A. F. OF L. "WETS" DEMONSTRATE IN WASHINGTON

Thousands of "wets" from the American Federation of Labor convention, led by President Gompers, held a great demonstration on the east front of the capitol in Washington the other day to express their disapproval of the prohibition of beer and light wines. Representative C. H. Randall of California, seen in a Paim Beach suit, was the only prohibitionist in the delegation who mingled with the "wets" and voted against them in the meeting.

This is the international bridge at El Paso, Tex., over which nearly 4,000 United States troops crossed to Juarez. where they put to flight the Villa forces that were attacking that city and incidentally sending bullets across the border that killed and wounded a number of Americans. At the right is Col. S. R. H. Tompkins, who commanded the U. S. 'nfantry and cavalry.

Are Here Told the Best Remedy for Their Troubles.

For A near a roubles. Freemont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change — heat flashes, mervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disap-pearcd."—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

North Haven, Conn.—"Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegeta-ble Compound restored my health after everything else had failed when passing through change of life. There is nothing like it to evercome the trying symptoms." —Mrs. FLORENCE ISELLA, Box 197, North Haven, Conn.

Limpet's Peculiar Power.

"To stick like a limpet," is an old saying, but few people know how it is that a limpet is able to stick as it does to the rocks upon which it passes its existence. The creature is able by means of the central portion of its body, which can be raised independently of the edge or frill which surrounds it, to create a vacuum, much in the same way that a piece of soft, wet leather can be made to adhere to a smooth surface by pressing out all the air. If taken by surprise with a smart, sidelong blow, even a large limpet is easily enough dislodged, but of suction is instantly brought into force is then necessary to detach it.

"But I am not anxious to sell it yet for dissection," Datas told a writer for London Tit-Bits the other day. "It is worth more to me than £2,000." Datas has lately been devouring war facts and had just added a couple of thousand in two and a half hours to his repertoire when we met.

"For an outlay of twopence," he said, "I bought a little book on a bookstall, called 'Two Thousand Facts About the War.' I bought it and read the list through in two and a half hours and then knew it by heart."

There is no doubt about it. I tested Datas with the book in my hand, and no matter what question I asked him-dates of battles, air raids, names of ships sunk, famous generals' careers-he answered them without hesitation, says the writer.

Datas has had many amusing and curious experiences, but the most extraordinary was the friendly dinner he
