UTRECHT'S PLACE IN HISTORY

Dutch Town, in Which Kaiser May Dwell, Saw Beginning of His Line's Rise to Power.

Reports say that the ex-kaiser has purchased a house near the historic town of Utrecht, Holland, and that he wishes to end his days there. It was in Utrecht, 206 years ago, that the house of Hohenzollern was first established in royal rank.

It was in the peace concluded in 1713 that the ex-emperor's ancestor, Frederick of Brandenburg, received acknowledgment from the leading European powers of his title of king of Prussia. This peace put an end to the long war of the Spanish succession, which many claim was begun over the fear that the ruling houses of France and Spain would become one, and upset the European balance of power. The ex-kaiser is part English, and it was England, with her continental allies of lesser strength, that virtually established the kingdom of Prussia.

The same peace also made the duke of Savoy the king of Italy, but today the king of Italy rules over all of Italy except Savoy, which belongs to France. England has retained practically everything it secured at that peace conference, including Gibraltar and Minorca, secured from Spain; Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the Hudson bay territory from France as well as valuable trading privileges in Africa and South America, from both France and Spain.

The real test of the song's popularity is the parody.

RELIEVED MIND OF HOSTESS

California Newspaper Man Proved Himself a Diplomat in Situation That Called for Tact.

While a Los Angeles publisher was abroad, a few months ago with a newspaper crowd, he was invited, with the rest of the party, to dine with a duke and duchess who were burdened with a double last name, such as Kelly-Angus.

The Californian was in an awful stew from the time the dinner started as to how he should address the hostess in case he fell into conversation with her, but finally, when the opportunity came, he proved himself every inch a diplomat.

The duchess, it seems, was apologizing for the dinner not being more formal, or something like that, and the newspaper man, desiring to make her feel at ease, just reached his right hand across the table, took the hostess by the hand, and said: "Oh, that's all right, Mrs. Kelly, all of us like good home cooking."—Washington Star.

The trouble with the man who doesn't know anything is that he is always telling it to others.

BRITISH DUPED BY AN ADVENTURESS

Men Led to Give Life Savings to Girl and to Desert Her at Altar.

NOT EVEN BEAUTIFUL

Found Smaller Towns of England Were Fruitful Fields for Her Operations—Faked War Adventures.

London.—A rare and picturesque person—an adventuress who was not beautiful—has finally brought her multitudinous and successful ventures to the attention of the British police after many years of perfectly safe operation.

She is known as Masie Crawford, and she found the smaller towns of England all too ready to believe the old dictum that Americans must inevitably be wealthy, for her most successful operations were conducted playing these parts:

Daughter and heiress of Harry Thaw.

Wife of George Crawford, American millionaire, whom she divorced in order to marry his brother.

Widow of Walter Crawford, the brother, who died leaving a peculiar will stipulating that she should marry "outside the family."

To Desert at Altar.

A working man, who was helping the girl obtain the mythical fortune of Walter Crawford, mythical American millionaire, by agreeing to marry her, and leave her at the church door, thus complying with the terms of the will, brought downfall and police investigation.

As the daughter of Harry Thaw, Masie Crawford had moved through many English towns, finding welcome and easy money from some of the hardest fisted folk of the British Islands.

Despite the fact that she is slender, of childish figure, with a slight hump on her back and small features, she was able, by brilliant conversational gifts and a bearing that spoke "class" at every minute to win instant belief no matter how fictitious her "life" happened to be at the moment.

She was always beautifully dressed and she passed through so many various "characters" in the course of her swindling expeditions that the most careful police investigations after

She Was Able to Win Instant Belief, her arrest have failed to reveal a single tangible fact regarding her real identity and antecedents.

Throughout she looked and acted the part she played.

Faked War Adventures.

The girl descended upon Woking, in Surrey, in military uniform, brimful of daredevil adventures at the front as driver of staff cars and of machines which had taken secret messengers on many dangerous missions.

Back of this was Walter Crawford and his peculiar will. She was destitute. Her properties in Canada would bring huge sums if she could realize on them. Wonderful how many perfectly sane persons helped her! Her landlady even mortgaged her home. A garage owner depleted his bank account and borrowed because he was to marry her and part at the church door and get $2,500 a year for life for parting.

FOGGY?

If Bilious, Constipated or Headachy take "Cascarets."

Tomorrow the sun will shine for you. Everything will seem clear, rosy and bright. Your system is filled with liver and bowel poison which keeps your skin sallow, your stomach upset, your head foggy and aching. Your meals are turning into poison, gases and acids. You cannot feel right. Don't stay bilious or constipated. Feel splendid always by taking Cascarets occasionally. They act without griping or inconvenience. They never sicken you like Calomel, Salts, Oil or nasty, harsh pills. They cost so little too—Cascarets work while you sleep.—Adv.

Night-Time—How to See It.

Radium paint is not the only thing that will illuminate a watch on a dark night. So saith Benjamin F. Lockwood, somewhat defiantly, for he has just invented a decidedly complicated device for so doing.

In the first place, you must wear a motorist's glove; then you attach your watch to the back of the cuff; next you adjust the bulb and shade so the watch is illuminated. A battery is tucked in the side of the glove and wires run around until they terminate in two contact points in the thumb and first finger.

When you wish to see the time, act as if you were pinching some one and the lamp will light.—Popular Science Monthly.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

Talking of Weather.

Patrice—When Percy proposed to Peggy he told her she'd see no more clouds, no more storms, in her life; he intended that all should be sunshine for her.

Alice—That's so much like Percy. He never could talk about anything but the weather.

When a bachelor meets the right girl he is apt to discover that he is the wrong man.

Of two evils always choose the one you might get away with.

Unique Shipping Condition.

During 1918, for the first time in the history of Norwegian shipping, the number of foreign vessels entering and clearing at Norwegian ports was greater than those of national registry. This was due to war conditions. A great number of Norwegian vessels had been chartered by the allies for overseas service, and the blockade and general restrictions growing out of it had reduced both imports and exports to a very small figure compared with the records of previous years. The percentage of vessels of national registry in the Norwegian carrying trade of 1918 was only 31.6, as compared with 50.2 in 1917 and 50.7 in 1913.

His Lack of Consideration.

"My boss ain't got no respect at all for his help!" grumbled Farmer Flint's hired man. "Why, consarn him, he'd just as quick call me a fool as he would his own son-in-law!"—Kansas City Star.

His Choice.

"What drink would you offer an electrician?" "I suppose he would prefer currant wine."

Scandal is the black sheep of the family of friendship.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? BETTER LOOK OUT!

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you, slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1896 the govern-

MY HEAD!

When the head feels thick or aches, when one feels all out-of-sorts—perhaps a coated tongue—it is the signal that poisons are accumulating in the system, and should be cleaned out at once.

Sleeplessness after meals, biliousness, distress, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, offensive breath and allied ailments result from auto-intoxication or self-poisoning.

Take castor oil, or procure at the drug store, a pleasant vegetable laxative, called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, composed of May-apple, aloes and jalap.

Kansas City, Kans.—"Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have been my favorite family medicine for many years. I raised quite a large family and from the time my children were small I always gave them the 'Pleasant Pellets.' They were easy to take and pleasant in every way, never causing distress. For sluggish liver, sick-headaches, constipation or biliousness there is no medicine that can equal the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I found them a great help to me in bringing up my family in as much as they have many times warded off sick spells my children would otherwise have had."—MRS. MARY E. BRADLEY, 932 Homer Ave.
