Attention Breeders

The Cambridge Breeders Hereford sale to be held at Cambridge, Nebr., Dec. 16, 1919, will present an opportunity never before offered in this locality to secure some valuable Hereford seed stock at bargain prices. On account of the large number consigned, fancy prices cannot be expected and those who fail to avail themselves of this bargain counter sale will be disappointed. The old breeder will have a splendid chance to add new blood to his herd and the young breeder who contemplates starting a new herd will have the unprecedented privilege of selecting some choice individuals that are strong in Anxiety 4th blood.

This is an exceptional offering for the reason that the consignments consist of so many good matrons with calves by their side and re-bred to the best Anxiety 4th bulls in the world. The produce of the cow will in most cases pay the bill for the entire lot. Space forbids us going into detail regarding this splendid draft of cattle, however the manager will be pleased to answer all enquiries and mail you your copy of the catalog.

Our sale pavilion had been remodeled and will be warm and comfortable on sale day, regardless of the weather conditions.
