

Perfect Satisfaction

That is what every owner of a South Bend Malleable has to say about this wonderful Range

And why shouldn't they? South Bends are backed by the maker and dealer. They're sold to you on guarantee of "Satisfaction or Your Money Back"

Realizing that tastes differ in the selection of ranges as well as in dry goods, wearing apparel, etc., we have in addition to our South Bends another Range. Knowing that we must secure a range that would satisfy we entered upon the task of looking into the qualities of the many other ranges on the market and after months of careful investigation have decided to accept the Copper-Clad. They are now on our floor ready for your inspection. COME IN.

BIG EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION AT OUR CHAUTAUQUA.

Management Announces Arrangements Completed, Assuring Presence of Former Army "Stunt-Flying" Instructor—"The Flying Parson."

With the exception of picking out a good landing place for the "flying parson" to light the arrangements are complete for the coming of the preacher who turned birdman for the love of his country when the need came. He says, although he is a minister and has a family, he considered his life of no more value than that of any other citizen, so he enlisted in the flying corps. At one time or another he was stationed at nearly all the big camps, took his courses in regular flying, aerial gunnery, reconnaissance, etc., and

HEY! LOOK AT THAT!

Here is a very unusual picture of the celebrated quartette known as the Amphion Four, organized by R. H. Richards, the well-known Welsh tenor of Sidney, Ohio. We do not know whether they have just discovered that they sing at the Chautauqua in our city or whether they have located a fat apple pie sitting out on a window some place to cool. The big tall fellow at the end looks like he is afraid of whatever it is, but you needn't worry about him—he isn't afraid of anything when it comes to cornet solos, for he is one of the good ones in the business. When it comes to singing they are just like they look, right on tiptoe. You can tell by looking at them that there will be something doing every minute of their program.

DR. AMAURY MARS

Noted French Physician Orator Secured for Chautauqua.

Dr. Amaury Mars, although an American citizen, is today the greatest French orator in the United States. He lectured in French for a French society in Massachusetts; set all Washington talking by his English lectures regarding his experience as an American while held a prisoner for three years in a Luxemburg prison camp; and by a German lecture in North Dakota extracted over two thousand dollars from the pockets of a German audience there for the Red Cross. He is a grandson of the Marquis de St. Mars, and was in Luxemburg at the beginning of the war to settle a family estate, where in spite of his American citizenship he was condemned to death as a French spy; but finally removed to a civilian prison camp and made camp doctor, he poisoned two officers and killed four guards in making his successful escape, bringing valuable information to the government at Washington. After completing his medical course in Paris he continued special medical investigations in both Germany and Russia, and is peculiarly fitted to discuss the present great constructive problems confronting America. "Eloquent," "dramatic," "thrilling"—these are the words the papers use to describe his addresses.
