Methodist Church Notes

We are more than pleased to have the Centenary team with us next Sunday morning and evening.

We expect to have quite a delegation present next Sunday from Cowles and Inavale to attend the big Centenary Meeting.

The church has been divided into ten groups over which a unit leader is placed. Two of these groups meeting each evening this week and for the next two weeks to study the Centenary plans in detail.

Our unit leaders are C. A. HER-RICK, L. L. BOREN, W. S. BEEZ-LEY, P. A. WULLBRANDT, E. BENTLEY, ROY SATTLEY, B. W. STEWART, S. C. ELLIS, W. H. FRY, E. M. EGE.

One of the minute men, E. M. Ege of the Centenary preceded the pastor by a short and interesting address last Sunday evening. You will want to hear the other minute men from time to time.

We are pleased to announce that the choir is making special preparations for the Big Centenary Meeting to be held next Sunday. Special music and four excellent speeches ought to attract the attention of the people and put standing room at a premium.

We are always pleased to have the stranger attend our services when in our city. Last Sunday Mr. Jones of St. Joe was among our listeners. We appreciated his services in the Sunday School and his prayer offered at the evening service was a blessing to all. No it is not strange to see a traveling man a devout christian, it is an abnormal thing not to find it so.

Hear Powell-Woodrum-Embree and McCorkle the big four at next Sunday's services. A treat in store for you if you attend.

With dirt roads when the drift full of snow we have weeks of impassable roads as the snow melts away. If those roads were hard surfaced we should have good roads as soon as the snow is cleared away. A ten foot drift along a dirt road will keep the road soft and bad for weeks, while hard roads would be good. Can any community afford bad roads?—Mankato Advocate.
