Miss Verna Trine Awarded Honors in Essay Contest

That Red Cloud ranks first in matters of major or minor importance has again been clearly demonstrated by the decision rendered in the essay contest recently conducted by the recruiting division of the United States Army.

A communication received, this week, from Major W. A. Cavelaugh of Omaha, states that the essay written by Miss Verna Trine has been awarded first place in this district.

The final judges of this district were Governor McKelvie, Chancellor Avery of the Nebraska "U", Governor Harding of Iowa, and Dr. Pearson of the Iowa State College. Several thousand essays were received.

The communication further states that Miss Trine's essay will be forwarded to Washington. If she is successful, which we hope she will be, she and one of her parents, will be awarded a free trip to Washington and receive a medal and prize cup from the Secretary of War.

The Red Cloud High School will, in the near future, receive a silver cup from the War Department and the same will be presented by a Recruiting Officer.

Miss Trine's parents, as well as her many friends, and others, may well feel proud of the success she has achieved. The Chief extends congratulations to the young lady.

Answers Final Summons

The last word of the final chapter of the book of life was written for L. B. McKimney, when he, on Sunday evening, surrendered his spirit to its maker, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Kinser.

The deceased was born in Indiana, March 8, 1828. He was united in marriage with Catherine J. Underhill, November 12, 1849. To this union were born eleven children, four of whom preceded him to the great beyond.

He with his family, came to Nebraska in 1880. He was the oldest member of the Masonic lodge in this state, having joined the order in 1849. Although not an ordained minister he preached the Word of God to his fellow men for over forty years. At the time of his entering into this calling few ministers were ordained.

His wife departed this life in 1890. Since that time he has made his home with his children.

He leaves to mourn his passing, seven children: J. A. McKimney, of Hot Springs, South Dakota; C. B. McKimney, Taylor, Nebraska; Margaret A. Rowland, Fowler, Colorado; J. A. McKimney, Orin, Washington; T. E. McKimney, Geneva, Nebraska; Ruth E. Kinser and W. H. McKimney of this city; two brothers, J. A. McKimney, Fort Scott, Kansas and J. R. McKimney of Muncie, Indiana.

Funeral services were conducted from the Kinser home, Tuesday afternoon, at 3:30, in charge of Rev. H. W. Ope. The remains were taken to Swanton and laid to rest beside his wife.

At last the old rusty locks which has kept the Sunday amusements in this city closed for many years, was broken Monday when a petition signed by over a hundred of our citizens was presented to the county commissioners asking that they grant a permit to play Sunday base ball near this city. The county commissioners granted the request and those in charge of the ball team are now busy lining up the players and preparing a schedule for the season. The lovers of base ball will not have to go to other towns this season in order to see a ball game on Sunday afternoon. Let's all boost for the home team.

Ed Hubatka, son of Commissioner Jas. Hubatka, passed away at the family home south of Bladen the first of the week after a short illness.

Groceries That Satisfy

In Quality and Price!

That's the kind you'll find in our store. We don't consume large amounts of ad space, spasmodically, telling you about big bargains in special lines—sold at and below cost—because every merchant must derive a certain percent of profit on the goods he sells if he expects to pay interest on his investment and remain in business.

During our many years in the grocery business we have found that the average customer prefers high quality groceries at honest prices to inferior brands at "below cost" price.

Our guarantee of satisfaction stands behind the merchandise we sell. You take no chances when you trade with us.
