WHAT A BANK SHOULD BE

Capital and Surplus $35,000.00

THE RELATION BETWEEN A BANK and its depositors is different from that between other lines of business and their customers. And a bank can be useful to its clients beyond the mere depositing, paying and lending of money. A bank stands in confidential relation to its depositors. It has opportunities to help them and opportunities to take advantage of them. It becomes familiar with their financial transactions. It knows what deals they are planning and making. Not only their money but their business secrets are in its hands for safekeeping. Further, the bank is the support behind the man, upon which he can call for help.

Your bank, to be really useful, should be honorable; strong enough to furnish help when needed.

The Sister's Faith

The following appeared a few days ago in the "State Register" of Springfield, Ill.:

"Many are the stories of Henry Ford and his popular automobile, but Hillsboro is relating what it calls the best of the season, and the facts in the case are true. It happened in one of the leading churches of the city that the pastor took for the text of his sermon, 'Better Church Attendance'.

"The pastor held that the automobile has taken more people away from church than other things. He concluded with the exclamation: 'The Ford car has taken more people to hell than any other thing that I can mention!' Whereupon an old lady in the congregation began to clap her hands and sang 'Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!'

"What's the matter sister?" asked the pastor.

"The Ford never went any place that it couldn't make the round trip, and I am sure that all of those people in hell will be back, she answered. So praise the Lord."

Baptist Church Notes

Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by a business meeting.

Rev. A. L. Harper, of Caneyville, Mo., delivered a very inspiring Gospel sermon both Sunday afternoon and Monday evening which was appreciated by those that heard him.

Bro. V. M. Harper was able to attend church Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Bessie and Pearl Brown of Council Bluffs, Iowa are visiting their grandfather, V. M. Harper, and other relatives in the vicinity of River-ton.

It has not been possible until now to publish the final results of the financial campaign for the Grand Island College but we can now say that it has gone over the top. The total amount pledged is $128,784.43, to this should be added $37,425 which has been given in the form of annuities and $12,500 pledged by the Northern Baptist Board of Education which makes a grand total of $178,709.43.

Red Cloud having gone over the top is on the honor roll, quota $363 pledged $180.

Obtain Oil From Eggs.

The turtle living in the Orinoco lake eggs which are extraordinarily rich in oil. The Indians in British Guiana collect 25,000,000 yearly for making oil. The eggs of many sea birds are excellent eating. The best of the lot is said to be that of the "mourne," a bird which is very common on the Labrador coast.

RESOLVED—

We are all too much given to the idea that a New Year's resolution should be a 'swearing off' rather than a 'swearing on'—that we should give up something we have, rather than acquiring something we have not.

Most New Year's resolutions contemplate things ethical or moral. Why not things material? Why not resolve to avail ourselves of more of the good things of life?

We are living in the most prosperous country on earth, and we shall have only ourselves to blame if we fail to take advantage of the many good things designed to add to our material comfort and human happiness.

Let your first New Year's resolution be to purchase the household articles that you have been needing.

A South Bend Range will make cooking and baking a pleasure. Come in and see it.

Everything that is usually found in a first class hardware store is included in our stock.

CHAS. L. COTTING 'The Druggist'

Hadn't Quite Understood.

Much amusement was created in a Melbourne (Australia) criminal court recently when a slightly deaf juror was being sworn. The judge repeated to him the words, "I swear by Almighty God so to do." Whereon the juror declared, "I swear by Almighty God I'm sorry for you!"

Wise Man Is Patient.

A physician is not angry at the intemperance of a mad patient, nor does he take it ill to be rattled at by a man in a fever. Just so should a wise man treat all mankind, as a physician treats a patient, and look upon them only as sick and extravagant.—Seneca.
