

CORNELL BOYS PARADE FOR ENDOWMENT FUND

"Feed the Profs"—$125,000 will feed a professor and his family for a million years," is the slogan adopted by the Cornell university students who are helping the Cornell alumni in their national campaign to raise a $5,000,000 endowment fund which will be used to increase the salaries of the faculty. The football squad and the undergraduate body held a "parade" before the Cornell-Williams football game at Ithaca in the interests of the drive.

GERMANY'S TREASURE HOUSE BEING DEMOLISHED

The fort of Spandau, in accordance with the terms dictated by the armistice, is being demolished by the Germans. Women are doing most of the work, the stones when loosened being piled up with care for later use in the erection of dwellings. Spandau is the famous treasure house of Germany. In this great fort were kept tons of gold collected for just such a war as has been lately declared ended.

Subscription Rates to Suit.

A Malabar newspaper has devised a novel and suggestive scheme of subscription rates. Public officers, reading rooms, seminaries, "rajahs and gentlemen," with monthly incomes under 400 rupees, are considered as class one, and pay a yearly subscription of 18 rupees for the paper. If your monthly income exceeds 100 rupees and does not exceed 400, you are in class two, and pay only 12 rupees yearly. If, however, you are in neither of the two classes mentioned, or are a student, then you are let off with a subscription of nine rupees. The paper is appropriately named The Reformer, and it would be interesting to know how this particular piece of reformation is received by subscribers.

Jocular Magistrate.

"Ten days or $5," said the magistrate, and the prisoner, a sullen looking fellow, paid the fine and was discharged. He walked moodily out of the courtroom, but when he reached the door he turned and showered a wholesale tirade of profane abuse upon the magistrate. Then he ran to the corridor, but before he could reach the street the officer gave chase. He was captured and stood again at the bar. "Five dollars more," said the magistrate.

The money was paid. "If you had used more chaste and refined language," the magistrate continued, waving the fellow away, "you would not have been chased and refined."

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 9

PETER'S GREAT CONFESSION.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 16:13-24. GOLDEN TEXT—"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."—Matt. 16:16. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 8:27-33; Luke 9:18-22; John 6:66-69. PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Confessed. INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—What It Means to Confess Christ. SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The Messiahship of Jesus.

The time has now come for the King to take account of his ministry.

This confession in some sense marks the turning point in Christ's ministry. Hereafter it is more restricted to his disciples. Two reasons are sufficient why this should be (vv. 1-12): (1) The Pharisees and Sadducees show their attitude towards him in their demand for a sign. His answer is that none shall be given save that of his death and resurrection, as symbolized in the experiences of the Prophet Jonah. (2) The disciples show their inability to understand the spiritual nature of his teaching. When he warned them of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees they understood him to refer to bread, when he meant their doctrine. It was at this crisis when Christ turned from the nation which had rejected him, that Peter made this great confession. It was made in the borders of Caesarea-Philippi, practically Gentile territory.

I. Peter's Confession (vv. 13-16).

Two questions of Christ provoked this confession:

1. The question as to the opinion of the people concerning him.

They recognized him as a teacher or a prophet of more than human authority and power. Today, as then, there is a diversity of opinion among the people as to Jesus Christ. Some think he is only a man; others, that he is a great teacher, but nothing more. Had he been content with this he would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged him as more than a human teacher. It was his persistent claim to be the God-man, the Son of God, that sent him to the cross.

2. The second question involved the personal opinion of the disciples concerning him. To be able to tell what others think of Jesus is not enough; there must be definite, correct, and personal belief in him.

II. The New Body, the Church, Announced (vv. 17-20).

Peter had made a noble confession of Christ, so now Christ confesses him. If we confess Christ he will confess us (Matt. 10:32, 33). Christ declared his intention of bringing into existence a new body to the members of which he will give eternal life, and to whose hands he will entrust the keys of the Kingdom. Peter was to have a distinguished place in this body. The keys entrusted to him were used on the day of Pentecost, and again in the case of Cornelius. Association in this new body cannot be broken by death, for the gates of hades shall not prevail against it. This body, the church, is of a heavenly origin, a heavenly calling, and a heavenly inheritance.

III. The Cross the Way to the Throne (vv. 21-33).

This was, no doubt, startling to the disciples. They did not realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion of the cross. So unwelcome was this announcement that Peter cried, "This shall not be unto thee." Peter later saw through this darkness to the glory on the hill-top beyond. A new hope then filled his breast (1 Peter 1:3, 4). Victory through death is yet the stumbling block of many. Many are stumbling over the doctrine of salvation and redemption through the suffering of the cross. All such are under the control of the devil (v. 23). Salvation by blood, the devil hates.

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (vv. 24-27).

To follow Christ means suffering. To follow him is to turn one's back upon the world. Life can only be saved by losing it. If we are going to be Christians we must share Christ's suffering. We cannot go to heaven on flowery beds of ease.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 24). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. Self-denial is practiced everywhere by all people, but only the disciples of Christ or Christian people deny self. Christ takes the place of self.

2. "Take up his cross." This cross is the suffering and shame which lie in the path of loyalty to God. To do our duty will mean suffering (2 Tim. 3:12).

3. Follow Christ. This means to have the mind of Christ, to do like Christ. All such shall be rewarded when Christ comes in glory.

Christian Character.

One truly Christian life will do more to prove the divine origin of Christianity than many lectures. It is of much greater importance to develop Christian character than to exhibit Christian evidences.—J. M. Gibson.

LORD TOLD HER TO MURDER FATHER

Sixteen-Year-Old Daughter Puts Fatal End to Family Quarrel.

Philadelphia.—"The Lord told me to do it as I lay in bed." This reason has been advanced to the authorities for her act by sixteen-year-old Clara Bartell, daughter of a railroad signalman of Edgewood, who shot and instantly killed her parent.

The first news of the tragedy came when a physician was called to the Bartell home. He found Bartell lying on the floor, sprawled face downward, with a gaping wound in the chest just below the shoulder blade. The full force of a charge of shot had struck him, and death was instantaneous. The victim's wife, almost insane from grief, and his four children still were in the house and seemed too dazed to give a coherent story.

State policemen soon were on the scene and finally obtained some details of the tragedy. According to the wife and other children, whose story later was sobbingly substantiated by Clara, the father came home from work in the morning, and at breakfast an argument, which frequently occurred in the family relative to moving to Philadelphia, broke out again.

The children wanted to live in Philadelphia where they could have the advantages of better educational and social surroundings, the mother said, but the father opposed the suggestion, maintaining that the morals of young people too often are ruined in the cities.

Argument was especially vehement, the mother said, and was principally between the father and the daughter, Clara. Finally, becoming enraged, Clara is said to have stepped backward, picked up a shotgun and pulled the trigger. The weapon was fired at close range, and Bartell sank to the floor without a word.

Further investigation convinced the authorities that there were inconsistencies in the story and Clara again was questioned. She finally blurted out:

"The Lord told me to do it last night, while I was in bed."

Attempt at Cave Man Stunt Ends in Arrest

Portland, Ore.—Old John Law is always spoiling romance. Just when Ernest Fix tried to pull a cave-man stunt and fix it up for him and Miss Wally Engle to wed, the bride-to-be went and had him arrested.

"He used to sit on my front porch with a gun and threaten to kill me unless I married him," she told the court. Then Ernest, who is 17 years old, was held under $2,000 bonds for investigation by the grand jury.

BROKE JAIL FOR MOTHER

Trusty Later Wrote Sheriff That He Would Return and Finish Term After Paying Debt.

Carthage, Mo.—After demonstrating that he could be given the privilege of a trusty, Homer Parrish, a model prisoner in the town jail, was placed on the list of men given the freedom of the building. One night Parrish failed to answer the roll call and it was discovered that he had escaped.

A few days later the sheriff received a letter from the former inmate. It read:

"My mother needs my help just now. A mortgage will soon be due on her home and I am going to help to earn the money to meet the notes. As soon as I have done that I will return and finish my term."

County officers decided that Parrish at least made his getaway for a commendable purpose and they have reached the conclusion to give him a chance to assist his mother. The case is without a parallel in criminal annals of the state.

A KANSAS WOMAN Run-down—Nervous, Weak

Kansas City, Kans.—"I found Dr. Pierce's medicine a wonderful help to me during middle life. At that time I became all run-down, nervous and was weak. I would have smothering and dizzy spells so bad that I could not stand up and my back would ache terribly all the time. I took both Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and these medicines built me up, gave me strength, and brought me through the change in the best of health. I am glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines, for I know they are good."—MRS. GEORGE JACOBS, R. Route 3.

MOTHERS

Bushong, Kans.—"I am the mother of four children and from my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I fully appreciate its value and can highly recommend it to prospective mothers as it helps to alleviate one's suffering. During my first expectancy I suffered untold pains, as the second time I was determined that I would avail myself of some means to lessen the agony, and I can say without any hesitation that the 'Favorite Prescription' carried me through that trying time with all the desired ease and comfort. Later on, however, I made a grievous mistake in believing that I could dispense with the 'Favorite Prescription' during motherhood and I did so to my sorrow. It will always be my stand-by hereafter.

"I hope that through this statement some other woman may be relieved of the dread of motherhood."—MRS. V. W. ROWLEY, Route 1.
