

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When lifting I had such pain and bearing down that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and they are fine. Everything used to turn sour on my stomach and the Liver Pills relieved that."—Mrs. A. Rogers, 693 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sacramento, Calif.—"I had organic trouble and had such terrible pain and swelling in the lower part of my side that I could not sit on my feet or even let the bed clothes touch my side. I gave up my work thinking I would not be able to go back for months. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it had saved her life at one time, and it put me in a wonderful condition in a couple of weeks, so I can keep on working. I work in a department store and have to stand on my feet all day and I do not have any more pains. I surely recommend your Vegetable Compound to all my friends and you may use these facts as testimonials."—Bertha J. Parker, 5320 M St., Sacramento, Calif.

GIRL, 13, SEES FAMILY SLAIN

Claims Moonshiner Beau of Sister Committed Quadruple Murder.

ONLY ONE ESCAPES

Facing Trial for Attack on Girl, Man Is Believed to Have Planned to Wipe Out Whole Family.

Amory, Miss.—Charlie Marshall, moonshiner and backwoods beau, is under heavy guard in the jail at Aberdeen, charged with the most brutal quadruple murder ever known in this section.

For, when they buried the charred and shattered bodies of Fannie Green Miller, who had been Marshall's sweetheart; her eight-months-old baby, Turley, said to have been Marshall's son; Robert Miller, Fannie's father, and Leonard, her brother, sixteen, the stage was set for the lynching of Charlie Marshall.

Pearl Miller, thirteen, the only surviving member of the family, says that she watched Charlie Marshall at the hideous task of slaughtering the four victims of the swampland tragedy.

The belief of the countryside is that Charlie Marshall, facing trial shortly for an attack on Fannie Miller, planned to dodge this trial by wiping out the whole Miller family, and that the escape of the thirteen-year-old girl upset this plan.

From miles about the lean and swarthy dwellers of the bottom country drove in with their womenfolk seated in chairs in the boxes of the lumber wagons to discuss in shocked whispers what had been done in the blackness of a stormy night. There were ominous bulges under homespun shirts; there were well-worn shotgun and rifles under the wagon seats.

Sheriff John B. Lewis fled from Amory with his prisoner in an automobile and saved Marshall from the vengeance of the countryside.

There was much talk in the Tom Bigbee bottom about the Miller family and Charlie Marshall. Fannie Miller had known Marshall all her life, but started "keeping company" with him three years ago, when he "saw her home" from a circuit rider's meeting. She was fifteen then, and Marshall twice her age.

Tells Father of Attack.

About eighteen months ago the girl returned one evening and tore up Marshall's picture, scattering the fragments in the fireplace.

Her mother died 12 years ago, and in the lonely farmhouse Fannie had no one to whom she could confide.

Later she was compelled to tell her father what had happened. She said that Marshall had seized her as she was walking with him in a field, and had dragged her into a cranberry bog, smothering her cries by pressing his hand over her mouth.

Robert Miller had his three motherless children to care for, one of them needing him more desperately than ever, so he determined to let the law take its course. He had Marshall arrested. Marshall said he was innocent of the girl's charges and his trial was to have been held at the next term of court.

According to Pearl Miller's story, which she tells with the self-control of a strong-minded adult, Marshall entered her home after her father, brother and sister had been shot down and the home dynamited. He clubbed to death the baby crawling on the floor beside its dead mother, soaked the place with oil and set fire to it as Pearl fled through the loft and ran, with a sprained ankle, over a mile of flooded fields to the home of a neighbor.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. E. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) (Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR MARCH 28

REVIEW: THE LIFE WORK OF PETER AND JOHN.

SELECTION FOR READING—Rev. 21: 21-22.

GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.—Matt. 28: 19, 20.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—John 1: 12; 2: 15-24; 1 Peter 1: 2; 1 John 1: 1-4.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Stories About Peter (Acts 2: 14-17, 21-23).

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter and John Winning Others to Christ (material of last quarter).

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Peter and John Compared and Contrasted.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Contribution of Peter and John to Christian History.

The review of the quarter's lessons can be profitably made to center in the service of Peter and John, or perhaps better, the activity and power of the risen and ascended Christ manifest in the service of Peter and John.

Lesson 1. Peter Preaches at Pentecost (Acts 2).

Peter proves that Jesus Christ arose from the dead, ascended on high and poured forth the Holy Spirit upon the church; the evidence of it was the unusual behavior of the disciples.

Lesson 2. Peter and John Heal a Lame Man (Acts 3).

This remarkable miracle wrought in the name of Jesus Christ proved that though the Jews had crucified him, he was now alive and continued his work through the disciples.

Lesson 3. Peter and John Witnessing of the Risen Christ Before the Sanhedrin (Acts 4).

As a result the Sanhedrin took knowledge that they had been with Jesus, that is, his life and work were being reproduced in and through them. Being with Christ will: 1. Give an experimental knowledge of him, so that the life will remind one of Jesus. 2. Take away the fear of man. Peter, who a little while ago quailed before a Jewish mob, is undaunted before the august sanhedrin. 3. Open a man's lips. Peter said: "We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." What the heart feels, the mouth must speak out.

Lesson 4. The Risen Christ Vindicating His Church (Acts 1: 5-16).

He passed judgment upon Ananias and Sapphira for their hypocritical pretense of generosity. The living Christ knows the intents of the heart; nothing can be concealed from him.

Lesson 5. The Living Christ Saving Men and Women in Samaria (Acts 8: 4-25). His sanction of the preaching of the Gospel by Philip in Samaria is shown by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Peter and John were sent by the mother church to confirm the work.

Lesson 6. The Living Christ Healing the Sick and Raising the Dead (Acts 9: 32-43).

That Christ is alive is proved by the vanquishing of the dreadful malady of palsy and the reuniting of a corpse by the departed soul. Nothing like this had been known since the days of Christ.

Lesson 7. The Risen Christ Revealing Himself to a Gentle (Acts 10).

Peter testifies to Cornelius that Jesus Christ died for sin and is to be the judge of the quick and the dead, and that everyone who believes on him will receive remission of sins.

Lesson 8. Peter Is Delivered From Prison Through the Living Christ Sending His Angel to Open the Doors (Acts 12: 13-19).

The church prayed for Peter's deliverance and the prison was opened. All power is given him in heaven and in earth; there is nothing too hard for the living Christ.

Lesson 9. Peter Shows the Resurrected Christ as the Head of the Church (1 Peter 2: 15; 1: 25).

Because Christ is alive, those who are joined to him by faith grow. Because of the contact with him they are able to maintain securely behavior in the various relations of life.

Lesson 10. Christ Is the Revealer of God's Love (1 John 4: 7-21).

The proof that Christ is alive is the love of God in the hearts of those who have been born again.

Lesson 11. Christ Is Alive Because He Is Walking in the Midst of the Churches (Rev. 1: 4-18).

Lesson 12. In heaven, the crucified, risen and glorified Christ will be the center of worship. All glory and honor are ascribed to him because of his marvelous work of redemption.
