

MODERN STRATEGY

All life-time is a school of strategy—a game of war upon germs and tendencies which, unless thwarted, weaken the system and invite disease. Modern health-strategy dictates the use of as a reliable means of thwarting the enemies of strength. Scott's is Nature's ally and its rich tonic and strength-supporting properties are known, with satisfaction, to millions. Build up your strength with the nourishing qualities of Scott's Emulsion.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Nelson have returned from Lafayette, Colo., and Mr. Nelson has accepted a position with E. W. Stevens. Mrs. J. K. Chaney is on the invalid list. Her granddaughter is here from Superior to assist until the lady is able to be up again. Mrs. Geo. Topham, who was visiting here returned to her home at Blue Hill Tuesday, called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Eldredge. There was talk that the illness of January saw the end of our fine winter weather, but February is half gone and we are just getting a taste of real winter. Judge A. D. Ramsay added to the happiness of two lives by uniting them in marriage Monday. John Tietjen and Miss Anna C. Nelson, of Inavale, were the happy couple.

Buy Bread at Powell & Pope's Cafe. W. H. Tolley was in from Guide Rock Saturday. Lloyd Barker is assisting in the Cotting drug store. G. E. Mountford is now agent for the Consumers Refining Co. Good meals—good service—moderate prices—Powell & Pope's cafe. John Weesner of Esbon, Kan., was a Red Cloud visitor Saturday. Fresh stock of O'Brien and Allegritti chocolates at Cotting's. 7-2t Mr. and Mrs. John Hardwick of Inavale, were Saturday shoppers in this city. Mayor Robt. Damerell was a St. Francis, Kan., visitor the last of the week. Russel Amaek is busy at his old stand in the Hamilton-Cather Clothing store. Mrs. Wm West of Superior, is the guest of her husband's mother, Mrs. Caroline West. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ducker are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Frank Sutton and baby. Mrs. H. Ludlow entertained her son-in-law, Guy Van Orman and family, of Hardy, last of the week. Geo. Hutchinson has gone to Denver with a party of prospective land purchasers who will look at real estate in that vicinity. Harry Waller, living near Cowles, sold his farm to Emery Waller, the latter part of the week, who will take possession the first of April. Harold Burg, who was erroneously reported dead overseas last summer, has written that he has no means of knowing when he will be home. Edgar Cowden is home from Chicago His wife remains at a hospital in that city where she underwent a surgical operation, and is recovering nicely. Revival services at the Christian church were temporarily discontinued this week although interest therein had not lagged since the start several weeks ago. Miss Ethel Waller came down from Cowles Friday evening and spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey, returning home Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Etherton and Ed Etherton, of Council Bluffs, and James and Frank Etherton, of Grand Island, were here in attendance at the funeral of their father, Chas. Etherton. Editor W. H. Edson who was called to Grand Island last week by the serious illness of his father, Rev. I. W. Edson, returned Tuesday and reports that the patient's condition shows improvement. W. G. Dungan, C. Stier Bros. shipped a car of mules; Tom Swartz, Dave Bell, J. E. Vost and Nolan & Miner one car each of cattle; Wm. Crabill and Delaney Bros two cars each of hogs, to eastern markets the last of the week.—Com-Ad. The Resler line of Suits, Coats, Capes, Dresses, Skirts and Waists, will be at Albright's store Friday and Saturday, Feb. 21 and 22. Be sure and see the line. 7-2t The ladies of the Red Cross, Line Auxiliary, will hold a box Supper at the schoolhouse, Dist. 34, on Friday evening, Feb. 21st. Proceeds will go for the adoption of Belgian children. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to everyone. 7-2t L. E. Herburger of Omaha, who has been visiting relatives and roaming the streets of his old home town for the past week or two, returned to his typographical duties and family in the metropolis of Nebraska Wednesday morning. "Lafe" made the Chief office a sociable place while here and we sure miss him. Archie Potter, who has made Red Cloud his home during the past several months, and incidentally set a "stick" of type now and then and made himself otherwise handy and at home in this office, emulated the Arab who "folded his tent and silently stole away," last week Tuesday, not even delaying long enough to tell us goodbye. The Texas oil fields were his destination. Young men now returning from the Army, who wish to prepare themselves for positions in Banks and other Business offices, or for the Civil Service Examinations will be interested in the circulars now being sent out by the well-known Grand Island Business College, of Grand Island, Nebraska. The School has been a leader in business education for more than thirty years, and cannot supply the demand for its graduates. It was the first Western School to prove that positions could be guaranteed and secured for graduates. 60

It's a sure sign that spring is coming. Mrs. Harvey Merrill entertained twelve of her lady friends at a quilting Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a jolly time was had. You Are Losing Money If you don't sell your cream to the Farmers Union Co-operative Company and receive the dividends. 40¢ F. W. Bailey and wife of Guide Rock, and their daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Gilbert and baby, of Hastings, were visitors at the home of J. H. Bailey and family Saturday and Sunday. Miss Laura Hedge entertained a party of little Misses last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Josephine McCall who came in from Inavale with her teacher to spend the week end. Secretary O. C. Teel tells us to announce that the State Commissioner's hearing on the Farmers Telephone matter scheduled for Tuesday, the 19th, has been postponed for one week—Tuesday, Feb. 16th is the date. Red Cloud is the place. What they will do is yet to be settled. Owing to the series of special meetings at the Baptist church during the past week "Baptist Church Notes" were omitted and to this fact is due our failure to make note of the Willing Worker's assembly at the home of Mrs. Tim Topham a week ago last Friday. Twenty or more ladies were there and spent a most enjoyable day, not a small part of which was the delightful ride out into the country and the delicious dinner served by Mrs. Topham. One of our solid and reputable citizens after getting shaved at a popular barber shop the other night donned a soldiers coat, supposing it to be his own, and did not discover the mistake until a friend asked him how long he had been in the army. It took some time to get the coats, which by night-light did resemble each other, back to the backs on which they belonged. We won't tell you who was involved in the little humorous adventure but if you insist on knowing more about it ask J. A. McArthur. Farm Loans I am ready to make farm loans in any amount at lowest rates, best terms and option. Absolutely no delay and no inspection expense. Sole agent for Trevett, Mattis and Baker. Some private money. J. H. BAILEY.

Alarm Uncalled For While caution in matter of health, exposure to colds, unnecessary exertion, etc., is always wise, getting into a panic over wild reports, is not using good judgment. Mayor Dr. Robert Damerell requests that the public pay no attention to exaggerated reports of the number of "flu" cases in the city and recommends that those who are interested in securing authentic information get in touch with City Health Physician Dr. Henry Cook. Each case is reported and quarantined and there is no occasion for any disturbance in business circles. Methodist Church Notes Morning services next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Vesper services at 4 o'clock in the evening. Last Sunday's Vesper service was especially enjoyable. Vocal solos by Miss Ruby Koon and Lloyd Barker, Miss Owen's violin solo and the anthem by the choir are worthy of special mention. A still more extensive musical treat is promised for next Sunday's vesper service. You are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. J. A. Burdop went to Kansas City Sunday to purchase spring millinery stock. The funeral services for Geo. McCall a former resident of Red Cloud, who died at Guide Rock after a long illness, were to be held at that place today. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hewett have moved in from the country and become citizens of Red Cloud. They reside in the Mrs. Clifford Eshelman residence in the Second Ward. The storm, which old settlers say was one of the worst on record, caused a shut-down at the light and power house on account of danger from broken live wires crossing telephones. Hence the Chief is late this week. If you would see a great actress in a great picture go to the Orpheum next Monday or Tuesday evening and see "Revelation," with Nazimova as leading lady. Manager Warren has booked some fine feature pictures for the near future. See adv. in another column. Russel Jones who enlisted with Co. K, at Blue Hill, when the company was organized at that place is home from overseas where he has spent several weeks at the front. After leaving Camp Cody New Mexico Russel was transferred into the 83rd division, which consisted mostly of Ohio State troops. He received his honorable discharge at Camp Funston. The annual meeting of the Nebraska Farmers' Congress, postponed from last fall, will convene in Omaha at the Hotel Castle, Feb. 17-19, 1919. Live subjects of vital importance to the farmers during the reconstruction period will be discussed by men of national prominence. Agriculture had a leading part in winning the war, and the farmers should get together and see that they have their say in what part they are to play in the reconstruction period. Denial of Progress. Quick is the succession of human events; the cares of today are seldom the cares of tomorrow; and when we lie down at night, we may safely say to most of our troubles: "Ye have done your worst, and we shall meet no more."—Cowper.
