

Special Easter Sale of Silks

BEGINNING TUESDAY, APRIL 15th
 APRIL 15th, 16th and 17th

500 yards in this EASTER SALE OF SILKS
 Among them the most fascinating patterns,
 Plaids, Stripes, Gingham Effects, Satins,
 Taffetas, in all the most favored designs and colorings for spring. : : : : : $1.79

These Silks that we are offering at this special EASTER SALE are silks that sell regularly at $2.25 to $3.00 per yard. Everyone a most unusual bargain. For those THREE DAYS ONLY—At $1.79 per yard.

These silks will be on display but will not be offered for sale until Tuesday, April 15th.

The R.P. Weesner Co.
 Red Cloud, Nebraska.

AS TOLD TO US

Buy Bread at Powell and Poes
 Geo. Overleese spent Monday in Hastings.
 Rev. Schaal spent Saturday in Guide Rock.
 Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fearn spent Monday in Hastings.
 Supt. P. M. Whitehead spent Saturday in Hastings.
 H. C. Gellatly spent Saturday with relatives at Hastings.
 Standard Buttermilk Starting Food is sold by C. L. Cotting.
 Jas. McIntosh returned home from St. Joe, Tuesday morning.
 County Clerk B. F. Perry spent Saturday with his parents at Harvard.
 Ding Fous of Riverton was transacting business in the city Tuesday.
 Fred Temple of Kansas City was visiting friends in the city this week.
 F. C. Buschow of Blue Hill was transacting business in the city Tuesday.
 E. H. Newhouse returned home from Kansas City the last of the week.
 Glen Foe returned to Lincoln, Saturday after spending a few days with his mother.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Aubushon returned home from Lincoln the last of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McBride of Cowles were shopping in the city Saturday evening.
 Miss Mahel Hoffman went to Hastings this morning to attend a ball given at the Clarke hotel.
 Miss Hazel Overleese, who is teaching school near Riverton, spent the weekend with her parents.
 Mrs. J. W. Jones, who had been visiting with Mrs. Frank Koon, left Monday for Clay Center.
 The W. C. T. U. will hold a special meeting at the home of Miss Cotting, on April 14, at 2:30 p. m.
 Clifford Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pope, arrived home this week having been discharged from the army.
 George Warren returned home from Beatrice the last of the week after spending a few days with his aged father.
 The Rebekah lodge met last Thursday evening and after the session adjourned, a lunch was served at the Powell & Pope Cafe.
 Everybody come to the W. C. T. U. Fair, April 17th, at Hunter's Hall at Inavale. Supper served cafeteria style from 7 to 9 p. m.
 M. B. Corner has taken up his duties as city assessor and is now busy finding out how much worldly possessions our citizens have in their homes.

You Are Losing Money

If you don't sell your cream to the Farmers Union Co-operative Company and receive the dividends. 40-1

THE FOLKS AT HOME EXPECT YOU TO TELL 'EM ALL ABOUT "OMAHA'S FUN CENTRE" THE Gaiety VISIT IT
 Exhilarating Burlesque; Vaudeville
 Stage Always Filled with Pretty Girls, Funny Clowns, Gorgeous Equipes, Brilliant Scenic Environment
LADIES' DIME MATINEE EVERY WEEKDAY
 Everybody Goes; Ask Anybody
 ALWAYS THE BIGGEST AND BEST SHOW WEST OF CHICAGO

J. E. Butler spent Monday in Blue Hill.
 Mrs. Hosmer spent Saturday in Hastings.
 Mrs. Joe Hewitt spent Monday in Hastings.
 Dr. Nellie Maurer spent Tuesday in Hastings.
 Rev. Hammel went to Hubbel, Tuesday morning.
 Jacob Petersen spent Tuesday with relatives at Hastings.
 Fred Good of Cowles was in the city Tuesday evening.
 Mrs. F. H. Fearn spent the first of the week at Guide Rock.
 Mrs. Frank Starr and mother went to Hastings this morning.
 Mrs. Moranville went to Guide Rock Wednesday morning.
 Chas. Bushee of Hastings spent Saturday with friends in this city.
 Attorney McNery went to Lincoln this morning to look after some legal matters.
 Mrs. M. M. Carl, of Long Island, Kas., is visiting her brother, J. A. McArthur and family.
 Mrs. Ida Trueblood returned to Kenesaw, Saturday, after visiting relatives and friends here.
 George Amack shipped a car of cattle to Kansas City Tuesday. He accompanied the shipment.
 Dewey Adams, who is attending the state university at Lincoln, spent the past week with his parents.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Slaby, last week moved into the Ed Hansen property, which they recently purchased.
 Rev. Schaal returned home from Naponee, Monday morning, after holding services at that place Sunday.
 Rev. Harper and daughter, Grace, returned home Monday from Lone Tree where he held services Sunday.
 Mrs. James Ryan and daughter, who had been visiting at the Delaney home, left Monday for Greeley Center.

Owing to the storm the W. C. T. U. Fair at Inavale was postponed from April 9th to Thursday, April 17th.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. Throckmorton went to Lincoln, Monday, to consult a specialist in regard to the latter's health.

Miss Jessie Kellogg, who is teaching in the public schools at Lawrence, spent Saturday with her father, Ed Kellogg.

M. A. Mercer returned home the last of the week from Kearney and Gibbons where he had been visiting relatives.

Miss Gertrude Coon returned home Saturday evening from an extended visit at York, Aurora and several other places.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones of Nelson were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tony Clark and other acquaintances here the first of the week.

Saturday was a great day at the Farmers' Union store. In a long list of busy-day items $543.00 paid for eggs looms up strong as indication of prosperous attractive business.

Carl Davison of Superior spent the last of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Jernberg. Carl was a duty sergeant in Co. G, 35th Inf., and recently returned home from overseas. He made this office a pleasant call and talked over past experiences of army life at Funston and told us about our "pals" in the company which are still overseas.

Geo. Cordle of Riverton visited with his father-in-law, Rev. Harper, Tuesday.

Miss Beatrice McKeighan returned to Lincoln, Monday, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Russel Amack.

Miss Minnie Kellett, who is attending college at Hastings, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kellett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hansen and children left the last of the week for Douglas, Wyoming, where they will make their home on his farm.

Fred Taylor, George Arnup, Walter Moore and J. E. Morris of Riverton were looking after some business matters in the city Monday.

Wm. Prevost, who moved to Arkansas some few months ago, arrived in the city Saturday to visit friends and also look after some business affairs.

Mrs. Marshall returned Monday evening from Concordia, Kansas, where she spent Sunday with her son, Walter, whose headquarters are at that place.

Miss Esther Perkins, of Orleans, but now a student of the state university spent last week with Miss Greta Turnure.

Rev. Allen of Holdredge, visited with Mr. J. M. Hewitt, Tuesday and while here solicited for the drive of $600,000 the Baptists are trying to raise this year.

Miss Margaret Miner returned to Lincoln the first of the week after spending the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miner.

Friday while drilling at the oil well, the underdrimmer broke which caused operations to cease again. The contractor has gone to Kansas after a new one.

The picture, "The Hidden Truth," in which Anna Case plays the leading part will be shown at the Orpheum, Friday and Saturday, providing the light plant is running.

Friday, April 18th, is De Laval Repair Day at Geo. Trine's hardware store. Come in and get your separator put in order if it needs repairing, or if you have any question to ask.

M. K. Quigley arrived in the city Wednesday morning from Exeter and at once took up his duties at the Chief office. As soon as suitable quarters can be obtained he will move his family here from Denver.

Miss Helen Lemon accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Kailey were in Republican City Friday evening. Miss Lemon participated in a district declamatory contest. The young lady drew second honors, her opponent being a professional Chautauqua orator.

Albert Clarke, of Smith Center, who has been in the army the past two years, but was recently discharged, is visiting friends in the city this week. He will be remembered by many here as he was employed in Stevens' studio for several months.

Notice To Members Of Farmers' Union

All members who have not paid their 1919 dues on or before May 1, will lose their pro rate for the last six months.

By order of the Directors
 The manager of the cream station will accept payment. The Red Cloud local meets every Saturday evening at the Koontz building.

Methodist Church Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cummings received a message the first of the week from their son, Cecil, stating that he had landed in the United States and will soon be home.
 M. K. Quigley arrived this morning and has again resumed his old duties at the Chief office, where he and A. B. McArthur can now be found back on the job, ready to serve their many patrons in the job printing line, as well as issuing one of the best weekly papers, with which this county is blessed.—Commercial Advertiser.

Methodist Church Notes

On account of the misfortune of the city's light plant, vesper services were held at 5 o'clock last Sunday evening.

Dr. J. W. Embree will be with us on Thursday evening, and deliver an address to the church, after which he will hold the second quarterly conference.

The spirit of the Centenary is well put in the following acrostic that was used by a speaker recently:

C—Christ
 E—Enthroned
 N—Now
 T—Through E—Every
 N—Nation
 A—And
 R—Revealing
 Y—You
 Services next Sunday at Standard or better old time.

JOHN. D. HAMMEL Pastor

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES
 Preaching at 11 a. m. Standard time.

Sunday School at 10 a. m.
 Preaching Sunday evening if there are lights.

The Willing Workers will meet with Mrs. O. D. Hedge, Friday at 2:30 p. m.

The $125,000 for the Grand Island College with other contributions and gifts aggregating in all about $160,000 being assured we are ready to tackle the raising of our share, $100,000 to be raised by the Baptists of America to carry the gospel and soul liberty to the utmost parts of the earth. Fellow Baptist will it not be a pleasure to you to line up with more than seven million Baptist Brotherhood of America in this grand effort for the spread of God's kingdom?

RURAL SCHOOL NOTES

The eight grade county examinations will be held April 10th and 11th, and May 8th and 9th.

Miss Marie Hollister of district 41 expects to have a "carnival" at her school house on April 11th. Every one looking for a good time should attend.

Miss Edholm visited here last week in the interests of the Junior Red Cross and talked on "health."

A lady from the department of the Extension of Labor of the University held a conference with educational people, between trains, last week.

The fact that Nebraska ranks second among all states in the Union in the amount of manufacturing per employee, was brought out recently by the Bureau of Publicity, Omaha Chamber of Commerce, in a table of figures based on the 1914 Bureau of Census report.

The remains of Samuel H. Edwards, an uncle by marriage of Mrs. A. R. Saladen, arrived in this city Monday evening and funeral services were held on Wednesday, interment being made in the Pleasant Hill cemetery. The gentleman leaves four children to mourn his loss, three of whom accompanied the body here. He will be well and favorably remembered by many here, having resided on the O. R. Boyce farm, near Amboy, a number of years ago. Since leaving Webster county, he has lived in South Dakota, but he passed away at the home of a daughter in Sioux City, Iowa, where he was visiting, when taken ill with pneumonia, which resulted in death within a few days.—Commercial Advertiser.

Good meals—good service—moderate prices—Powell & Pope's cafe.

$6.00

In Trade at Hamilton-Cather

and

$6.00

In Trade at
 Cowden-Kaley's

For High Score
 At the Bowling Alley

At the Orpheum
 Monday and Tuesday

Gordon
 and Keith
 Hats

Better Hats for the Money than any othes in America
$2.50, $3, $3.50 to $6

All the new blocks and colors—Grey Green
 Bronze Green, Tan, Brown and Pearl
 Look well with either a KUPPENHEIMER or CLOTHCRAFT SUIT.
 Buy these splendid suits and get the best and save a few dollars in the bargain

We give service in all Mens and or Boys wearables
 The
The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.
 "ALWAYS RELIABLE"
 First Door North of the Post Office

BUILD NOW
 That New Home
 You have dreamed of for years.
 Our house plans are at your service free.
Malone-Gellatly Co.

Mr. and Mrs.
ED. AMACK
 UNDERTAKING
 Phone, Ind. Store 158, Res, 93 RED CLOUD, NEB.

FARM LOANS
 I am sole agent for Trevett, Mattis & Baker Co., and have placed $100,000.00 in farm loans between the months of November and March just past. Enough said.
 J. H. BAILEY

Herbert Myers, a son of one of our former Methodist ministers, visited friends in the city Thursday evening.
 The young man is a member of the state university which toured the state university week circuit last week.