evidence of the benefit derived from persistent advertising.
