RANKS WITH WORLD'S GREAT MEN OF SCIENCE PUZZLED

Achievements of Sir Isaac Newton Give Him an Assured Place Among Immortals.

According to a legend, which, however, is seriously considered by certain authorities, in the year 1665, the fall of an apple as Newton sat in his garden suggested the most magnificent of his subsequent discoveries—the law of universal gravitation. On his first attempt to explain the lunar and planetary motions, he employed an estimate then in use of the radius of the earth which, based on the value of a degree of latitude then prevalent, was so erroneous as to produce a discrepancy between the real force of gravity and that required by theory to explain the motions and indicated only an approximate verification of his theory. Accordingly, he abandoned for a number of years the hypothesis that a homogeneous attracting sphere behaved as if all matter was concentrated at its center, and took up other studies, consisting chiefly of investigations of the nature of light and the construction of telescopes. He also propounded new theories on light and color. Newton died March 20, 1727 (old style), and his remains were interred in Westminster abbey.

Japan in the War.
Japan entered the war because of a treaty with Great Britain, concluded in 1902. The original alliance preceded the Russo-Japanese war. In 1905 the alliance was further extended to provide for the defense of British interests in India and Afghanistan, while England agreed to give Japan a free hand in Korea. In 1911 it was again modified by the agreement that Great Britain should not be bound to aid Japan against any power with whom she had a treaty of arbitration—thus excluding the United States as a possible enemy. The alliance has been extended to 1921.

In a Fix.
"What are you puzzling over, John?" asked his wife.
"Why, that Mrs. Newrick gave the St. Bernard pup to writes asking if it should be fed on meat or dog biscuit."
"Well, on biscuit, shouldn't it?"
"Yes, but she spells biscuit with a 'k' and if I spelled the word right it might hurt her feelings."
"Oh, say meat, then."
"But she spells meat with two 'e's.'"

Find It Hard to Account for the Erratic Movements of Deep-Water Fish.

The erratic movements of fish are a constant source of worry to scientists, who, try as they will, can never account for the vagaries of these seaweeders. Here is a case in point: In May, 1879, the fishing schooner Hetchings, sailing from Gloucester, Mass., was under the command of Captain Kirby, trawling for cod off Nantucket. A strange fish came up in the nets, a large creature covered with yellow spots. The men caught over two tons and brought them to land, where they were found to be an entirely new family. Scientists named them "tile fish." For three years, till 1882, the fish were caught in huge numbers, then the "bankers" reported that they were no longer to be seen. The news came that the sea was covered with dead tile fish. Six thousand square miles of sea were almost hidden by the dead bodies. Authorities said that there must have been a volcanic disturbance or else some deadly disease had killed off the fish. In 1915 a schooner working in the same waters, caught the tile fish in abundance, and to this day the fish are there in millions.

Whiskers Reappearing.
A noticeable feature in masculine appearance is the increasing fashion of whiskers. At present they are only small affairs of the Albert variety, made popular by the prince consort. The whisker is no longer than two fingers' breadth, but there is no telling what dimensions these side products of the war may assume.
It is an army fashion, just as beards were an after-growth of the Crimea. The present whisker originated among officers whose right arm, stiff or impaired through wounds, cannot be raised easily to the level of the ear, and so prevents a clean shave to the top of the cheek.—London Chronicle.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 20 THE RISEN LORD.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 28:1-10.
GOLDEN TEXT—He is risen, as he said.—Matthew 28:6.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Luke 24: 1-10; John 20: 1-10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—An angel tells about the resurrection of Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The story of an empty tomb.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The living Christ.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The meaning of Christ's resurrection.

I. The Visit of the Women to the Sepulcher (28:1).
They came early to see the sepulcher. Their zeal and love exceeded that of even Peter, James and John. "Women were last at the cross and first at the tomb."
II. The Earthquake (28:2-4).
This occurred when the glorious angel descended to roll the stone away from the tomb. This work of the angel was not to allow Jesus to escape but to show that the tomb was empty. Christ needed not the help of a glorious angel, for he was raised up by his own power as the seal of his atoning work upon the cross. The open tomb and the angel sitting upon the stone with calm dignity is a picture of God's triumph over the devil, and the terror of the keepers is a sample of what all of Christ's enemies shall one day experience when he comes in glory to reign as king.
III. The Angel's Message to the Women (28:5-7).
1. "Fear not" (v. 5). While the enemies have occasion to fear, those who love the Lord receive good news from the empty tomb. The Lord will not long leave those who follow him, in suspense and dread. The empty tomb puts an end to all doubts and fears. It is the proof that the question of sin is dealt with and that God is satisfied, carrying with it the assurance of eternal victory.
2. "Come see" (v. 6). The angel said that the Lord had risen, and invited the women to see the place where he lay.
3. "Come quickly" (v. 7). The women must see for themselves and then go to tell the message. Experience must precede testimony. They were to go quickly to the disciples with the blessed message, with the assurance that the Lord would go before and meet them.
IV. Jesus Meets the Women (28:8-10).
The women rendered instant obedience and were running to bring word to the disciples. Jesus met them on the way. Those who have an experimental knowledge of Christ should speedily go to tell others of it. To all such the Lord will appear and bring joy.
V. What Christ's Resurrection Guarantees to Us (1 Cor. 15).
1. The integrity of the Scriptures (vv. 3, 4). The Old Testament Scriptures told of the advent, death and resurrection of Christ. Christ's resurrection gave the seal of authentication to them. Christ rebuked the disciples on the way to Emmaus for their disbelief of the Scriptures concerning the resurrection (Luke 24:13-26).
2. The reality of the divine person (Rom. 1:4). Jesus claimed to be one with the Father. He predicted his coming forth from the dead (Matt. 16:21). He declared that no one could take his life from him. He had power to lay his life down and take it up again (John 10:15-18). He died because he willed to do so. The life which he laid down must be resumed at the completion of his sacrificial work. His coming forth from the grave proved that he was what he had claimed to be.
3. The sufficiency of Christ's atoning sacrifice (Rom. 4:25). On the cross Christ exclaimed, "It is finished." By the resurrection God declared to the universe that an adequate remedy for sin had been provided. The resurrection of Christ is God's certificate that an adequate sacrifice has been provided for sin.
4. Our life and immortality (1 Cor. 15:20). He is the first fruits of them that slept. "Because I live ye shall live also." The guarantee that man in the integrity of his being spirit, soul and body shall live again is furnished us in Christ's death and resurrection.

Promoting Happiness.
God has given understanding to man, to be employed for his glory in promoting the happiness of his creatures; and in nothing that belongs to earth can the human understanding be more worthily employed than in the researches of science and in the works of invention.—Chief Justice Chase.

Absorbing the Bible.
Reading God's Word is one thing; to look at it in the right light is another. It is like this: A man may see the figures on the dial, but he cannot tell how the day goes unless the sun shines on the dial. So, also, is reading the Bible—unless the spirit shines within our hearts it is likely that we will not get the correct interpretation.

Lord Never Forgets.

WOMAN NOW HAS TWO HUSBANDS

Marries Again After Death of Soldier Spouse Is Reported.

CLAIMED BY TWO MEN

First Mate, Reported Killed in Battle, Returns From France—Second Lover Refuses to Give Up War Bride.

Fullerton, Pa.—On a little farm near here Mrs. Miles Roth-Smith, who has two living husbands, is trying to solve a most difficult problem. Her first husband, Miles Roth, who had been reported killed in action overseas, is alive and has returned to the United States, while William Smith, the friend of the family, whom she married when she believed herself to be a widow, is in Camp Humphreys, Va., waiting for his discharge from service.
"She's a good girl," Roth said when informed of the strange matrimonial situation. He admitted that mixups are bound to occur.
"She's my wife. I'll never give her up," declares Smith.

"I don't know what I shall do," says the wife. "No girl ever loved a man better than I did when Miles asked me to be his wife."
The Matrimonial Tangle.
Roth was a member of the National Guard when war was declared. He responded to the call to the colors and soon arrived in France. One day a German shell exploded near the camp kitchen. Roth was a cook. Three of his companions were killed and he was seriously wounded. Roth was removed to a hospital. His condition was so critical that he could not write home. After he had partly recovered, Roth was invalided back to the United States. When he arrived in Allentown, Pa., his former home, he received word that his wife had married in his absence. He returned to a hospital.

It was one day last summer that Mrs. Roth received word that her husband had been killed. Then Smith began to help her in her financial difficulties. Later he asked Mrs. Roth to be his wife, assuring her that he would be a second father to her two small children. They were married a few days before her second husband was ordered to camp with a contingent of drafted men.

"I Don't Know What I Shall Do."
"Both Good Men," Said Wife.
"My second husband was in camp when I heard that my first husband had come back from the war," she said. "I love my second husband and he loves me. They're both good men. I wish there were two of me so one could be made happy with each. I don't think any other woman ever had to face what I do now. I am glad that Miles didn't die."

The people of Fullerton are busy talking about the modern Enoch Arden. Some think he ought to come back and claim his wife. Others believe he ought to have gone away without letting his wife know he had come back.
FUN CURE FOR PARALYSIS
Iowa Doctor Told Victim a Yarn and He Sat Up and Laughed.
Sioux City, Ia.—T. W. Caldwell, who is known as "Happy Cal," former mayor of Sioux City and for a third of a century engaged in newspaper work here, had a stroke of paralysis last week.
He was found lying on the street near his home and it was thought he was dead. Signs of life showed, however, and he was hurried to a hospital, but it was believed he could not recover, largely on account of his advanced age. He is 72 years old.
However, "Happy Cal" fooled 'em. The physician called to attend him had known him for years. While ministering to his apparently unconscious patient the physician related a funny story to other attendants. It was so funny that "Cal" laughed.
"Ha, ha, haw," he shouted, "that's a good one."
He is now around as usual, showing none of the ill effects of his experience.

THIS LIFE MERE PATCHWORK

Pleasant to Think That in the By-and-By All Things Will Have Full Completion.

Life at best seems only a patchwork. By the time the artist learns to paint a picture which is considered worth while, his hand has become shaky, nervous or palsied and he cannot paint the thing in his heart for which, all his life, he had been preparing. By the time the business man has earned enough money to keep him in comfort for the rest of his days he has often lost the capacity to enjoy the fruits of his labor. When the mother has raised her boy to manhood her offspring leaves her for the sake of someone he loves better, and by the time the man learns to really appreciate his mother she is taken from him. Nothing seems ever quite finished, quite mature, quite as it should be in this world. Perhaps in the by-and-by on another planet we shall all find that every incomplete thought and work of our lives has been fitted into the completed temple of life which we may then inhabit forever.—Los Angeles Times.

Health Was Shattered

Mrs. Hayes Was Discouraged Until Doan's Made Her Well.

"I was in awful shape from kidney trouble," says Mrs. Frank Hayes, 42 Dover St., Boston, Mass. "When I got up out of a chair, I felt as though someone had stuck a knife into the small of my back and it fairly took my breath away."
"The kidney secretions passed often and only a little at a time. They were so scalding I would scream so I believe I could be heard a block away. They deposited brick-dust-like sediment and their odor was something awful. My complexion became sallow and I had large pits under my eyes."

"I was troubled with spells of gasping for breath and had such dizzy attacks I often fell right over. Spots floated before my eyes and I got so nervous I couldn't stand any noise. I cried over nothing at all, became irritable and imagined all sorts of things. My health was shattered and I became discouraged."
"I continued to grow worse in spite of any treatment and came pretty near dying several times. After several months of this horror, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills. I used a dozen boxes of Doan's and was cured. I was entirely well and have enjoyed good health ever since."

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—headaches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.
Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloated out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day, and see how much better you will feel.
